Special to THE NEW YORK TIMES.

MANCHESTER, Mass., Aug. 2.— In the Emanuel Church here this afternoon Miss Sarah Lancashire White, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E.
Laurence White of New York and Lauralshire, Beverly Farms, was married to Samuel Gilbert Houghton, son of Mr. and Mrs. Clement S.
Houghton, Chestnut Hill and Manchester. All of the North Shore colonies were represented at the wedding.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of dark cream satin, cut on long, straight lines, with a train. Sleeves came to the elbows and fell away in folds. She was enveloped in a lace veil which had been worn by her aunt, Mrs. Richard Southgate of Washington. She carried an old-fashioned nosegay of roses.

Dr. John D. Houghton, a brother of the groom, was the best man.
Dr. Phillips E. Osgood, rector of Emanuel Church, Boston, officiated. A large reception followed the ceremony at the White home at Beverly Farms.

After a wedding trip abroad, Mr. and Mrs. Houghton will live in Ipswich.
