

QUIETLY MARRIED AT HOME.

Miss Sadie C. Preston, daughter of William R. Preston, was married last evening, at the residence of her father, 27 West Forty-eighth-street, to Dr. H. Seymore Houghton. It will be remembered that this wedding was to have taken place on Oct. 12, but was postponed on account of the severe illness of Dr. Houghton. The wedding was not a large one, but was attended by members of the family and intimate friends. The parlors were very prettily decorated by Dorau, the ceremony taking place under an evergreen bell. The bride wore a gown of white corded silk trimmed with lace. Her veil was of lace and her ornaments were diamonds. Her maid of honor and two bridesmaids, the Misses Preston, her sisters, were simply dressed in white tulle. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Dr. Coe, assisted by the Rev. Dr. Paxton. The ushers were Hunter McAlpin, Clarence Houghton, and Russell Houghton. Mr. Parsons was best man.

The New York Times

Published: January 6, 1888

Copyright © The New York Times