

JANE OLMSTED WED TO A. A. HOUGHTON JR.

Mrs. Vance C. McCormick's
Daughter Bride of Ex-Ambassador's Nephew.

---

MARGARET ZIEGLER WEDS

---

Church Ceremony at Marriage to Archbold Van Buren of New York and Newport.

---

Special to The New York Times.

HARRISBURG, June 12. — Miss Jane Olmsted, younger daughter of Mrs. Vance C. McCormick, was married today to Arthur A. Houghton Jr. of Corning, N. Y., a nephew of Alanson B. Houghton, formerly Ambassador to the Court of St. James's, in St. Stephen's Episcopal Church by the Rev. Dr. Oscar F. E. Treder, rector of St. Stephen's, and Bishop William R. Stearly of Newark, N. J.

The bride was given in marriage by Vance C. McCormick. Mrs. Spencer G. Nauman, a sister, was matron of honor. The bride's other attendants were Mrs. Alan G. Rinehart, Mrs. Henry Cushing Olmsted, Miss Marie Parish and Miss Frances Ottley of New York, Mrs. Amory Houghton of Corning, Miss Laura Wayne of Philadelphia, Miss Esther Shoup of Dallas, Texas, and Miss Virginia Fox of this city.

Mr. Houghton and his bride will live in Corning.

The New York Times

Published: June 13, 1929

Copyright © The New York Times