The so-called Belding house, part of the Ashuelot Warp company property, at the east end of Lower Ashuelot, is being torn down. It has not been occupied for years, has become dilapidated and a dangerous fire risk.

Most of the members of the local Universalist Sunday school attended and participated in the children's day exercises at the Winchester church Sunday forenoon, and were entertained by Mrs. F. E. Carpenter until the return train in the afternoon.

Patrick J. Cunningham and Miss Hannah L. Phelps were married by Rev. F. D. O'Neil at St. Michael's Roman Catholic church Wednesday evening, June 24. The bride is the daughter of Mrs. A. Cunningham and is employed in a shop of the New England Box company.

The auction sale of the local real estate took place last Tuesday. The entire property was bid off by Lawyer Charles H. Hersey of Keene for $425 for the local Catholic society. The money was turned over to the tenement house to Samuel Bushey. The home will be used for the parochial residence of the parish.

The business portion is still evident here, several factories being closed. The New Hampshire Box company's shop was stopped from Friday to Tuesday. E. C. Robertson and Sister Slocum closed a week ago Saturday for two weeks or more and the Sheridan woolen mill closed Saturday for two weeks while improvements are being made in the card room.

NORTHFIELD, MASS.

Tuesday morning a balloon was noticed passing over the town going in the direction of Warwick, where it is known today that it landed, having sailed from North Adams.

Children's Sunday was observed at the Unitarian church last Sunday morning. The morning hours were filled almost entirely by singing and recitations by the younger members who acquitted themselves most creditably. The pastor closed the service with a short talk.

The members of Northfield Grange will hold a lawn party next Tuesday evening on the grounds surrounding the home of Charles W. Matthews. The party will consist of singing and recitations by the younger members who acquitted themselves most creditably. The pastor closed the service with a short talk.

The Unitarian society will hold a lawn party on the grounds surrounding Perham's Inn on the evening of July 10. Supper will be served, many pleasing entertainments will be given, and ice cream and lemonade will be served. Elaborate preparations are being made for a successful affair, which will eclipse if possible the lawn party given last year.

The student conference of young men from the eastern colleges started last Friday with a large quota of delegates from many states and colleges. John H. Mott, who is so popular at these meetings, presided usually. Addresses are expected from Prof. E. I. Bosworth, Rev. Atton Phelps Stokes, President R. A. Falconer, Robert E. Spear, Dr. Charles Jackson, and others. The usual reports will be held in celebration of the Fourth.

The Young Women's conference will be held from July 7 to 15, while the general conference will begin on the last day of July. The graduating exercises of the Northfield high school were held last Thursday evening in the town hall and the hall was filled with parades and songs. The program was furnished by the high school chorus with Miss Marion Webster at the piano. A special feature of the program was the violin solo by Leo Tolman, accompanied by Miss Mildred Lyman. The graduating class consisted of Miss Ethel Stone and Miss Jean Graham of Warwick who gave the valedictory. Rev. Dr. Pentecost gave a very forceful address upon "Future and Opportunities," which held the closest attention of the audience. The diplomas were presented by L. R. Smith, chairman of the valedictory committee, followed by a short talk to the retiring class by Supt. E. F. Howard. Mr. Howard then presented the freshman class to the high school room, which had been decorated with evergreen and cut flowers. The whole affair reflected great credit upon the teachers and school and elicited many complimentary remarks.

Rev. W. F. White and son, Emmons, left Tuesday after spending a night with relatives in Ware, Mass., went to their new home in Leysford, Conn., their household goods having already been shipped. Mrs. White and the other members of the family went to Ware Tuesday and will remain there a few days.

Mrs. W. S. Barrows passed her eightieth birthday anniversary quietly Tuesday. There was no special demonstration made for the occasion but post cards, flowers and the calls of friends, made the day a very pleasant one for Mrs. Barrows, who should not be spoken of as eighty years old, but more fittingly as eighty years young.

The Hinsdale baseball team was defeated by Keene Saturday in a close game, score 11-10. Sweeney pitched well for Hinsdale and Young, Delphy and Troch played the best, each getting three hits with a total of six. Oliver's pitching and the hitting of Coffey, Higgins and Connors were features for Keene. Keene won the game by a score of 11-10. A joint meeting of the school boards of Swansey, Winchester and Hinsdale was held at the selectmen's room Monday afternoon. State Supervisor E. C. Morrison, who called the meeting, was present, and explained the advantages of superintendency, also what the duties of a superintendent are. The meeting was hurriedly called, and the committees from the other towns were not all present. It was thought best not to organize at the time of the meeting, but to discuss the matter at a later date. It was voted to adjourn to Monday afternoon, July 6, the meeting to be held at the same place, directly after the arrival of the Hinsdale team from Keene. The board will organize, and a supervisor will be secured to begin work at the opening of the school year.

A special meeting of the Congregational society was held on the church vestry Monday evening, called for the purpose of taking action on Rev. W. F. White's resignation, and any other necessary business. The meeting was called to order by the moderator, R. E. Metcalf, and after prayer by Deacon Savage, it was voted to accept the resignation of Rev. White. The meeting was a very successful one, and the resignation of Rev. White was accepted with a unanimous vote.
