MARION H. HEPBURN HAS GARDEN BRIDAL

Sister of Katharine Hepburn
Wed in West Hartford Home to Ellsworth S. Grant

Special to THE NEW YORK TIMES.

WEST HARTFORD, Conn., June 12.—The marriage of Miss Marion Houghton Hepburn, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Thomas Norval Hepburn, to Ellsworth Strong Grant, son of Mr. and Mrs. Horace R. Grant of West Hartford, took place here at noon today in the garden of the home of her parents. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Henry Wilder Foote of Boston.

The bride wore a gown of white mousseline de soie trimmed with point lace and made with short puffed sleeves and a train. She wore also a veil of white mousseline de soie trimmed with lace and carried a bouquet of white spray orchids and lilies of the valley. Her only attendants were her sisters, Miss Katharine Houghton Hepburn, the actress, and Miss Margaret Houghton Hepburn. They wore similar gowns of dusty rose-colored linen trimmed with lace, large white hats, and carried bouquets of cornflowers.

Cleveland Amory of Milton, Mass., was best man for Mr. Grant. The ushers were Caleb Foote, Charles Butcher and Bruce Foster of Boston; Calvin Stillman of New York, John McCutcheon and John Schweppe of Chicago, and Richard Houghton Hepburn and Robert Houghton Hepburn.

A reception and breakfast followed the ceremony.

The bride attended the Oxford School and was graduated last Saturday from Bennington College. Mr. Grant attended the Kingswood School and will be graduated this month from Harvard College.
