

WESTCHESTER COUNTY.

John J. Houghton, the Yonkers bigamist, who has been serving during the past year in Sing Sing Prison, has been returned to the White Plains jail, a writ of error having been granted in his case, his wife having been used as a witness against him, contrary to the provisions of the statute.

The mandamus issued by Justice J. O. Dykman to the Inspectors of Election of the Fourth Ward of the village of Mount Vernon, directing them to show cause why certain votes should not be counted for the Republican candidate for Trustee of that ward at the recent election, has been quashed.

The New York Times

Published: May 24, 1881

Copyright © The New York Times