Notes for Dr. GIDEON HILL MORGAN:

I also obtained a copy of G.H. Morgan's obituary from the newspaper.

I didn't get the obituaries for W.T. or Martha because the McClung Library has a gap in their collection (1921-1950's) so I'd need to go to the main library to check on theirs.

Back to G.H.'s obit, it's a fairly detailed obit and gives a brief history on him, how he was born in Church Hill, Hawkins County, graduated with a medical degree from the University of Tennessee, studied elsewhere (such as in Philadelphia), practiced in Rogersville before coming to Knox County circa 1900. Oh, he died at three in the afternoon of Tetanus after stepping on a rusty nail. It also mentions that he started the American Philosophical Institute. It lists his children but not his sibs only stating he has many brothers and sisters.

Was a member of Fountain City Methodsit Church South

A Union soldier, a private, for 13 months and 27 days (E 1; Kentucky Light Artillery); 29 Nov 1863 to 25 Jan 1865. Both he and Pleasant enlisted at Camp Nelson KT on Nov. 29, 1863.

He was in military service in between 1863 and 1865 Civil War; Union Army. He was a farmer and a tanner. He received a pension on 10 Feb 1891 Gen. Pension Index, Box 337: Widow Morgan Martha A, E 1 Ky LA; Invalid: Feb 10 1891 (987.143--763-444) TN; Widow Jul 16, 1925 (1235.085--965.166) TN Attorney: Maring Slusher.

BIOGRAPHY: He was in Knox Co, TN by 1869 (per Noah's birthplace). He worked as a tanner at Knoxville, Tn. He wrote affidavit for brother Pleasant in 1888 In 1905 Knoxville Directory listed as living at Tazeweell Pike, Beverley, next to Noah.

"I did find proof of the Mineral Springs. I found 3 Chancery Court lawsuits between the various members of the William T. and Martha R. Morgan family and the springs are mentioned in the lawsuits. Each of the lawsuits was filed in 1928-1929 pertaining to the property, the ability or "sound mindedness" of Martha to deal with it and her decision to leave all the property to Bertha Morgan Hodge.

The first case, a guardianship case, is missing but I can deduce from the other two cases that it was rejected though it seems to have been appealed all the way to the TN State Supreme Court. Another deals with trespassing and harrassment while the third deals with inheritance issues. These cases are genealogical gold mines because they spell out all the descendants of William T. and Martha R including the deceased children and their heirs. They also show that Martha was receiving a U.S. Pension as well as $25/month from various people contracted to gather and sell water from the 6 mineral wells on the property.

There are various other cases filed by N.W. (Noah) Morgan versus other Morgan family members as well as some cases by G.H. Morgan and Clint Morgan, his son. I looked at one of the Clint cases but it only involved payment for medical services provided. I only looked at a 4 year period in one of the courts so there may be many more case files in our collection that could reveal lots of info.

I also obtained a copy of G.H. Morgan's obituary from the newspaper. I didn't get the obituaries for W.T. or Martha because the McClung Library has a gap in their collection (1921-1950's) so I'd need to go to the main library to check on theirs. Back to G.H.'s obit, it's a fairly detailed obit and gives a brief history on him, how he was born in Church Hill, Hawkins County, graduated with a medical degree from the University of Tennessee, studied elsewhere (such as in Philadelphia), practiced in Rogersville before coming to Knox County circa 1900. Oh, he died of Tetanus after stepping on a rusty nail. What a waste!!! It also mentions that he started the American Philosophical Institute. It lists his children but not his sibs only stating he has many brothers and sisters.

Whew, that's it for now. I need to get ready to leave for the day. I'll take a look to see if any of the other case files I found provide another link for W.T. and G.H.

The death certificate states Sam's parents as WT and Martha Trotter Morgan, AND, it says WT Morgan was born in Morganton NC. That is in Burke Co. Now we have Noah sightings in 1836 in Stokes, 1840 in Rockingham, 1845 in Burke? These people got around.

Dear Carol,

Hmm, Mineral Springs. I have not heard of them but then again, I'm not a local having moved here from Florida only 5 years ago. However, I did find proof of the Mineral Springs. Notes for Pleasant Benjamin Morgan:

The LDS web page has an International Genealogical Index abstract showing that Margaret J. Conant married Pleasant B. Morgant on Sept. 29, 1870. I have confirmed this marriage in Hawkins County Vital records but the groom's surname is "Morgan" and the date is Sept. 26, 1870. I believe that I have found this family in the 1880, 1900, 1910 and 1920 US Censuses for Hawkins County TN. I am a little unsure about the 1910 data where his wife is listed as "Marcha J. and appears to be 10 years too young. Pleasant is born in TN but his parents were born in NC. In 1880 Pleasant is a farm laborer.

1913 Pleasant is living in Eidson, Hawkins County, TN
