
Houghton—Bolton.

BAYPORT, L. I., July 26.—There was a quiet marriage of a New York couple in St. Ann's Church yesterday afternoon. Only the intimate friends of the two families were present. The bridal pair were Miss Katharine Bolton of Brooklyn and Dr. Henry Clarke Houghton of West Thirty-ninth Street, Manhattan. The Rev. George R. Van De Water, D. D., read the service. The bride was dressed in white. After the ceremony there was a wedding tea at the Seaman cottage, where the bride and her family are spending the Summer. Dr. and Mrs. Houghton left after the tea for a short Eastern trip. They will return to Bayport, where they will remain until October, when they will go to their permanent home in Manhattan.

The New York Times

Published: July 27, 1901

Copyright © The New York Times