REFERENCES & INDEX

A listing of references and other source material, as well as an all-name index, is provided at the end of this genealogy.

Although an attempt was made to utilize primary source documents (birth, marriage, death, and census records, etc.) in compiling and verifying the information contained in this genealogy, some of the data that is presented was taken from secondary source material (correspondence, published genealogies, county histories, etc.), and could not always be substantiated by me personally due to a lack of access to the source data. As a consequence, some of the information presented in this genealogy may be subject to change as additional source material becomes available.

INTRODUCTION

Over the years, a large quantity of research has been done on the Matlock family. Based upon this research, and research that I have carried out on my own, a probable line of descent from the John Matlock who resided in New Kent County, Virginia down to the William Matlock who was born in about 1750-1755 in Virginia, and who died in 1829 in Morgan County, Indiana, is illustrated below. Unfortunately, the William Matlock (b. ca. 1750-1755) still remains the earliest known member of our Matlock family to have been positively identified to date. Even though the below line of descent has not been proven beyond all doubt, it is believed to be highly probable.

To begin with, there were two John Matlocks residing in New Kent County, Virginia during the late 1600's and early 1700's, namely John Matlock, Sr. and his son, John Matlock, Jr. In the christening records of St. Peter's Parish in New Kent County, three Matlock entries were found for the years 1701, 1702, and 1703. According to these Parish records, the father of the two children christened in 1701 and 1703, George and Thomas Matlock, respectively, was John Matlock, Jr. The father of the William Matlock who was christened in 1702, however, was shown as John Matlock also, but without a Jr. or Sr. suffix behind his name.

Because of the absence of a suffix behind the father's name in the 1702 christening record, and the time span between the christening of George and Thomas, many researchers have concluded that William was most likely the son of John Matlock, Sr. and his second wife, Margaret. Until such time as new evidence suggests otherwise, it is also this author's opinion that John Matlock, Sr. is the most probable ancestor of our William Matlock (b. ca. 1750-1755).

Although the actual place that John Matlock, Sr. was born has never been substantiated, it is likely that he was born in England and emigrated to the New World in the latter part of the 1600's. In addition, even though some individuals claim otherwise, to the best of my knowledge I know of no documentary evidence that confirms where John was born, when he was born, his parentage, or the maiden names of his wives. Other than name similarity, it appears that those who claim otherwise are relying more on wishful thinking, and conjecture, than fact.

Regardless of the above, John Matlock, Sr. is known to have been married at least twice during his life. He is known to have been married to a woman named Ann, and from that marriage he had one known son, John Matlock, Jr. This John, Jr. was later married to a woman named Hester Watson. Ann died on 23 March 1700 in New Kent County, Virginia.

After John's wife, Ann, passed away, he married next to a woman named Margaret in St. Peter's Parish in New Kent County, Virginia on 27 April 1701. From this marriage, John is believed to have had another son named William who was christened in St. Peter's Parish on 19 July 1702. John Matlock, Sr. subsequently died in New Kent County, Virginia on 6 January 1718. His widow, Margaret, appears to have died there during that same year.

With respect to the William Matlock who was christened in 1702, he appears to have also been married twice during his life. Although the name of his first wife is not known at this time, his second wife was named Elizabeth. Both of William's marriages are believed to have taken place in Virginia. William later died in about 1768 in Bedford County, Virginia.

Although there is no accurate accounting of the elder William's children, he is thought to have had at least one child, a son named David, from his first marriage. This David Matlock was born in about 1730 in Virginia, was married to a woman named Margaret, and died in 1790 in Washington County, North Carolina (now Tennessee).

From his second marriage to Elizabeth, the elder William is thought to have had at least three children. He is believed to have had a son named William, whose genealogy is presented below; a son named Valentine who was born in the 1750's in Bedford County, Virginia, was married to Mary "Polly" Shrewsbury, and died in 1825 in Wayne County, Kentucky; and a son named John who was born in Virginia and was married to a woman named Margaret.

William Matlock's son, William, from his second marriage to Elizabeth, is believed to be the William Matlock who was born in about 1750-1755 in Virginia, who was married to Sarah "Sally" Shepherd, and who died in 1829 in Morgan County, Indiana.

NOTE: In reading this manuscript, please keep in mind that each individual is assigned a number as a child. Information pertaining to that individual as an adult will be found in the subsequent generation under that same assigned number.

For the most part, many conflicting dates were easily straightened out by simply rechecking the source material or official records. In some cases, however, marriage dates may vary from other published works because the researcher used the date of a marriage bond, or the date a marriage license was issued, instead of the actual marriage date. Even though some of the source material I used did not specify the origin of the marriage date given, I have tried to differentiate the marriage dates as accurately as possible. In a number of cases an approximate date of marriage, using the abbreviation "ca." for circa (about), is shown based upon information provided in various census documents.

Another dating problem involves the recording of marriage banns. A couple's intentions to marry, or banns of marriage, were generally proclaimed in church on three consecutive Sundays, and if no legal impediments precluded the couple from being married, their marriage would be sanctioned after the third proclamation. Unfortunately, the first or second proclamation will often be cited as the marriage date instead of the third. I must admit, however, that this is difficult to avoid in some cases because of missing or damaged records.

Death dates may also vary in that the date of burial, or the date a will was written or submitted for probate, will sometimes be cited by others instead of the actual death date. In those cases where I was unable to verify which of two dates was correct, I generally went with the one that referenced the most credible source material, or simply used the year only.

One of the most common dating conflicts involves the use of the Julian Calendar versus the Gregorian Calendar. On 14 September 1752, the Gregorian Calendar was officially adopted in both Great Britain and its colonies in North America, and the first day of the year then became 1 January. Prior to that date, the Julian Calendar had been in effect and the first day of the year was 25 March. As a consequence, many of the dates found in documents in the 1600's and first half of the 1700's for the months of January, February, and March reflect, or possibly could reflect, a double date, such as 15 February 1735/1736. Even though both dates may be perfectly acceptable based upon the calendar that was in use at the time, to be consistent with current dating procedures the second date is most accurate.

LOCATIONS

With respect to the location at which an event took place, there were many cases when it was not possible to find any record giving the exact location that a birth, marriage or death took place. Because I feel quite strongly that dates should always be accompanied by places, if for no other reason than to aid future research, I made a number of assumptions regarding location based upon available information. For instance, if a family is found in the Fayette County, Indiana census records for 1840 and 1850, and they also show up in the deed and tax records of that county for the same period, I did not feel that it was unreasonable to assume that any children they had during this period were probably also born in Fayette County. In some cases, however, my comfort level with assuming a possible location was limited to a state only.

VIRGINIA, TENNESSEE, INDIANA, AND BEYOND

GENERATION ONE

William Matlock, who is believed to have been born in Virginia sometime during the period 1750-1755, is the earliest known member of our Matlock family to have been positively identified to date. And, as covered in the Introduction, even though his parentage has yet to be proven beyond all doubt, he is very likely a son of the William Matlock who was christened on 19 July 1702 in St. Peter's Parish in New Kent County, Virginia, was married lastly to a woman named Elizabeth, and died in Bedford County, Virginia in about 1768. <sup>1,3,4</sup>

Our William was later married in Virginia to a woman named Sarah (also called Sally) in about 1775. <sup>5</sup> (This year of marriage is based upon the year of birth of their eldest child, Mary). Even though it too has yet to be proven beyond all doubt, she is believed by many researchers to possibly be Sarah "Sally" Shepherd, a daughter of one of William's neighbors in Albemarle County, Virginia, James Shepherd. <sup>2,8</sup>

Sometime after their marriage, William and Sarah left Virginia and moved into that portion of Washington County, North Carolina, that had been formed into Sullivan County, Tennessee District, in 1779. (NOTE: Washington County, North Carolina embraced the entire state of Tennessee before 1779). Based upon what I have been able to determine from available documents, the earliest child of William and Sarah's to have been born in Tennessee with any certainty was Elizabeth in 1786. I personally believe that the family was in Tennessee prior to this time, however.

After North Carolina ceded the Tennessee District to the United States Government and it was divided into counties, William and Sarah were residing in that part of Tennessee that was formed into Knox County in 1792. And later, in 1801, when Roane County was formed from Knox County, it is in the records of that County that we find William and his family. In fact, William was one of the signers of the petition to form Roane County.<sup>9</sup>

Sometime prior to 1800, William appears to have purchased land along the Tennessee River, and by 1801, he was also operating a grist mill on Cave Creek.<sup>10</sup> Although a number of William's children apparently moved in about 1812/1813 to the White River country of the Indiana Territory, William appears to have remained in Roane County, where he is found paying taxes on 336 acres of land from 1814 through the 1822/1823 tax year.<sup>9,11,12</sup> William did eventually move to Indiana, however, where he settled in Morgan County. William died at Mooreville in Morgan County, Indiana in 1829.<sup>2,7</sup> His Last Will and Testament was subsequently submitted for probate before the Morgan County Court by his son, John, on 2 November 1829.<sup>7</sup> Although William's wife, Sarah, is known to have survived him, the date and place of her death have not been determined.

NOTE: Unfortunately a large number of researchers appear confused regarding the marriage of # 13 Nancy Matlock to William Kitchen. Nancy Matlock was not married to William Matlock on 29 September 1801, as many cite, as Nancy Matlock was not even born until 1801. What has apparently confused many researchers is the wording in the marriage record of Nancy's brother, William Matlock, to Nancy Kitchen. This marriage did take place in Knox County, Tennessee on 29 September 1801. If one actually reads the marriage record correctly, it is clear that it pertains to the marriage of William Matlock and Nancy Kitchen, not Nancy Matlock and William Kitchen.

GENERATION TWO

NOTE: Only the author's pedigree ancestor and known siblings are covered in this generation.

2. Mary "Polly" Matlock.

Mary Matlock, the daughter of William Matlock and Sarah "Sally" Shepherd, is believed to have been born in Virginia in 1776.<sup>5</sup> The date of Mary's birth was taken from the records of the Cave Creek Cemetery in Roane County, Tennessee.<sup>5</sup> As a young girl, Mary would have moved with her parents to Sullivan County in the Tennessee District of North Carolina. This county had been formed in 1779 from Washington County, North Carolina. She was subsequently raised in that part of Tennessee that was eventually formed into Knox County in 1792, and then Roane County in 1801.

Mary is known to have later been married in Tennessee to a man named Thomas Littleton in about 1797.<sup>2,5</sup> (This year of marriage is based upon the year of birth of their eldest child, James).<sup>5</sup> Thomas, who had been born in Hawkins County, North Carolina in about 1768, was the son of William Littleton and Sarah Cottingham.<sup>5,19</sup>

Although Mary and Thomas probably resided in Hawkins County, Tennessee for a few years after their marriage, they eventually moved to Roane County, Tennessee, where they appear to have resided for the remainder of their lives. Mary died in Roane County Tennessee in 1850, while Thomas died there in 1860.<sup>5</sup> Both Mary and Thomas were subsequently buried in the Cave Creek Cemetery at Cave Creek in Roane County, Tennessee.<sup>5</sup>

In a court case filed on 24 September 1868 in Roane County, Tennessee (George L. Littleton vs. William Littleton) it is stated that "Thomas Littleton is now dead leaving ten children and heirs at law - four being dead."<sup>30</sup> Although the names and some additional information are presented in this court case on all of Thomas and Mary's children, there are a couple of discrepancies in the information provided.<sup>30</sup> In addition to the below-listed children who were named in this court case, Thomas and Mary are believed to have also had two children who died in infancy.

3. John Shepherd Matlock, Sr. *

John Matlock, Sr., the son of William Matlock and Sarah "Sally" Shepherd, was born, probably in Virginia, on 14 July 1779. <sup>13</sup> As a young boy, John would have moved with his parents to Sullivan County in the Tennessee District of North Carolina. This county had been formed during the year John was born from Washington County, North Carolina. John was subsequently raised in that part of Tennessee that was eventually formed into Knox County in 1792, and then Roane County in 1801.

John Matlock is known to have been married twice during his life. He was married first to a woman named Eleanor "Nellie" Haggerty on 7 December 1801 in Roane County, Tennessee. <sup>2,6,13,14</sup> Although Eleanor Haggerty is known to have been born in Ireland on 1 May 1783, the identity of her parents has not been determined. <sup>13,14</sup> There were also in Roane County a woman named Prissillah Haggerty who was married Joseph Hacker on 8 June 1802, and a woman named Sarah Haggerty who was married Julius Hacker on 29 October 1809. <sup>16</sup> Although these two could very possibly be sisters of Eleanor's, this has not been substantiated.

In about 1812/1813, John and Eleanor moved with a number of the Matlock clan into the Indiana Territory where they settled along the White River. After arriving in the Indiana Territory, John and his family appear to have resided for a time in what was then called Knox County, but are presently Monroe and Morgan Counties. John Matlock and his family eventually moved north into what is now Hendricks County, Indiana. In 1828, John Matlock and Mr. Henry Fowler established the first settlement in Union Township in Hendricks County, Indiana. <sup>34</sup>

John remained in Hendricks County until 1833, at which time he journeyed to Illinois seeking to buy land. Having purchased a small farm in La Salle County from a man named Harris, he moved his family there the following year.<sup>35,36</sup> Besides John and Eleanor, five sons also moved from Indiana to Illinois. One of their sons, John Shepherd Matlock, Jr., returned to Indiana after only a short period, however.

In 1834, John sold the Harris property to Robert Ford and William Burns, subsequently purchasing another farm from a Mr. James Ford.<sup>35,36</sup> This farm was also situated in La Salle County, and covered the present site of Pavilion near Yorkville. During this same year, the first Sunday school to be held in that part of Illinois met in the home of John and Eleanor Matlock.<sup>37</sup> In 1841, when Kendall County, Illinois was formed from parts of La Salle and Kane Counties, John's farm was included in that County. Eleanor, who died on 9 February 1839 at Yorkville in La Salle County (now within Kendall County, Illinois), was subsequently buried in the Pavilion Cemetery at Yorkville.<sup>13,14</sup>

After Eleanor passed away, John married for a second time to a woman named Polly Oatman. This marriage took place on 27 November 1839 in La Salle County, Illinois.<sup>13</sup> John died at Yorkville in Kendall County, Illinois on 5 August 1846.<sup>13,14</sup> His will, which had been written on 6 July 1846, was admitted for probate on 3 November 1846.<sup>38</sup> John was also buried in the Pavilion Cemetery in Kendall County.<sup>14</sup> Whatever became of Polly Oatman has not been determined.

4. William Matlock.

William Matlock, the son of William Matlock and Sarah "Sally" Shepherd, is thought to have been born in about 1781, probably in Virginia. As a young boy, William would have moved with his parents to Sullivan County in the Tennessee District of North Carolina. This county had been formed in 1779 from Washington County, North Carolina. He was subsequently raised in that part of Tennessee that was eventually formed into Knox County in 1792, and then Roane County in 1801.

William was apparently married twice during his life. He married first to a woman named Nancy Kitchen on 29 September 1801 in Knox County, Tennessee. <sup>2,15</sup> There were no issue from his first marriage.

After his first wife passed away, William married for a second time by a marriage bond dated 4 January 1803 to a woman named Sarah "Sally" Walker in Roane County, Tennessee. <sup>2,16</sup> Sally was the daughter of George Walker and Eleanor Hicks. <sup>2</sup> In about 1812/1813, William and Sally appear to have moved with several other family members into the White River area of the Indiana Territory.

In 1816, William and Sarah purchased a farm in that portion of Knox County, Indiana that is presently within Monroe County, Indiana. <sup>49</sup> In 1818, William served as a Justice of the Peace for Monroe County, and in 1823, he was made an Associate Circuit Court Judge. <sup>50</sup> William subsequently died in Monroe County, Indiana during the month of November 1826. <sup>17</sup> His will, which had been written on 3 November 1826, was subsequently admitted for probate on 18 November 1826. <sup>17</sup> The children listed below were all named in William Matlock's will.

5. James Matlock.

James Matlock, the son of William Matlock and Sarah "Sally" Shepherd, is thought to have been born in about 1784, in either Virginia or what is today Tennessee. As a young boy, James would have resided with his parents in Sullivan County in the Tennessee District of North Carolina. This county had been formed in 1779 from Washington County, North Carolina. He was subsequently raised in that part of Tennessee that was eventually formed into Knox County in 1792, and then Roane County in 1801. James was later married on 5 January 1810 in Tennessee to a woman named Rosanna Eliza Wood.<sup>18</sup>

Several years after their marriage, James and Rosanna moved to the White River country of the Indiana Territory, settling in a area that was then part of Knox County, but is presently within Monroe County, Indiana. According to available land records, James and Rosanna acquired a number of lots in Bloomington Township in Knox County in 1816 and 1817.<sup>49</sup>

James and his family remained in what had become Monroe County until 1828, at which time they moved to Hendricks County, Indiana. James owned a tavern at Danville in Hendricks County, which he operated until his death.<sup>4</sup> James died at Danville, Indiana on 12 January 1833.<sup>19</sup>

6. Elizabeth Matlock.

Elizabeth Matlock, the daughter of William Matlock and Sarah "Sally" Shepherd, was born in Sullivan County, Tennessee District, North Carolina in 1785.<sup>20,21</sup> She was later married in about 1801 to a man named Thomas C. Walker. (This date of marriage was estimated from the date of birth of Thomas and Elizabeth's eldest child, John).<sup>20</sup> Thomas, who is believed to have been born in about 1781, was the son of John Walker and Nancy Sullivan.<sup>2</sup>

Although Elizabeth and Thomas apparently resided in Roane County, Tennessee for a number of years after their marriage, they eventually moved to Indiana, where they settled in Hendricks County. Thomas Walker appears to have died in Hendricks County, Indiana prior to 1850, as Elizabeth is found residing there by herself when that census was enumerated.<sup>21</sup>

Sometime after the 1850 census was taken, however, Elizabeth moved to Mahaska County, Iowa to be near some of her children. She died in Mahaska County, Iowa in 1855, and was subsequently buried in the White Cemetery at Oskaloosa in Mahaska County.<sup>20</sup>

7. Thomas Henry Matlock.

Thomas Matlock, the son of William Matlock and Sarah "Sally" Shepherd, was born in Hawkins County, Tennessee District, North Carolina on 4 February 1788. <sup>22,23</sup> As a young man, Thomas apparently moved south into the Mississippi Territory, where he is found on the 1813 list of persons paying taxes. <sup>167</sup> Thomas settled in that portion of the Mississippi Territory that was later formed into the Alabama Territory in 1817, but is today part of Clarke County, Alabama. Thomas was later married in Clarke County, Alabama to a woman named Elizabeth Rogers / Rodgers. <sup>22,24</sup> Elizabeth, who had been born on 25 December 1791 in Tennessee, was the daughter of James Rogers / Rodgers and Elizabeth "Elly" Hays. <sup>22,24,68</sup>

(NOTE: Although a number of individuals believe Elizabeth Rogers / Rodgers was married first to a man named Jesse B. Landrum on 2 January 1817 in Clarke County, Alabama, I have not been able to substantiate whether or not this is the same Elizabeth Rogers / Rodgers that married Thomas Matlock. <sup>69</sup>

After their marriage, Thomas and Elizabeth resided on a farm in Clarke County, Alabama, where they were last found residing on the 1850 census.<sup>23</sup> Sometime after the 1850 census was enumerated, Thomas and Elizabeth, apparently moved to Houston County, Texas, where they appear to have resided for the remainder of their lives. Thomas, who had fought against the British in the War of 1812, died in Houston County, Texas on 15 June 1854, while Elizabeth died there in 1875.<sup>4,22</sup> Both Thomas and Elizabeth were subsequently buried in the Glenwood Cemetery at Crockett in Houston County.<sup>22</sup>

8. David Matlock.

David Matlock, the son of William Matlock and Sarah "Sally" Shepherd, was calculated from the dates on his tombstone to have been born in Hawkins County, Tennessee District, North Carolina on 20 December 1788.<sup>25</sup> He was later married to a woman named Nancy Agnes Lee by a marriage bond dated 31 December 1808 in Roane County, Tennessee.<sup>25</sup> Nancy, who was born on 16 April 1789 in the Greenville District of South Carolina, was the daughter of William Lee and his second wife, Sarah McMullin.<sup>4,75</sup> She was also the sister of the Sarah Lee who married David's brother, George.<sup>75</sup>

Several years after their marriage, David and Nancy moved to the White River country of the Indiana Territory and settled in what was then Knox County, but is presently Monroe County. According to available land records, David acquired a number of lots in Bloomington Township in 1816.<sup>49</sup> He apparently remained in the vicinity of Monroe County until about 1825 when he and Nancy moved to Hendricks County, Indiana.

Nancy died in Hendricks County, Indiana on 15 November 1854, while David died there on 10 March 1861.<sup>25</sup> Both Nancy and David were subsequently buried in the Danville South Cemetery at Danville in Hendricks County.<sup>25</sup>

9. George Matlock.

George Matlock, the son of William Matlock and Sarah "Sally" Shepherd, is thought to have been born in about 1790 in Hawkins County, Tennessee.<sup>2,4</sup> He later married in about 1810 to a woman named Sarah "Sally" Lee in Roane County, Tennessee.<sup>2,4</sup> Sarah, who had been born on 1 August 1794 in the Greenville District of South Carolina, was the daughter of William Lee and his second wife, Sarah McMullin.<sup>75</sup> She was also the sister of the Nancy Agnes Lee who married George's brother, David.<sup>75</sup>

During the early 1800's, George and his family left Tennessee and moved to Delaware County in the Indiana Territory, where they appear on the 1820 census enumeration.<sup>76</sup> In about 1823, however, George moved to Hendricks County, Indiana, where several of his brothers had also recently settled. In 1824, George and three other individuals each donated 20 acres of land to be used as the site for establishing the town of Danville.<sup>72</sup> Just two years later, on 25 October 1826, George died from wounds he received during an altercation with his brother-in-law, Samuel Kimbrough Barlow.<sup>2,4,72</sup> Samuel Barlow was married to Sarah's sister, Susannah Lee.<sup>75</sup>

On 12 November 1834, nearly eight years after George was killed, his widow, Sarah, remarried in Hendricks County to a man named John Thompson.<sup>40</sup> John, who was a Baptist minister and farmer by trade, was a widower at the time. Although John and Sarah moved to Marion County, Indiana shortly after their marriage, within a few years they moved west into Lee County, Iowa. John subsequently died in Lee County in 1857. His last will and testament, which was not dated, was submitted for probate before the Lee County, Court on 16 October 1857.<sup>73</sup>

After John passed away, two of Sarah's nephews, William and John Barlow, went to Iowa and moved her to Marion County, Oregon. Sarah died on 23 July 1877 at the home of Elizabeth (Barlow) Hedgle at Gervais in Marion County, Oregon.<sup>74</sup> She was buried in the Barlow Pioneer Cemetery in Clackamas County, Oregon.<sup>74</sup>

10. Rosanna "Rosey" Matlock.

Rosanna Matlock, the daughter of William Matlock and Sarah "Sally" Shepherd, is thought to have been born in about 1792 in Knox County, Tennessee. <sup>2</sup> Rosanna was apparently married twice during her life. She married first to a man named David R. Brazeale on 22 January 1812. in Roane County, Tennessee. <sup>16</sup>

David Brazeale apparently died in Roane County, Tennessee in 1848, as during the October 1848 term of the Roane County Court, the County Commissioners agreed to furnish "one years provisions to the widow & family of David R. Brazeale, deceased." <sup>81</sup> Although David does not appear to have left a will, an inventory of his estate was carried out on 6 February 1849, and a list of all the estate property that had been sold was submitted to the Roane County Court during the March 1849 term. <sup>81</sup>

Rosanna subsequently married for a second time, also in Roane County, to a man named William Ballard on 3 December 1849. <sup>16</sup> William and Rosanna, along with Rosanna's son, Jesse Brazeale, are shown as residing in the same household on the 1850 census of Roane County. <sup>26</sup> William appears to have died in 1852 in Roane County, Tennessee. <sup>82</sup> His will, which had been written on 4 November 1850, was subsequently probated during the December 1852 term of the Roane County Court. Because there was no mention of Rosanna in his will, it is assumed that she pre-deceased him. <sup>82</sup>

11. Johanna "Anna" Matlock.

Johanna Matlock, the daughter of William Matlock and Sarah "Sally" Shepherd, is thought to have been born in about 1794 in Knox County, Tennessee.<sup>2</sup> She was later married by a marriage bond dated 24 August 1813 to a man named Charles Kitchen in Roane County, Tennessee.<sup>16</sup> Charles is believed to be the son of William Kitchen and an unknown wife.<sup>91</sup> He is also believed to be the brother of the William Kitchen who married Johanna's sister, Nancy. Johanna subsequently died on 27 January 1834 in Morgan County, Indiana.<sup>2,4</sup>

After Johanna passed away, Charles Kitchen married for a second time to a woman named Penelope (Priest) Steers on 12 February 1836 in Morgan County, Indiana.<sup>45</sup> Penelope, who was a widow at the time of her marriage to Charles, had previously been married in Morgan County to a man named John H, Steers on 6 February 1829.<sup>92</sup> Charles and Penelope had one daughter named Lucy Ann who was born in Morgan County, Indiana on 20 December 1836.<sup>2</sup> During the following year, Charles apparently returned to Tennessee where he is said to have died.

On 8 May 1837, the Morgan County Court appointed William Dornan as guardian of George, David, Nancy, Stephen, and Rebecca Kitchen.<sup>93</sup>

12. Jesse Matlock.

Jesse Matlock, the son of William Matlock and Sarah "Sally" Shepherd, was born in Knox County, Tennessee on 4 March 1796. <sup>26,27,28</sup> He was later married to a woman named Eleandor McPherson by a marriage bond that had been issued on 5 April 1821 in Roane County, Tennessee. <sup>16</sup> Eleandor, who was also a native of Tennessee, had been born there on 27 January 1802. <sup>26,27,28</sup>

Jesse Matlock died in Loudon County, Tennessee on 6 July 1877, while Eleandor died there on 21 December 1883. <sup>27,28</sup> Both were subsequently buried in the Matlock Cemetery at Matlock Bend on the Tennessee River in Loudon County. <sup>27,28</sup> A replacement tombstone was later erected in the Prospect Baptist Church Cemetery in Loudon County due to vandalism. <sup>27,28</sup>

13. Nancy Matlock.

Nancy Matlock, the daughter of William Matlock and Sarah “Sally” Shepherd, is believed to have been born in Knox County, Tennessee in about 1801. She was later married to a man named William Kitchen.<sup>2,4</sup> Because of Nancy's age at the time her parents moved to the Indiana Territory, there is a possibility that she married William Kitchen in Indiana. William is believed to be the son of William Kitchen and an unknown wife.<sup>91</sup> He is also believed to be the brother of the Charles Kitchen who married Nancy's sister, Johanna.

According to the 1830 census of Indiana, William and Nancy were residing in Morgan County, Indiana, along with one daughter between 5 and 10 years of age, and another daughter under 5 years of age.<sup>91</sup> William and Nancy were later found in the Morgan County deed records selling their one-ninth share of the land they inherited from her father, William Matlock, to Samuel Moore.<sup>104</sup>

Although William and Nancy later moved to Clay County, Indiana, where they were found in the deed records selling land to Charles Kitchen on 8 October 1839, no other documents have been found that pertain to them.<sup>29</sup>

GENERATION THREE

NOTE: Only the author's pedigree ancestor and known siblings, and those other family members (cousins) who have the Matlock surname, are covered in this generation.

24. Thomas Jefferson Matlock.

Thomas Matlock, the eldest son of John Shepherd Matlock and his first wife, Eleanor Haggerty, was born in Roane County, Tennessee on 6 October 1802.<sup>13,39</sup> He was later married to a woman named Nancy Ballard on 11 September 1823 in Morgan County, Indiana.<sup>13,39,40</sup> Nancy, who had been born on 15 November 1803 in North Carolina, was the daughter of William Ballard and Mary Ramsey.<sup>105,106</sup> She was also the sister of the Elizabeth Jane Ballard who married Thomas Matlock's brother, William Tyndall Matlock.<sup>106</sup>

In 1824, Thomas Matlock was elected as Hendricks County, Indiana's first sheriff.<sup>72</sup> He later became a member of the Whig Party, and served in the Indiana House of Representatives during the period 1826-1828.<sup>72</sup> On 4 August 1836, Thomas, who was a Minister, helped organize the first Christian Church (Boundary Line Church) in the old William Grant cabin in what is today La Fontaine in Wabash County, Indiana.<sup>39,46</sup>

In about 1845, Thomas and his family moved to Illinois, where they are shown on the 1850 census residing on a farm near Gilmer in Adams County, Illinois.<sup>107</sup> They eventually moved to Clark County, Missouri, however, where they settled in Jackson Township in Clark County.<sup>108</sup> According to the 1860 census of Clark County, Missouri, Thomas was serving as the Minister in the Christian Church there.<sup>108</sup> Thomas later died at Kahoka in Clark County, Missouri on 25 July 1865.<sup>41</sup> Nancy, on the other hand, survived Thomas by nearly ten years. She died at Kahoka, Missouri on 14 March 1875, and was subsequently buried in the Kahoka Cemetery in Clark County.<sup>105</sup>

25. James Burton Matlock.

James Matlock, the son of John Shepherd Matlock and his first wife, Eleanor Haggerty, was born in Roane County, Tennessee on 18 March 1804.<sup>39,42</sup> He was later married in Owen County, Indiana to a woman named Susan Asher on 16 June 1825.<sup>39,40</sup> Susan, who was calculated to have been born in about 1803 in Kentucky, was the daughter of John Asher and Jane Curry.<sup>115,116</sup>

Shortly after their marriage, James and Susan moved to Wabash County, Indiana, where they appear to have resided for about twenty-five years. Although James was a merchant and contractor during his younger years, he eventually became a lawyer and then a judge.<sup>39</sup> By 1860, James and Susan had moved to Keithsburg in Mercer County, Illinois, where James served as a Judge for the County Court.<sup>117</sup>

Sometime after the 1870 census was enumerated for Mercer County, Illinois, James and Susan moved again, this time to Marionville in Lawrence County, Missouri. Although James died on 9 September 1879 in Lawrence County, Missouri, the actual date and place of Susan's death has not been determined.<sup>42</sup> James was subsequently buried in the Marionville I.O.O.F. Cemetery.<sup>42</sup>

26. William Tyndall Matlock.

William Matlock, the son of John Shepherd Matlock and his first wife, Eleanor Haggerty, was born in Roane County, Tennessee on 4 February 1806.<sup>39,43</sup> He was later married on 8 September 1825 in Hendricks County, Indiana to a woman named Elizabeth Jane "Betsy" Ballard.<sup>39,40</sup> Elizabeth, who had been born on 9 March 1807 in Highland County, Ohio, was the daughter of William Ballard and Mary Ramsey.<sup>43,106</sup> She was also the sister of the Nancy Ballard who married William's brother Thomas Matlock.<sup>106</sup>

Shortly after their last child was born, William and Elizabeth moved to Oscalusia, Iowa where they joined an emigrant wagon train to Oregon. They left in the Spring of 1847 and arrived in Oregon in December of that year. Prior to arriving in Oregon, William and his family spent several days at the Whitman Mission near Walla Walla, Washington, but left there just prior to an Indian raid. Mr. Whitman and his wife and several others were killed during that raid.<sup>39</sup>

When gold was found in California in 1849, William left his family in Oregon and went to California. He returned to Oregon in 1850, however, settling on a section of land northeast of Oregon City.<sup>39</sup> William was later appointed by President Lincoln to be the Receiver of the Land Office at Oregon City, a position in which William served two terms. He also worked as an attorney and served as the County Judge for Clackamas County, Oregon for a number of years.<sup>39</sup> During the 1850 and 1852 Oregon Legislature, William served as Speaker of the House.<sup>120</sup>

William Matlock subsequently died on 19 September 1872 at his home in Clackamas County, Oregon.<sup>39,43</sup> Elizabeth, on the other hand, died on 12 April 1884 at Salem, Oregon.<sup>39</sup> Both were subsequently buried in the Clackamas Cemetery at Clackamas in Clackamas County, Oregon.<sup>43</sup>

27. Margaret Matlock.

Margaret Matlock, the daughter of John Shepherd Matlock and his first wife, Eleanor Haggerty, was born on 2 March 1808 in Roane County, Tennessee. <sup>39</sup> Margaret was apparently married twice during her life. She married first on 20 August 1829 in Hendricks County, Indiana to a man named Simeon Oatman. <sup>39,40</sup> Their marriage license had been issued on 14 August 1829 in Hendricks County, Indiana. <sup>39,40</sup> Simeon, who had been born on 27 April 1809 in Floyd County, Indiana, was the son of John Oatman and Nancy May Nance. <sup>121</sup>

Sometime after their marriage, Margaret and Simeon moved to that portion of La Salle County, Illinois that was later formed into Kendall County, Illinois in 1841. Simeon subsequently died in La Salle County on 13 December 1837. <sup>13</sup>

After her first husband passed away, Margaret married for a second time to a man named Joseph Brumbach (also written Brumback) on 7 January 1841 in La Salle County, Illinois. <sup>44,122</sup> Joseph, who had been born on 14 August 1799 in Shenandoah County, Virginia, was the son of John Brumbach and Elizabeth Rothgeb. <sup>122</sup> Margaret apparently died in La Salle County, Illinois in 1842, as Joseph married again in La Salle County to a woman named Comfort Young on 15 January 1843. <sup>44,122</sup> Joseph later died in La Salle County on 9 January 1875, and was buried in the Brumbach Cemetery at Ottawa in La Salle County. <sup>122,123</sup>

28. Sarah "Sally" Matlock.

Sarah Matlock, the daughter of John Shepherd Matlock and his first wife, Eleanor Haggerty, was born on 29 February 1810 in Roane County, Tennessee. <sup>14,39</sup> She was later married on 25 April 1829 in Hendricks County, Indiana to a man named William Paul. <sup>39,40</sup> Based upon William's stated age at the time of his death, as carved on his tombstone, he was calculated to have been born on 2 February 1807 in Roane County, Tennessee. <sup>124</sup>

Sometime after their marriage, William and Sarah appear to have settled in that portion of La Salle County, Illinois that was later formed into Kendall County, Illinois in 1841. According to available land records, William acquired several tracts of land in Little Rock Township in Kendall County during the years 1842 and 1843. <sup>125</sup> Sarah died in Kendall County, Illinois on 25 July 1849. <sup>14,39</sup> She was subsequently buried in the Pavilion Cemetery at Yorkville in Kendall County. <sup>14</sup>

After his first wife, Sarah, passed away, William traveled to Madison County, Iowa, where he married for a second time to a widow named Elizabeth (Chase) Ballard.<sup>124</sup> Although no marriage record has been found, based upon the birth year of their first child, it appears that they were probably married in about 1853/1854.<sup>126</sup> Elizabeth, who generally went by her nickname, Eliza, was born in Indiana on 29 August 1825.<sup>124,126</sup> She had previously been married to a man named Mortimore Ballard in Boone County, Indiana on 24 October 1844.<sup>92</sup>

William Paul subsequently died on 29 July 1872 in Butler County, Kansas, while Eliza died there on 15 February 1893.<sup>124</sup> Both William and Eliza were buried in the Shafer Cemetery at Potwin in Butler County, Kansas.<sup>124</sup>

29. John Shepherd Matlock, Jr. *

John Shepherd Matlock, Jr., the son of John Shepherd Matlock and his first wife, Eleanor Haggerty, was born on 16 February 1812 in Roane County, Tennessee.<sup>39,46</sup> At the age of one year, John accompanied his parents on the journey to the Indiana Territory. John grew up in Indiana, living for a number of years in Monroe County, and then later residing in Hendricks County to the north.

Sometime in the spring of 1834 John moved with his parents to La Salle County, Illinois. He did not remain in Illinois for long, however, and soon returned to Hendricks County, Indiana. In late 1834, or early 1835, John moved north to Wabash in Wabash County, Indiana where he secured a contract to construct a portion of the Wabash and Erie Canal.<sup>39,138</sup> This canal had been authorized by Congress to connect for navigation purposes the waters of the Wabash River and Lake Erie. When his contract on the Wabash and Erie Canal expired in 1836, John secured another contract for the construction of a canal near Indianapolis.<sup>39,138</sup>

On 24 August 1836, just prior to his leaving for the job near Indianapolis, John Shepherd Matlock was married at Wabash in Wabash County, Indiana to a woman named Mary Banta Cassatt.<sup>45</sup> Mary, who had been born on 28 December 1818 in Mercer County, Kentucky, was the daughter of David Cassatt and Polly Banta.<sup>39,47</sup> Her father, David, had brought his family to Wabash County in 1834 from Parke County, Indiana, and had also secured a contract to construct a portion of the Wabash and Erie Canal.

In the spring of 1840, John and Mary purchased a farm at La Fontaine in Wabash County, where they resided for the remainder of their lives.<sup>39</sup> During his later years, John was made one of the Superintendents to oversee the construction of the National Road across Indiana.<sup>39</sup>

John subsequently died in Wabash County, Indiana on 11 September 1879.<sup>39,47,130</sup> Mary, on the other hand, died on 17 February 1889 at the home of her son-in-law, Isaac Ferguson, in Owen County, Indiana.<sup>39,47</sup> Both John and Mary are buried in the Matlock Cemetery at Wabash in Wabash County, Indiana.<sup>47</sup>

30. West Walker "Wes" Matlock.

West Matlock, the son of John Shepherd Matlock and his first wife, Eleanor Haggerty, was born in the state of Kentucky on 4 March 1814. <sup>13,14,39</sup> He was later married in La Salle County, Illinois on 23 February 1840 to a woman named Lavina Trumbo. <sup>39,44</sup> Lavina, who had been born on 11 September 1820 at Newark in Licking County, Ohio, was the daughter of Matthias Trumbo and Rebecca Grove. <sup>13,14,132,133</sup>

West, who was a farmer by trade, died on 17 July 1886 in Kendall County, Illinois, while Lavina died there on 14 November 1910. <sup>14</sup> Both West and Lavina were subsequently buried in the Pavilion Cemetery in Kendall County. <sup>14</sup>

31. George Washington Matlock.

George Matlock, the son of John Shepherd Matlock and his first wife, Eleanor Haggerty, was born in Knox County, Indiana on 10 July 1816. <sup>39</sup> He was later married in Hendricks County, Indiana on 1 May 1842 to a woman named Martha "Patsy" Green. <sup>40,135</sup> Martha, who was calculated to have been born in 1824 in Indiana, was the daughter of James and Polly Green. <sup>21</sup>

George, who was a medical doctor in Chicago, Illinois, is said to have boarded a ship to sail around the Cape Horn of South America to California, but neither he, nor the ship, were ever heard from again. <sup>39</sup> Martha was residing with her parents in Liberty Township in Hendricks County in 1850. <sup>21</sup>

32. David Matlock.

David Matlock, the son of John Shepherd Matlock and his first wife, Eleanor Haggerty, was born in Monroe County, Indiana on 16 February 1819. <sup>14,39</sup> He was later married at Bristol in Kendall County, Illinois on 29 August 1839 to a woman named Elizabeth B. "Betsy" Johnson. <sup>14,39,44</sup> Elizabeth, who had been born on 14 February 1818 in the state of New York, was the daughter of Nelly (Hemenway) Johnson. <sup>14</sup>

During the month of June 1852, David was ordained a Baptist minister at Galena in Jo Daviess County, Illinois. He subsequently became the Pastor of the Baptist Church at Lancaster in Grant County, Wisconsin. Over the years David Matlock served as the Pastor for several churches in Illinois and Wisconsin. He eventually settled in Kendall County, Illinois, however, where he preached in the Long Grove Baptist Church at Pavilion.<sup>39,136</sup>

David died on 3 September 1877 at Makanda in Jackson County, Illinois.<sup>14,39</sup> Shortly after David passed away, Elizabeth returned to Pavillion in Kendall County, Illinois, where she died on 30 March 1882.<sup>14</sup> Both David and Elizabeth were subsequently buried in the Pavillion Cemetery at Yorkville in Kendall County.<sup>14</sup>

33. Joseph Hawkins Matlock.

Joseph Hawkins Matlock, the son of John Shepherd Matlock and his first wife, Eleanor Haggerty, was born in Monroe County, Indiana on 10 January 1821.<sup>39</sup> He was later married to a woman named Mary Almira Ballard on 24 September 1844 in Hendricks County, Indiana.<sup>39</sup> Mary, who generally went by her middle name of Almira, had been born in Indiana in 1822.<sup>48</sup>

Although Joseph and Almira lived for short periods in a number of locations, they spent the majority of their lives in Wabash County, Indiana. Joseph, who studied law as a young man, ran for public office in 1854. He was subsequently elected that year as the District Prosecutor for that portion of Indiana that included Wabash County. In 1856, however, he was elected to the office of Judge of the Court of Common Pleas. In about 1860, Joseph and Almira moved to Kosciusko County, Indiana, where they remained for approximately six years.<sup>138</sup>

In 1866, the town of Wabash in Wabash County was incorporated and elections were held for various offices. Joseph returned to Wabash at this time and ran for the office of Mayor. He was subsequently elected to that position and became the first mayor of Wabash, Indiana.<sup>138</sup> Although Joseph and Almira later moved to Peru in Miami County, Indiana, they eventually ended up in White County, Indiana. Almira died at Monticello in White County, Indiana on 14 February 1876.<sup>48</sup> Her remains were taken back to Wabash County for burial, however.<sup>48</sup>

During the following year, Joseph traveled to Elgin in Kane County, Illinois, where he married for a second time to a widow named Julia H. Allen on 16 April 1877.<sup>44</sup> Joseph, who served as a lawyer and Judge at Monticello in White County, Indiana up until the time of his death, died without issue on 28 December 1878.<sup>48</sup> Both Joseph and his first wife, Almira, were subsequently buried in the Falls Memorial Gardens Cemetery at Wabash in Wabash County, Indiana.<sup>48</sup>

34. Henry Harrison Matlock.

Henry Matlock, the son of John Shepherd Matlock and his second wife, Polly Oatman, was born on 17 October 1840 at Yorkville in La Salle County, Illinois (now within of Kendall County, Illinois).<sup>39,139</sup> He was later married in Kendall County, Illinois to a woman named Theresa B. Pettit on 31 October 1858.<sup>44</sup> Theresa, who was also a native of Illinois, was calculated to have been born there in 1843.<sup>140</sup>

According to available census data for Illinois, Henry and Theresa were residing in Little Rock Township in Kendall County, Illinois in 1860.<sup>140</sup> Shortly thereafter, Henry enlisted in the Union Army, serving as a Private in Company K of the 127th Infantry Regiment from Kendall County.<sup>139,141</sup> After the Civil War, Henry and Theresa were found residing at Muskegon in Muskegon County, Michigan, where Henry is shown on the 1870 census as being an auctioneer.<sup>142</sup> When the 1880 census was enumerated, however, they were residing in La Salle County, Illinois, where Henry was still working as an auctioneer.<sup>143</sup>

NOTE: Although some individuals believe our Henry Harrison Matlock was the H.H. Matlock who was residing in Texas in 1900, I do not believe this is correct. The H.H. Matlock in Texas in 1900 was residing with a sister named Alice, and stated that his father was born in Indiana and his mother was born in New York. Our Henry did not have a sister named Alice and his father and mother were born in Virginia and Ireland, respectively. It appears to me that information pertaining to two individuals with the same name has been merged to describe one.

Henry Harrison Matlock, who suffered numerous ailments in his later years, was residing at Los Angeles in Los Angeles County, California when he filed an application for an Invalids Pension on 30 August 1892.<sup>141</sup> Henry, who later died at the National Hospital at Leavenworth in Leavenworth County, Kansas on 10 June 1901, was subsequently buried in the National Cemetery at Leavenworth, Kansas.<sup>39,139,141</sup> Even though Henry had not yet passed away, Theresa, was found on the 1900 census of California, and later on the 1910 census, residing alone as a widow, at Los Angeles in Los Angeles County, California.<sup>144,145</sup> According to both of these censuses, she was employed as a domestic servant by a private family.<sup>144,145</sup> Theresa was last found on the 1920 census residing with her son, David, and his wife at El Centro in Imperial County, California.<sup>146</sup> David was working as a deputy sheriff at the Imperial County Jail at the time.<sup>146</sup>

35. George W. Matlock.

George Matlock, the eldest son of William Matlock and Sarah "Sally" Walker, was born in Roane County, Tennessee on 11 June 1803.<sup>51</sup> As a young boy, George accompanied his parents on their move to the Indiana Territory, where they settled in what is now Monroe County. He was later married in Monroe County, Indiana in about 1827 to a woman named Anna Young.<sup>51</sup> Anna, who was a native of Virginia, was calculated from her tombstone to have been born there on 20 June 1807.<sup>51</sup>

After their marriage, George and Anna remained in Monroe County, Indiana, where they resided on a farm in Bloomington Township. George died on 28 April 1877 in Monroe County, Indiana, while Anna died there on 21 August 1877.<sup>51</sup> Both were subsequently buried in the Bethel Church Cemetery at Bloomington in Monroe County.<sup>51</sup>

36. John W. Matlock.

John Matlock, the son of William Matlock and Sarah "Sally" Walker, was calculated to have been born in 1805 in Roane County, Tennessee. <sup>52</sup> John was apparently married twice during his life. He married first on 24 January 1830 to a woman named Sarah Hinkle in Monroe County, Indiana. <sup>40</sup>

After his first wife passed away, John married for a second time, also in Monroe County, to a widow named Jemima (Smith) Ward on 29 October 1849. <sup>40</sup> Jemima had previously been married to a man named Emanuel Ward on 21 June 1831 in Fayette County, Indiana. <sup>40</sup> Jemima, who was a native of Ohio, was calculated to have been born there in 1814. <sup>52</sup> Shortly after their marriage, John and Jemima apparently moved to Johnson County, Indiana where they show up on the 1850 census residing at Hensley. <sup>52</sup> Unfortunately, no additional information has been found regarding this couple, or their children.

38. David Matlock.

David Matlock, the son of William Matlock and Sarah "Sally" Walker, was calculated to have been born in 1818 in Monroe County, Indiana. <sup>52</sup> He was later married to a woman named Sarah Huff by a marriage license which was issued on 2 December 1836 in Morgan County, Indiana. <sup>40</sup> Sarah, who was also a native of Indiana, was calculated to have been born there in 1819. <sup>52</sup>

Sometime after their marriage, David and Sarah moved to Johnson County, Indiana, where they show up on the 1850 census. <sup>52</sup> According to this census, David was working as a blacksmith. By the time the 1860 federal census was enumerated, however, the family was residing in Morgan County, Indiana. <sup>53</sup> David appears to have died between 1860-1870 in either Morgan County, Indiana or Cumberland County, Illinois, where Sarah is found residing in 1870. <sup>53,150</sup>

David's widow, Sarah, along with their two youngest children, George and Sarah, was last found on the 1870 federal census of Cumberland County, Illinois residing with her son, William, and his family in Union Township. <sup>150</sup> What became of Sarah after this has not been determined.

39. Malinda Matlock.

Malinda Matlock, the daughter of William Matlock and Sarah "Sally" Walker, was born in about 1820 in Monroe County, Indiana. She was later married in Monroe County to a man named William Hooper on 4 October 1838.<sup>40</sup> Although William and Malinda were found on the 1840 census of Monroe County, Indiana, the 1850 census indicates that William had remarried in about 1843/1844 to a woman named Rhoda.<sup>54</sup> As such, it is assumed that Malinda died without issue sometime after the 1840 census was taken, possibly due to complications associated with childbirth.

James Matlock, the son of William Matlock and Sarah "Sally" Walker, was born in Monroe County, Indiana on 16 May 1821.<sup>55</sup> He was later married in Monroe County, Indiana by a marriage license dated 24 March 1841 to a woman named Evaline Hensley.<sup>40</sup> Evaline had been born on 4 January 1822 in Virginia.<sup>55,160</sup>

James and Evaline were residing on a farm near Bloomington in Monroe County, Indiana in 1850.<sup>54</sup> Shortly thereafter, however, James and his family moved west into Illinois, where they settled on a farm near Rutledge in De Witt County.<sup>160</sup> James subsequently died in De Witt County, Illinois on 20 April 1893, while Evaline died there on 9 December 1902.<sup>55</sup> Both were buried in the Rucker Chapel Cemetery at Wapella in Wilson Township in De Witt County.<sup>55</sup>

41. Mary Ann "Polly" Matlock.

Mary Matlock, the daughter of William Matlock and Sarah "Sally" Walker, was calculated to have been born in 1825 in Monroe County, Indiana.<sup>54</sup> She was later married in Monroe County, Indiana on 19 June 1842 to a man named West C. Walker.<sup>40</sup> West, who was a medical doctor, was calculated to have been born in 1820 in Tennessee.<sup>54</sup>

According to the 1850 federal census of Monroe County, Indiana, West and Mary, and their two children were residing in Clear Creek Township.<sup>54</sup> Shortly after this census was taken, however, West and Mary apparently moved to Van Buren County, Iowa. Mary died in Van Buren County, Iowa sometime between 1850-1856, and was subsequently buried in the Dibble Cemetery near Utica, Iowa.<sup>54,56,172</sup>

When the 1856 Iowa state census was enumerated, West had remarried for a second time to a widow named Rhoda Ann (Harper) Montgomery, and was residing at Harrisburg in Van Buren County, Iowa.<sup>56,172</sup> When the 1860 census was enumerated, however, West and his second wife were residing at Centerville in Appanoose County, Iowa.<sup>84</sup> They later moved back to Van Buren County, Iowa by 1870.<sup>171</sup> The following children were abstracted from the 1850 census of Monroe County, Indiana.<sup>54</sup>

42. Rosanna Matlock.

Rosanna Matlock, the daughter of James Matlock and Rosanna Wood, is believed to have been born in about 1811 in Roane County, Tennessee, and may be a twin child. Rosanna was apparently married twice during her life. She married first to a man named Rollin Lindsey on 3 December 1828 in Hendricks County, Indiana.<sup>40</sup> Rollin Lindsey, who was a medical doctor by trade, died in about 1832 in Clinton County, Indiana.<sup>174</sup>

After her first husband passed away, Rosanna married for a second time to a man named John Dunn. This marriage took place on 30 April 1833, also in Hendricks County, Indiana.<sup>40</sup> John had served as the Sheriff of Hendricks County during the years of 1826 and 1827.<sup>34,175</sup> He also served as a Justice of the Peace in 1834.<sup>34</sup> Rosanna died in Hendricks County, Indiana on 8 June 1842.<sup>4,174</sup>

43. Sarah Matlock.

Sarah Matlock, the daughter of James Matlock and Rosanna Wood, is believed to have been born in about 1811 in Roane County, Tennessee, and may be a twin child. She was later married to a man named John Ervin (also written Irvin) in Monroe County, Indiana on 11 July 1828.<sup>40</sup> John and Sarah were last found on the 1840 census of Hendricks County, Indiana, along with three children.<sup>204</sup> Unfortunately, no additional information has been found concerning this couple.

44. William W. Matlock.

William Matlock, the son of James Matlock and Rosanna Wood, was calculated to have been born in 1812 in Knox County, Indiana Territory. <sup>21</sup> He was later married in Hendricks County, Indiana to a woman named Eliza Jane McVey on 7 April 1839. <sup>40</sup> Eliza, who was a native of Pennsylvania, had been born there during the month of August 1823. <sup>183</sup> William was a clerk at Danville in Hendricks County, and during the period 1853-1857, he also served as the Danville Postmaster. <sup>184</sup>

William and Eliza eventually moved to Indianapolis in Marion County, Indiana, where they resided for the remainder of their lives. William Matlock died at Indianapolis, Indiana during the month of October 1870, and was buried in the Crown Hill Cemetery at Indianapolis, Indiana on 12 October 1870 (see note below). <sup>58</sup> Eliza, on the other hand, died at Indianapolis during the month of May 1909, and was buried in the Crown Hill Cemetery at Indianapolis, Indiana on 19 May 1909. <sup>58</sup>

NOTE: Although information at findagrave.com indicates that William W. Matlock died in 1870, an alternate death date was provided the Author many years ago, unconfirmed, that gives William's actual death date as 5 October 1876. Without access to the original Sexton's records or tombstone, however, I do not know which date is correct. The 1880 census of Marion County, Indiana shows a daughter of William and Eliza's, namely Olive Matlock who was calculated to have been born in 1873. Obviously, William could not have died in 1870 if he had a daughter born in 1873.

Ironically, the daughter named Edith, who was born in about 1868, was not shown on the 1870 census, adding more confusion to the issue. Until such time as the issue of William's death date can be resolved, the information presented at findagrave.com will be presented in this write-up, but may be subject to change in the future.

45. John Thomas Matlock.

Although the 1820 census of Monroe County, Indiana appears flawed, John Matlock, the son of James Matlock and Rosanna Wood, was probably born in about 1813 in Roane County, Tennessee. <sup>57</sup> Because this child does not appear on the 1830 census of Monroe County, Indiana, it is believed that he may have died young. <sup>64</sup>

46. James W. Matlock.

James Matlock, the son of James Matlock and Rosanna Wood, was calculated to have been born on 20 March 1814 in Knox County, Indiana Territory. <sup>21,59</sup> James was apparently married twice during his life. He married first to a woman named Sarah Caywood in Hendricks County, Indiana on 18 January 1838. <sup>40</sup> Sarah, who was a native of Kentucky, was calculated to have been born there on 26 January 1820. <sup>21,59</sup> She died in Hendricks County, Indiana on 29 January 1860. <sup>59</sup> Sarah was the mother of seven children by James.

After his first wife passed away, James married for a second time, also in Hendricks County, Indiana, to a woman named Rosanna Baldwin on 25 May 1869. <sup>45</sup> Rosanna, who was calculated to have been born in Indiana in 1825, was the daughter of Eli and Elizabeth Baldwin. <sup>21,59,71</sup>

James Matlock, who was a dry goods merchant by trade, died in Hendricks County, Indiana on 20 April 1874, while Rosanna died there in 1909. <sup>21,59,71</sup> James and both of his wives were subsequently buried in the Stilesville Cemetery at Stilesville in Hendricks County. <sup>59</sup> There were no issue from his second marriage.

47. Mary Ann “Polly” Matlock.

Mary Matlock, the daughter of James Matlock and Rosanna Wood, was born in Monroe County, Indiana on 25 December 1817. <sup>60</sup> She was later married in Hendricks County, Indiana to a man named William M. C. Blake on 21 August 1834. <sup>45</sup> NOTE: The actual marriage record indicates their marriage license was issued on 20 August 1834, their marriage was solemnized on 21 August 1834, and the marriage certificate was registered on 25 August 1834. <sup>45</sup> William, who was a native of Kentucky, had been born there on 22 September 1813. <sup>60,62</sup>

Although Mary and William resided in Hendricks County, Indiana for several years after their marriage, by the time the 1850 census was taken they were residing at Greencastle in Putnam County, Indiana.<sup>62</sup> William's occupation was listed as being that of a mens tailor.<sup>62</sup> William died on 1 January 1886 in the town of Greencastle in Putnam County, Indiana, while Mary died there on 26 April 1894.<sup>60</sup> Both were subsequently buried in the Forest Hill Cemetery at Greencastle, Indiana.<sup>60</sup>

48. Matilda Matlock.

Matilda Matlock, the daughter of James Matlock and Rosanna Wood, was born in Monroe County, Indiana on 22 March 1819.<sup>25</sup> She was later married to a man named James Madison Gregg in Hendricks County, Indiana on 16 December 1835.<sup>25,40</sup> James had been born on 26 June 1806 in Patrick County, Virginia.<sup>25</sup>

After their marriage, James and Matilda remained in Hendricks County, where James served for several years as a surveyor for Hendricks County, and then as a Clerk for the Hendricks County Circuit Court.<sup>25</sup> He also served one term as a U. S. Congressman from Indiana during the period 4 March 1857 to 3 March 1859, and in 1860, he served as a delegate from Indiana to the Democratic National Convention.<sup>25,190</sup> During the Civil War, James served as a Colonel in the Hendricks County Militia and for the 6th Military District of Indiana.<sup>190</sup>

James Gregg died at Danville in Hendricks County, Indiana on 16 June 1869, while Matilda died there on 13 November 1873.<sup>25</sup> Both James and Matilda were subsequently buried in the Danville South Cemetery at Danville in Hendricks County.<sup>25</sup> The below listed children were abstracted from the 1850 and 1860 censuses of Hendricks County, Indiana.

49. Margaret Matlock.

Margaret Matlock, the daughter of James Matlock and Rosanna Wood, was calculated to have been born in Monroe County, Indiana in 1822.<sup>62</sup> She was later married to a man named Edward Wilson McGaughey on 18 January 1838 in Putnam County, Indiana.<sup>40</sup> Edward, who was a lawyer by trade, had been born in Putnam County, Indiana on 16 January 1817.<sup>193</sup> He was the son of Arthur McGaughey and Sarah Bell.

During the period 1839-1840, Edward served in the Indiana State House of Representatives, and in 1842-1843 he served in the Indiana State Senate.<sup>193</sup> He was later elected to represent Indiana in the U. S. Congress during the periods 1845-1847 and 1849-1851.<sup>193</sup> Because of ill health, Edward decided to go to California.<sup>194</sup> While crossing the Isthmus of Panama he came down with a fever and subsequently died at San Francisco in San Francisco County, California on 6 August 1852.<sup>194</sup> He was buried in the Golden Gate Cemetery.<sup>193</sup>

After her first husband passed away, Margaret married for a second time to man named Ira A. Rowlson (also written Rawlson and Rollson) on 7 October 1856 in Putnam County, Indiana.<sup>45</sup> Ira, who was a native of New York, was calculated to have been born there in 1816.<sup>195</sup> He was a Merchant by trade.<sup>195</sup>

Shortly after their marriage, Ira and Margaret moved to Vigo County, Indiana, where they were found residing on the 1860 census residing at Terre Haute.<sup>195</sup> By the time the 1870 census was enumerated, however, Ira had apparently passed away as Margaret was living with her youngest son, William Rowlson, at Indianapolis in Marion County, Indiana.<sup>63</sup>

51. Eliza Jane Matlock.

Eliza Matlock, the daughter of James Matlock and Rosanna Wood, was calculated to have been born in Monroe County, Indiana in 1825. <sup>62</sup> Eliza was apparently married twice during her life. She married first on 30 August 1836 to a man named John W. Holland in Putnam County, Indiana. <sup>45</sup>

After her first husband passed away, Eliza married for a second time to a man named Arthur Owen White in Putnam County, Indiana on 23 July 1848. <sup>40</sup> Arthur, who was calculated to have been born in 1827 in Kentucky, was a tailor by trade. <sup>62</sup> After their marriage, Eliza and Arthur continued to reside at Greencastle in Putnam County, Indiana, where they remained throughout their married life together. Eliza died at Greencastle, in Putnam County, Indiana on 11 May 1870. <sup>60</sup>

After Eliza passed away, Arthur married for a second time to a divorcee named Minerva A. (Lindsey) Turner on 27 July 1871 in Putnam County, Indiana.<sup>92</sup> Minerva had previously been married to a man named Milton C. Turner on 23 April 1850 in Putnam County, but was later divorced.<sup>45,178</sup> She was calculated to have been born in 1831 in Hendricks County, Indiana, and was the daughter of Rollin Lindsey and Rosanna Matlock.<sup>179</sup> Arthur later died on 5 February 1901 at Greencastle in Putnam County, Indiana.<sup>60</sup> Both Arthur and Eliza Jane were subsequently buried in the Forest Hill Cemetery at Greencastle, Indiana.<sup>60</sup>

113. Vernon A. Matlock.

Vernon Matlock, the son of Thomas Jefferson Matlock and Nancy Ballard, was born in 1841 in Hendricks County, Indiana. <sup>107</sup> He was later married in Hancock County, Illinois to a woman named Lillian H. "Lottie" Edgerton on 18 March 1868. <sup>44</sup> Lottie, who was a native of Illinois, was calculated to have been born there in 1848. <sup>308</sup>

After their marriage, Vernon and Lottie resided at Carthage in Hancock County, where Vernon worked as a Deputy Sheriff and Jailer. <sup>308</sup> Vernon and Lottie later moved to Kahoka in Clark County, Missouri, where Vernon worked as a retail grocer. <sup>113</sup> Vernon was last found on the 1880 census of Clark County, Missouri. <sup>113</sup>

After Vernon's death, Lottie married for a second time to a man named Amon Richardson on 25 January 1888 in Clark County, Missouri. <sup>111</sup> What became of Lottie after that is not known.

115. Charles Ballard Matlock.

Charles Matlock, the son of Thomas Jefferson Matlock and Nancy Ballard, was born in Adams County, Illinois on 27 February 1846.<sup>114</sup> He was later married in Clark County, Missouri to a woman named Cora Rosaline Campbell on 27 February 1872.<sup>111</sup> Cora, who had been born in 1850 in Missouri, was the daughter of Isaac Campbell and his second wife, Emily Davis.<sup>114</sup>

After their marriage, Charles and Cora resided in Clark County, Missouri, where Charles was a partner in the law firm of Matlock and Hiller.<sup>309</sup> Charles and Cora were last found together on the 1900 census of Missouri residing at Kahoka in Clark County.<sup>310</sup> Sometime after 1900, Charles and Cora apparently moved to California. Charles is believed to have died without issue, probably in Los Angeles County, California in about 1908.<sup>39</sup> His widow, Cora, was last found on the 1910 census of Los Angeles in Los Angeles County, California as a widow.<sup>145</sup>

116. Alley Matlock.

Alley Matlock, the son of Thomas Jefferson Matlock and Nancy Ballard, was born in about 1848 in Adams County, Illinois. This child died young.<sup>39</sup>

117. Isabella C. "Bell" Matlock.

Isabella Matlock, the daughter of James Burton Matlock and Susan Asher, was born in Hendricks County, Indiana on 20 March 1829.<sup>42</sup> She was later married in Wabash County, Indiana to a man named Warren Vertrees on 14 September 1847.<sup>45</sup> Warren, who had been born on 25 July 1827 in Morgan County, Indiana, was the son of Charles Vertrees and Gincy Ballard.<sup>311</sup>

Several years after their marriage, Warren and Isabella moved to Rice County, Minnesota, where Warren operated a farm and also served in the State Legislature. Although they later joined Isabella's parents in Mercer County, Illinois for a short time, by 1870 they were residing in Lawrence County, Missouri. Upon arriving in Lawrence County, Warren and Isabella settled about five miles north of the town of Aurora. By 1885, however, they had actually settled in the town of Aurora.<sup>311</sup>

Warren, who was the superintendent of the Aurora Mining and Smelting Company, died in Lawrence County, Missouri on 14 June 1898.<sup>42,311</sup> Although Isabella also died in Lawrence County, the actual date of her death has yet to be determined.<sup>42</sup> Isabella was the mother of six children with Warren.<sup>118,311</sup> Both Warren and Isabella were subsequently buried in the Marionville I.O.O.F. Cemetery at Marionville in Lawrence County.<sup>42</sup>

118. Christopher Columbus Matlock.

Christopher Columbus Matlock, the son of James Burton Matlock and Susan Asher, was born during the month of February 1831 in Wabash County, Indiana.<sup>118</sup> Christopher was apparently married twice during his life. He married first in Mercer County, Illinois to a widow named Maggie A. Harder on 12 November 1855.<sup>44</sup> Maggie, who was a native of Tennessee, was calculated to have been born there in 1832.<sup>313</sup>

After their marriage, Christopher and Maggie resided for a number of years at Keithsburg in Mercer County, Illinois, where Christopher was a merchant.<sup>313,314</sup> Maggie apparently died in Mercer County, Illinois sometime after the 1870 census was enumerated, as Christopher is shown on the 1880 census as being married to a woman named Lizzie.<sup>315</sup> Lizzie, who had been residing with Christopher and Maggie on the 1870 census, was probably employed as a servant.<sup>314</sup> She had been born during the month of April 1850 in England.<sup>118</sup>

By 1880, Christopher and Lizzie were residing in Buck Prairie Township in Lawrence County, Missouri, where Christopher worked as a merchant and farmer.<sup>315</sup> Christopher Matlock was last found on the 1900 census of Lawrence County, Missouri.<sup>118</sup> Although Christopher and Lizzie did not have any children of their own, they adopted two children, whose names were Nellie and Charles, while residing in Missouri.<sup>118</sup>

137. Mary Ann Matlock.

Mary Matlock, the daughter of John Shepherd Matlock and Mary Banta Cassatt, was born at La Fontaine in Wabash County, Indiana on 23 January 1841. <sup>39,47</sup> She was later married at Wabash in Wabash County on 15 October 1857 to a man named Elias Smith Stone. <sup>45</sup> Elias, who had been born on 22 September 1836 in Fayette County, Indiana, was the son of Elias Barbee Stone and Catherine Houston Lindsay. <sup>39</sup> He was also the brother of the Francis Burgess Stone that married Mary's sister, Melissa. <sup>39</sup>

During the Civil War, Elias Stone received a military commission on 6 August 1862 to the rank of Captain, and on 25 August 1862, his company was mustered into the Union Army as Company A of the 89th Regiment, Indiana Volunteer Infantry. His Company was immediately ordered to the front at Munfordville in Kentucky, where it suffered heavy losses. Elias resigned his commission in September 1864 at St. Louis, Missouri and returned to Wabash County. <sup>138</sup>

According to the 1880 census of Indiana, Elias and Mary Ann were residing at Noble in Wabash County, Indiana, where Elias worked as a miller. <sup>344</sup> On 28 July 1882, only two years after that census was enumerated, Mary Ann died in Wabash County. <sup>47</sup> She was subsequently buried in the Matlock Cemetery at Wabash, Indiana. <sup>47</sup>

After Mary Ann passed away, Elias married for a second time, also in Wabash County, to a woman named Alice Line on 15 June 1884. <sup>45</sup> After Elias Stone's second wife, Alice, passed away, he married on 2 August 1899 for a third time to a woman named Susan J. Reed in Wabash County. <sup>45</sup> Elias and Susan eventually moved to the town of Marion in Grant County, Indiana, where Elias later died on 18 September 1903. <sup>39</sup> Whatever became of Susan has not been determined.

138. Thomas Jefferson Matlock.

Thomas Matlock, the son of John Shepherd Matlock and Mary Banta Cassatt, was generally referred to as Jefferson. He was born at La Fontaine in Wabash County, Indiana on 14 January 1843. <sup>39</sup> Jefferson was later married on 13 August 1862 in Wabash County to a woman named Martha A. Stone. <sup>45</sup> Martha, who was calculated to have been born in Wabash County in 1845, was the daughter of John Lindsey Stone and Elizabeth Ginn. <sup>39,116</sup>

During the Civil War, Jefferson received a commission as a Lieutenant in Company A of the 89th Indiana Volunteers, where he served under his brother-in-law, Captain Elias Smith Stone. Jefferson entered the service on 28 August 1862, and died less than one year later. He died of typhoid fever on 25 July 1863 at Memphis in Shelby County, Tennessee.<sup>39,129</sup> There were no issue from Jefferson's marriage to Martha.

After Jefferson passed away, his widow, Martha, married for a second time, also in Wabash County, to a man named John W. Munden on 9 May 1866.<sup>45</sup> John Munden subsequently died on 22 November 1876.<sup>129</sup> Martha later married for a third time to a man named John L. Hummel on 28 December 1881 in Wabash County.<sup>45</sup>

An interesting story concerning Jefferson Matlock involved a plow that he was using just prior to joining the Union Army. It appears that in 1862, sometime after the Civil War broke out, Jefferson was out plowing in a field when two young men came walking down the road. They were on their way to Wabash to enlist in the Army, and when they asked him to join them, Jefferson agreed. He subsequently unhitched his horse and sent it home, and threw his plow to the side of the field where it landed in a young sapling. Jefferson died the following year at Memphis, Tennessee. His plow, however, was discovered many years later, firmly embedded in a large tree. A section of that tree, with the plow intact, is now preserved in the Wabash County Historical Museum at Wabash, Indiana.<sup>348</sup>

Martha subsequently submitted a Declaration for Widow's Pension in Wabash County on 13 December 1926 for Thomas Jefferson Matlock's service during the Civil War.<sup>129</sup>

139. Emma E. Matlock.

Emma Matlock, the daughter of John Shepherd Matlock and Mary Banta Cassatt, was born at La Fontaine in Wabash County, Indiana on 6 July 1850.<sup>39,131</sup> She was later married in Wabash County on 6 October 1869 to a man named Isaac Ferguson.<sup>45</sup> Isaac, who had been born on 4 December 1843 in Warren County, Ohio, was the son of Henry and Susan Ferguson.<sup>116,131,138</sup>

According to the 1880 census of Indiana, Isaac and Emma were residing on a farm near Noble in Wabash County.<sup>344</sup> Sometime later, however, Isaac and Emma moved into Grant County, Indiana, where they appear to have resided for the remainder of their lives. Isaac died on 24 January 1916 at Marion in Grant County, Indiana, while Emma died there on 21 April 1916.<sup>131</sup> Both were subsequently buried in the Estates of Serenity Cemetery at Marion in Grant County, Indiana.<sup>131</sup>
