

rites of Dr. Houghton

CHICAGO, June 20 (AP)—A funeral service was held here today for Dr. Will H. Houghton, president of the Moody Bible Institute, who died on Saturday in Los Angeles.

The service was conducted in the Moody Memorial Church by the Rev. Dr. William Culbertson, the institute's dean of education and acting president, and the the Rev. Dr. Harry A. Ironside, pastor of the church. The Rev. Dr. Weldon M. Wilson, pastor of the North Shore Baptist Church of Chicago, read the Scripture, and the Rev. Dr. Irwin A. Moon, director of the Moody Institute of Science, Los Angeles, gave the prayer.

Honorary pallbearers were the eleven trustees of the institute. The active pallbearers were members of the institute's faculty and business staff. Burial will take place at New Bethlehem, Pa.

Dr. Houghton was pastor of the Calvary Baptist Church in New York and the Baptist Tabernacle in Atlanta before becoming president of the Moody Bible Institute in 1934.

A memorial service for Dr. Houghton will be held tomorrow at 3 P. M., in Calvary Baptist Church, 123 West Fifty-seventh Street, of which he was pastor from 1930 to 1934.

The New York Times

Published: June 21, 1947

Copyright © The New York Times