

DIANE CARDELLI BRIDE IN CHAPEL

Married Here to Lawrence
Houghton, Yale Alumnus, at Central Presbyterian

The chapel of the Central Presbyterian Church was the scene yesterday afternoon of the marriage of Miss Diane Cardelli to Lawrence O. Houghton. The Rev. Dr. Theodore Cuyler Speers performed the ceremony.

The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Giovanni Cardelli of Water Mill, L. I. Her husband is the son of Mrs. Reeve Houghton of 226 East Seventieth Street and Owen Edward Houghton, also of New York.

Mr. Cardelli gave his daughter in marriage. She was attired in a street-length dress of deep cream-colored brocade fashioned along princess lines. With it she wore a veil of heirloom lace and carried sweetheart roses.

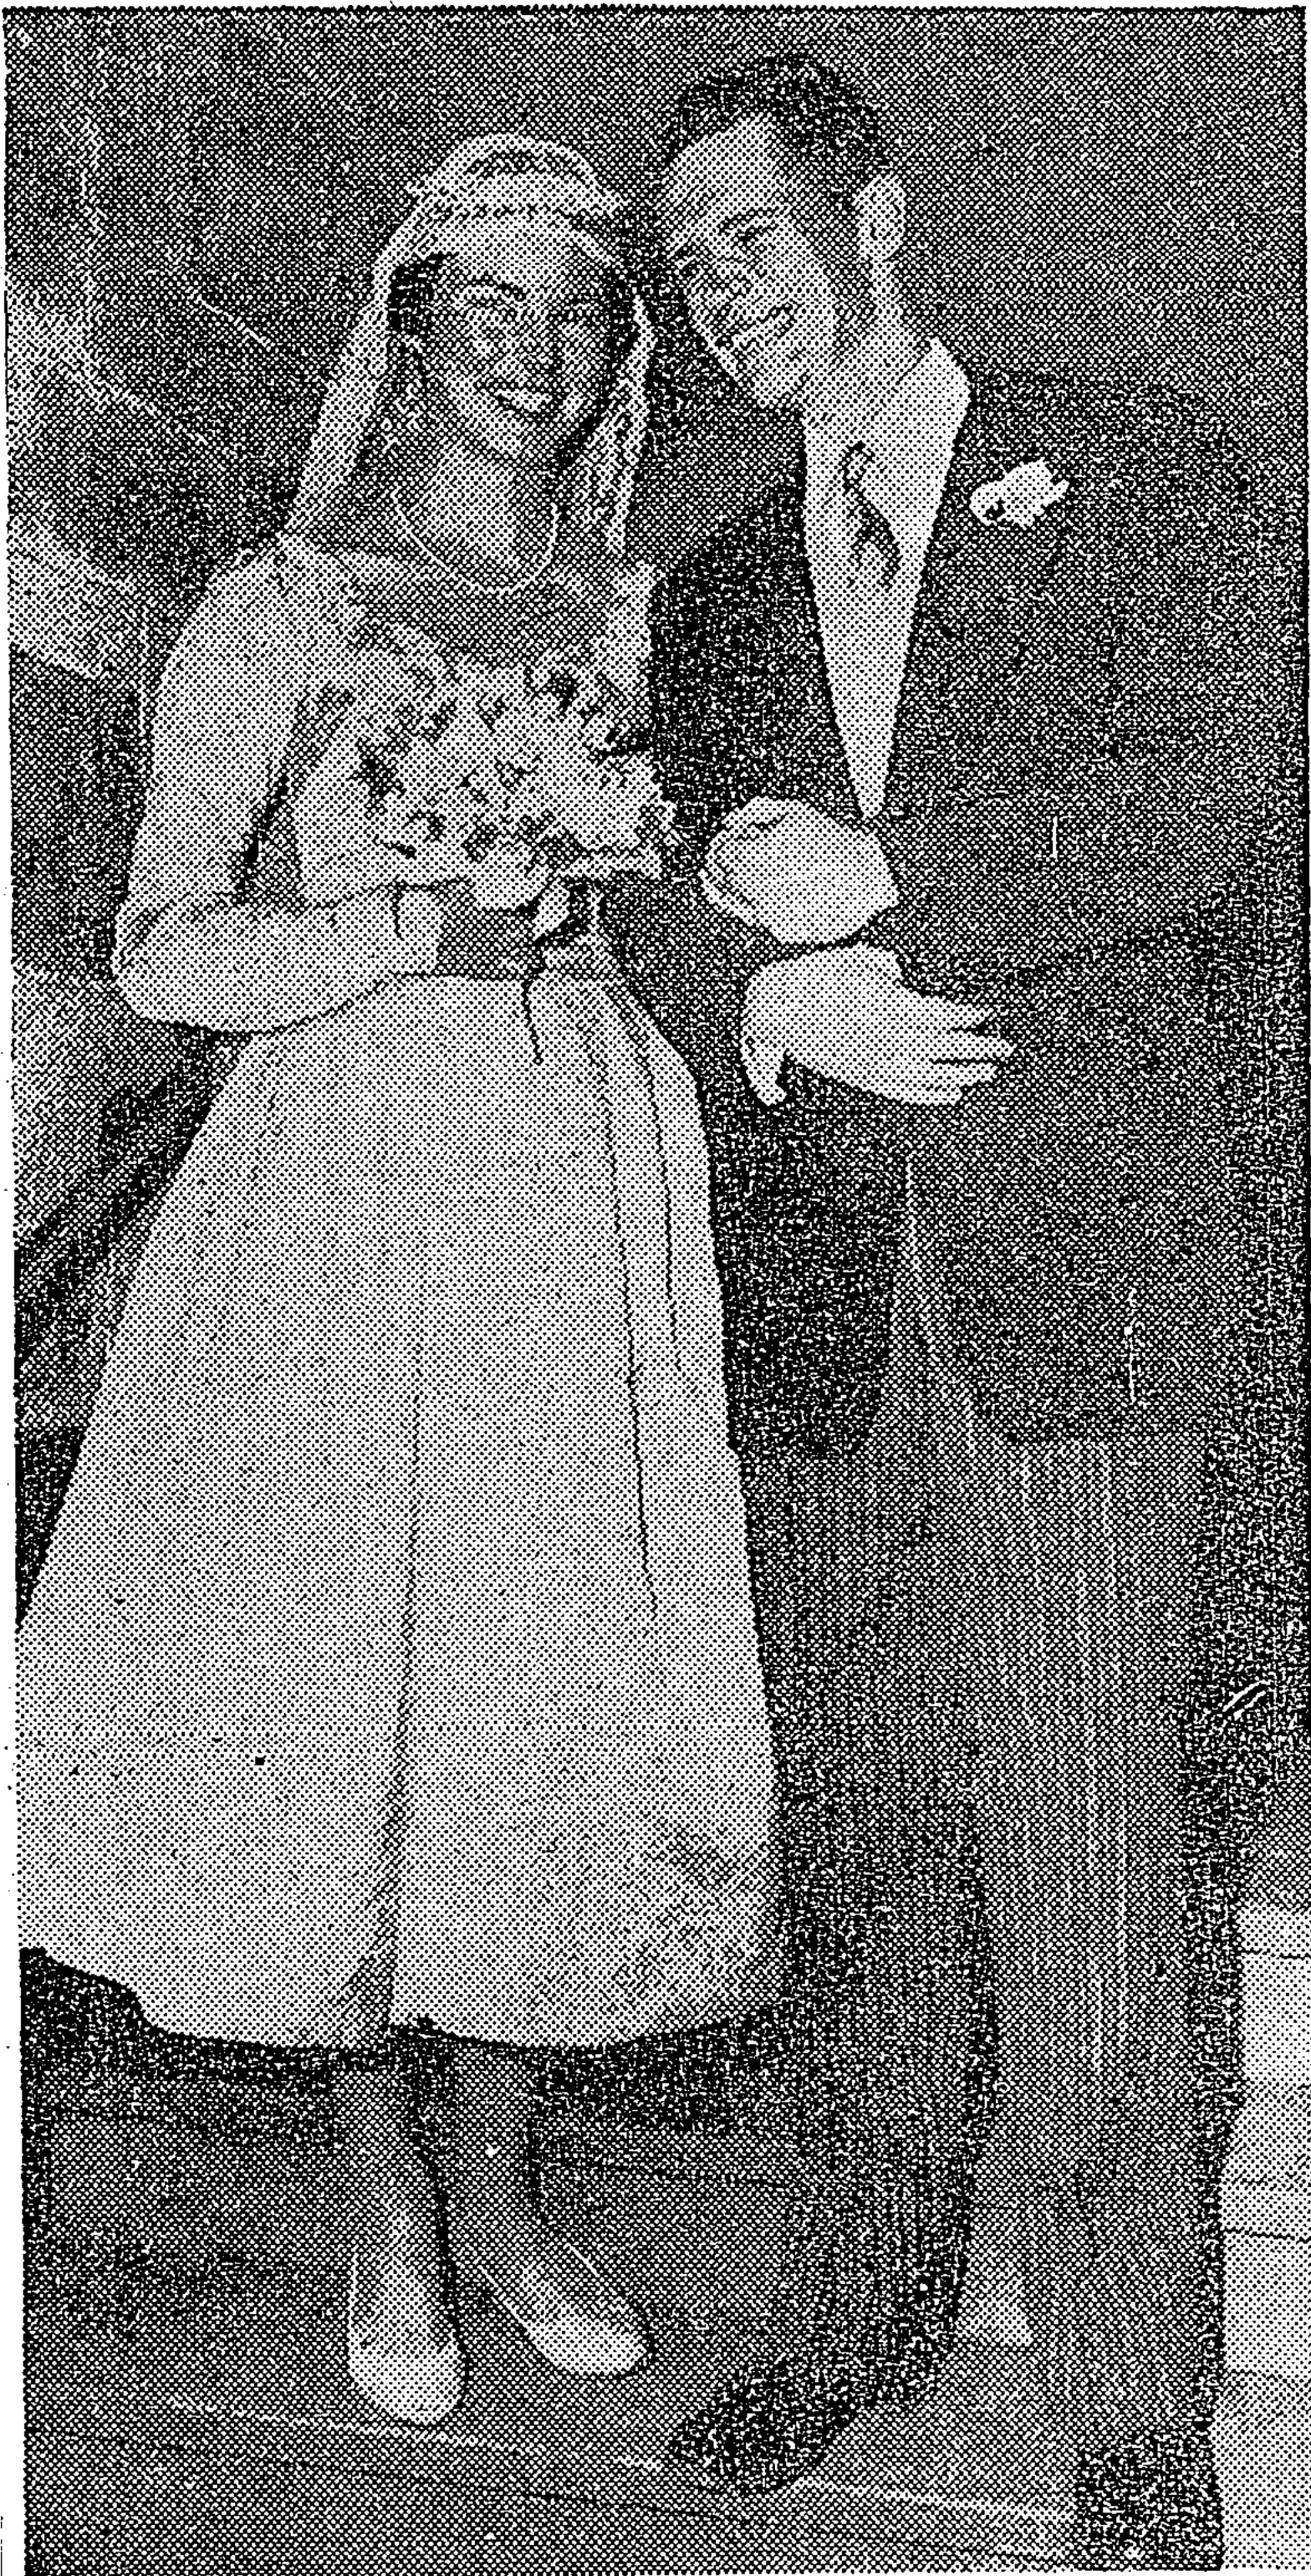

Miss Gioia Cardelli was her sister's maid of honor. She wore a dress of buttercup yellow organza and carried daisies.

The best man was Richard Dalton Carter, brother-in-law of the bridegroom.

The bride is a granddaughter of Countess Giovanni de Roussy Cardelli of Chicago, the late Count Cardelli and Countess Raoul de Sales of New York and the late Cecil Park Stewart of Centre Island, Oyster Bay, L. I.

A graduate of Indian View School in Lakeville, Conn., Mrs. Houghton also attended Havergal College in Toronto.

The bridegroom, who served with the Air Force, is a graduate of the Hotchkiss School and Yale.
