INTRODUCTION

Although there is a plethora of genealogical information in print, and currently circulating throughout the internet regarding our Dawson family, much of this information is not only conflicting, but also appears to defy logic. Unfortunately, so much of this “established” thinking and published information has been copied and repeated as gospel over the years that it may never be straightened out completely. Even though I realize that researching the Dawson family is wrought with missing documents, confusion over many individuals with similar names, and a lot of conflicting information being passed around, there should still be a more verifiable and defendable consistency in what is being presented.

Unfortunately, several published historical sketches of the Dawson family in early Maryland, confused the possible children of John Dawson and Rebecca Doyne with those of his son Nicholas Dawson and Mary Doyne. This, along with a penchant for some individuals to try and fill every gap in their genealogy with something, whether it is supportable or not, has helped to create even more confusion. In many cases the estimated ages of individuals I have seen are nothing more that wild guesses. In fact RootsWeb WorldConnect Project alone shows fourteen different birth years for the immigrant, John Dawson, not to mention several different sets of parents, and children that definitely do not belong to him.

What has traditionally been presented over the years is that John Dawson married Rebecca Doyne in the early 1670’s, and from this marriage several sons are generally purported to be theirs. Unfortunately, I personally have never found any tangible evidence that supports that any of the children claimed to be John and Rebecca’s are actually theirs.
With respect to one son, Edward Dawson, he is almost invariably shown to have been born in Charles County, Maryland in 1677. However, if one assumes Edward was married at about the age of twenty or twenty-one, his two eldest daughters, Elizabeth and Mary, would have had to have been married at the latest by about eight or nine years of age in order to have had the children they had. This simply is not realistic, but Edward’s birth year is presented over and over again in numerous Dawson genealogies. Based upon this alone the only explanations I can come up with are: (1) that John Dawson came to the New World and married Rebecca Doyne much earlier than is generally reported; (2) that Edward was born considerably earlier than 1677; or (3) Edward is not a son of John Dawson.

Ironically, there was an individual named Edward Dawson who was “transported” into the Province of Maryland in 1677 (The Early Settlers of Maryland by Gust Skordas). To say the least, the name Edward Dawson and the associated 1677 date are way too coincidental for my liking. I believe that this Edward was mistakenly considered by early researchers to be a son of John Dawson and Rebecca Doyne and that this error, along with the 1677 date, has been perpetuated ever since. Because lists of “transported” persons were generally reserved for adults, not newborn babies, I would argue that this Edward was probably a young man when he came to Maryland. As such, I am also of the opinion that this Edward is most likely the Edward Dawson who was married to a woman named Mary, and had (1) Edward, Jr. who married Margaret Allum, (2) Elizabeth who married John Perry, and (3) Mary who married John Cash. Although Edward may have been related to our John Dawson somehow, I simply cannot say how.

With respect to another of the “traditionally” named children of John Dawson and Rebecca Doyne, namely Charles Dawson, I personally have not been able to verify that he is a son, or that there was ever any connection between a Charles Dawson and John and Rebecca Dawson. Even though there was a Charles Dawson residing in Loudoun County, Virginia in the early 1700’s, I know of no verifiable evidence that indicates that he was a son, or that he even knew, John Dawson and Rebecca Doyne.

Two other children who have “traditionally” been identified as being sons of John Dawson and Rebecca Doyne, namely John and Thomas, are also suspect in my opinion. Although Lee O. Dawson in his book “Through Three Centuries with a Dawson Family” states that he believes John Dawson and Rebecca Doyne had sons named John and Thomas, I personally have not found any evidence to substantiate that they were sons, or for that matter, that they ever even existed.
At present, the only explanation that I can come up with for Mr. Lee O. Dawson to believe John and Rebecca Dawson had sons named John and Thomas, other than conjecture, revolves around the recorded inventory of Nicholas Dawson’s estate. According to early Maryland probate law, (pages 250 & 251 of “Proceedings and Acts of the General Assembly, April 26, 1715-August 10, 1716”), there was a legal requirement that all estate inventories be witnessed by two next of kin and by the two largest creditors of the deceased person. In a Prince George’s County, Maryland Inventory Accounts Record dated 12 July 1727, it is stated that Nicholas Dawson had as “Next of kin: John Dawson and Thomas Dawson.”

Unfortunately, in the case at hand, I know of no existing documentation that could be used to substantiate that the two individuals who were listed as next of kin, John and Thomas Dawson, were brothers of Nicholas Dawson, or if they were actually Nicholas Dawson’s two eldest sons, also named John and Thomas Dawson. I cannot help but believe that Mr. Lee O. Dawson assumed that John and Thomas were brothers of Nicholas, and therefore sons of John and Rebecca Dawson. However, as mentioned above, I personally have not found any evidence to substantiate that John and Rebecca Dawson had sons named John and Thomas, but I do know that Nicholas and Mary Dawson had sons named John and Thomas, and that they were of legal age to witness the appraisement of their father’s estate, along with his widow, Mary (Doyne) Dawson. As a consequence, I personally believe John and Thomas were actually sons of Nicholas Dawson.

With respect to the last individual who is “traditionally” identified as being a son of John Dawson and Rebecca Doyne, namely Nicholas Dawson, I again have found no documented evidence that verifies this beyond all doubt. However, based upon my research, and that of others, there does appear to be some circumstantial evidence available to suggest this “may” be a possibility. For example, they lived in the same area of Maryland, they were intermarried with the same Doyne family, Nicholas Dawson’s first son was named John, and their respective ages are appropriate.

All in all, I personally feel fairly comfortable, even with the lack of documented proof, suggesting that Nicholas Dawson is “probably” a son of John Dawson and Rebecca Doyne. I also feel fairly comfortable not including Edward, Charles, John and Thomas Dawson as being sons, as I believe their inclusion creates more questions than answers. Even though John and Rebecca may very well have had additional children, including both sons and daughters, I simply do not know. Perhaps future research, or DNA testing, will substantiate this in time, but current documentation simply does not support it at this time.

For the most part, many conflicting dates were easily straightened out by simply rechecking the source material or official records. In some cases, however, marriage dates may vary from other published works because the researcher used the date of a marriage bond, or the date a marriage license was issued, instead of the actual marriage date. Even though some of the source material I used did not specify the origin of the marriage date given, I have tried to differentiate the marriage dates as accurately as possible. In a number of cases an approximate date of marriage, using the abbreviation "ca." for circa (about), is shown based upon information provided in various census and other documents.

Another dating problem involves the recording of marriage banns. A couple’s intentions to marry, or banns of marriage, were generally proclaimed in church on three consecutive Sundays, and if no legal impediments precluded the couple from being married, their marriage would be sanctioned after the third proclamation. Unfortunately, the first or second proclamation will often be cited as the marriage date instead of the third. I must admit, however, that this is difficult to avoid in some cases because of missing or damaged records.

Death dates may also vary in that the date of burial, or the date a will was written or submitted for probate, will sometimes be cited by others instead of the actual death date. In those cases where I was unable to verify which of two dates was correct, I generally went with the one that referenced the most credible source material, or simply used the year only.

One of the most common dating conflicts involves the use of the Julian Calendar versus the Gregorian Calendar. On 14 September 1752, the Gregorian Calendar was adopted in both Great Britain and its colonies in North America, and the first day of the year then became January 1. Prior to that date, the Julian Calendar was in effect and the first day of the year was March 25. As a consequence, many dates found in the 1600's and first half of the 1700's for the months of January, February, and March reflect, or should reflect, a double date, such as 15 February 1735/1736. Even though both dates may be perfectly acceptable based upon the calendar that was in use at the time, to be consistent with current dating procedures the second date is most accurate.
LOCATIONS

With respect to the location at which an event took place, there were many cases when it was not possible to find any record giving the exact location that a birth, marriage or death took place. Because I feel quite strongly that dates should always be accompanied by places, if for no other reason than to aid future research, I made a number of assumptions regarding location based upon available information. For instance, if a family is found in the Fayette County, Indiana census records for 1840 and 1850, and they also show up in the deed and tax records of that county for the same period, I did not feel that it was unreasonable to assume that any children they had during this period were probably also born in Fayette County. In some cases, however, my comfort level with assuming a possible location was limited to a state only.

Also, births, marriages, deaths, burials, and land transactions, etc. will reflect the actual location (generally the county) that the event transpired in at the time, not where it is situated today. However, notations will also be made indicating today’s location where necessary. For example, if an event transpired in 1832 in Hampshire County, Virginia, a notation will be added indicating that Hampshire County is now in West Virginia.

MARYLAND, PENNSYLVANIA, VIRGINIA, AND ELSEWHERE

GENERATION ONE

1. John Dawson. (Please Read Introduction)

At the present time, an individual named John Dawson is believed to be the earliest known progenitor and immigrant ancestor of our Dawson family in America. Although it is strongly believed that this John Dawson emigrated to the New World during the last half of the seventeenth century from England, to the best of my knowledge neither the actual place he came from in England, nor the year in which he arrived in the New World, has ever been substantiated with any evidence. Unfortunately, information presented in many forums indicating where John was born, his parentage, and when he immigrated into the Province of Maryland, etc., appears to be based more on conjecture and name similarity rather than on any supportable facts.

Based upon the few records that do exist, however, there was a man named John Dawson who was residing in Charles County, Maryland during the latter part of the 1600’s, and it is this John Dawson who most individuals currently believe is the immigrant ancestor of our Dawson family in America, and the father of the Nicholas Dawson who married Mary Doyne. During the latter part of the 1600’s, this John Dawson, who was styled planter, is said to have applied for, and received, a land grant near Port Tobacco. It is also claimed that he subsequently acquired another parcel of land in that portion of Charles County, Maryland that was later formed into Prince George’s County, Maryland in 1695.

Our John Dawson was apparently married twice during his life. His first marriage, which probably took place shortly after his arrival in the Province of Maryland, was to a woman named Rebecca Doyne. Rebecca Doyne is said to be the daughter of the John Doyne who held a land grant on Chickamuxon Creek in Charles County, Maryland. Although Rebecca (Doyne) Dawson is believed to have died in Charles County, Maryland, the actual date of her death has not been determined.
As mentioned in the Introduction, even though John and Rebecca Dawson may have had other children, only one son, Nicholas Dawson, is currently considered by me to be theirs, or “probably” theirs, while two other individuals, John and Thomas Dawson, are considered to be “very unlikely” sons of John and Rebecca Dawson, and are most likely the sons of Nicholas and Mary (Doyne) Dawson.

After his first wife passed away, John Dawson married for a second time to a woman named Elizabeth Thirst. Their marriage took place on 16 September 1690 in Charles County, Maryland. Although John Dawson is believed to have died in Prince George’s County, Maryland, the actual date of his death is not known. Whatever became of Elizabeth after John’s death has not been determined.

GENERATION TWO

NOTE: Only the author's pedigree ancestor and known siblings are covered in this generation.

2. Nicholas Dawson.*

Nicholas Dawson, believed to be a “probable” son of John Dawson and Rebecca Doyne, was born in Charles County, Maryland. He was later married in about 1704 to a woman named Mary Doyne at "Fendall's Delight," a plantation in Charles County which had been acquired by Mary's father shortly before his death in 1689. Mary, who was also a native of Charles County, Maryland, had been born there in about 1682/1683. She was the daughter of Robert Doyne and Mary Stone, and quite possibly a cousin of Nicholas Dawson. Mary's mother, Mary Stone, was the daughter of William Stone, the first Protestant Governor of Maryland, and his wife, Verlinda Graves.

Although Nicholas and Mary appear to have resided for several years after their marriage at "Fendall's Delight," in 1710 they sold their interest in this plantation, as well as in an adjoining plantation named "Lyon's Denn," to William and Sarah (Doyne) Hutchinson. Sarah (Doyne) Hutchinson was Mary's older sister. Nicholas and Mary subsequently moved to a plantation called "Saturday's Work," where they appear to have resided for the remainder of their lives. "Saturday's Work" had been acquired by Mary's father in 1688, and was situated in that part of Charles County that was later formed into Prince George's County, Maryland in 1695.

It is interesting to note that when "Saturday's Work" was first granted, the Lord Proprietor offered those wishing to settle in Maryland all the land they could ride around in one day. James Bodkin, the original grantee, acquired his plantation in that manner on a Saturday, and hence the name "Saturday's Work." This land was situated approximately six miles south of present-day Washington, D.C.

Aside from "Saturday's Work," "Fendall's Delight," and "Lyon's Denn," Mary also inherited several other plantations from her father which she later left by will to her children. These were "Constant Friendship" along the Bush River in Baltimore County, "Spring Banks" in Somerset County, and "Sligo" in Prince George's County, Maryland. In addition, Nicholas and Mary petitioned the proprietary government for the right to take up lands for which warrants had previously been issued to Mary's father, Robert Doyne, but which he had not executed.
As a result of their petition, Nicholas and Mary were allowed to claim 2,000 acres "in any part of the Province not formerly laid out nor cultivated by any person, nor reserved for the use of his Lordship." 1 Although a portion of this acreage was taken up near Port Tobacco in Charles County, it appears to have been sold shortly thereafter. 1 The remainder was not taken up during Nicholas Dawson's lifetime, but was eventually acquired by his eldest son, John Dawson. 1

Nicholas Dawson apparently died in 1727 in Prince George's County, Maryland. 1,5,8 Although Nicholas did not leave a last will and testament, an inventory of his estate was compiled on 12 July 1727, with John Dawson and Thomas Dawson being identified as next of kin, and his widow, Mary Dawson, being named Executrix of his estate. 8 Nicholas Dawson's widow, Mary, subsequently acknowledged that the inventory of goods and chattels was "just and perfect" on 29 September 1727. 8

Mary, on the other hand, appears to have died in 1734 in Prince George's County, Maryland. 9 Her will, which had been written on 14 December 1734, was subsequently probated in Prince George's County on 24 January 1734/1735. 9 Although Nicholas and Mary are believed to have both been buried on their home plantation, "Saturday's Work," a Dawson Family Monument currently stands at Oxon Hill in Prince George's County, Maryland. 5

The below listed children were all named in Mary (Doyne) Dawson's will. 9 Their approximate ages were taken from "Through Three Centuries with a Dawson Family" by Lee O. Dawson. 1 The two youngest sons, George and Nicholas, were referred to as being minors in Mary's will. 9

Mary Dawson, the daughter of John Dawson and his second wife, Elizabeth Thirst, was born in Charles County, Maryland on 22 September 1692. ⁴ No additional information has been found concerning this individual.
GENERATION THREE

NOTE: Only the author's pedigree ancestor and known siblings, and those other family members (cousins) who have the Dawson surname, are covered in this generation.

John Dawson, the son of Nicholas Dawson and Mary Doyne, is believed to have been born in about 1706 in Prince George’s County, Maryland. He was later married in Prince George’s County to a woman named Martha Anne Marbury. Martha Anne, who had been born on 11 September 1715 in Saint John’s Parish in Prince George’s County, Maryland, was the daughter of Francis Marbury and his second wife, Frances Herd.

John Dawson evidently died in 1764 in Prince George’s County, Maryland. Although it appears that John did not leave a will, an inventory of his estate was compiled by Robert Wade and Richard Edelen on 23 April 1764. This inventory was later acknowledged to be a "true and perfect inventory" by his widow, Martha Anne, on 17 June 1764. Although John Dawson’s place of burial is not known, a Dawson Family Monument currently stands at Oxon Hill in Prince George’s County, Maryland.

Martha Anne was later found on the 1776 Provincial Census of Prince George’s County, Maryland residing with her son, Thomas, and his family. Martha, who survived John by more than thirty years, died on 28 January 1795 in Frederick County, Maryland. She was subsequently buried in the Mount Olivet Episcopal Cemetery at Frederick in Frederick County. The children listed below were abstracted from various sources, and are all believed to have been born in Prince George’s County, Maryland. Their exact order of birth is not known, however.

5. Thomas Dawson.

Thomas Dawson, the son of Nicholas Dawson and Mary Doyne, is believed to have been born in about 1708 in Prince George's County, Maryland. 1,3,11,12 He was later married in about 1740 in Prince George's County to a woman named Elizabeth Hawkins Lowe. 1,3,11,12,13 Elizabeth was the daughter of John Lowe and Mary Hawkins, and a sister of the Eleanor Ann Lowe who married Thomas Dawson's brother, George Dawson. 3,30,31
When Thomas Dawson’s mother wrote her will on 14 December 1734, she bequeathed to Thomas a plantation called “Constant Friendship” on the Bush River in Baltimore County, Maryland.¹ Thomas and Elizabeth, however, eventually settled on another plantation called “Mother’s Delight” in that part of Frederick County, Maryland that was later formed into Montgomery County in 1776.²,³2 According to the 1783 Montgomery County, Maryland tax assessments, Thomas paid taxes on 176 acres, which included “Mother’s Delight” (110 acres), “Addition to Mother’s Delight” (50 acres), and “Fair Prospect” (16 acres).³³ It was on this property that Thomas Dawson later founded the community of Dawsonville, Maryland, and where Thomas is known to have resided for the remainder of his life.¹³,³2

Thomas Dawson died in Montgomery County, Maryland in 1800.¹,³,¹¹,¹²,¹⁴ His will, which had been written on 6 January 1794, was later admitted for probate in Montgomery County on 2 October 1800.¹⁴ The children listed below were all named in Thomas Dawson’s will.¹⁴

6. William Dawson. *

William Dawson, the son of Nicholas Dawson and Mary Doyne, is thought to have been born in about 1710/1712 in Prince George’s County, Maryland. 1 Based upon the estimated birth dates of his children, and the documented fact that he could not have married Elizabeth (Marbury) Davidson until sometime after July 1748, William definitely appears to have been married twice during his life. 1,17 William is believed to have married first in Prince George’s County, Maryland shortly before his mother passed away in 1734 to a woman whose identity is currently unknown. 15 William’s first wife, however, is believed to have been the mother of at least two of William’s children, namely Lawrence Dawson (b. ca. 1735) and William Dawson, Jr. (b. ca. 1738). 1
Sometime after July 1748, William apparently married for a second time to a widow named Elizabeth (Marbury) Davidson. \(^1,15,16,17\) Elizabeth, who was also a native of Prince George's County, Maryland, was the daughter of Francis Marbury and his first wife, Mary Greene. \(^39\) She was also the widow of a man named John Davidson (also written Davison), whom she had married on 5 February 1732/1733 in Prince George's County, Maryland. \(^15\) That Elizabeth Marbury was first married to a man named Davidson was also confirmed by the will of Elizabeth's father, Francis Marbury, which had been written on 11 January 1734/1735 and probated on 22 January 1734/1735. \(^16\)

Elizabeth's first husband apparently died in about 1746, as an inventory of his estate was submitted on 11 July 1746 to the Prince George's County Court. \(^17\) A subsequent probate record which was dated 29 July 1748 was also recorded in Prince George's County. \(^17\) In both probate documents Elizabeth Davidson was identified as being the Administratrix of John Davidson's estate. \(^17\) John and Elizabeth (Marbury) Davidson had two children, a son named John and a daughter named Elizabeth. \(^15\) Because Elizabeth (Marbury) Davidson was still an unmarried widow in July 1748, it definitely appears that she could not be the mother of William's two older sons, Lawrence and William, Jr. \(^17\)

Although William Dawson had previously inherited a one-half interest in the Somerset County, Maryland plantation called "Spring Banks," there is no evidence that I am aware of that indicates he ever resided there. \(^1\) Instead, it is believed that William and Elizabeth probably remained in Prince George's County, Maryland throughout their married life together. Unfortunately, no will has been found for William, suggesting that he most likely died intestate. However, an inventory of William's estate was filed, and bond was provided, on 14 October 1756 by John Dawson, John Harris, Jr., and Andrew Hilton. \(^40\)

Because of a lack of available records, especially a will, the actual number and names of all of William Dawson's children are not known for sure. Although those children listed below are believed to be his, there may have been others.

7. George Dawson.

George Dawson, the son of Nicholas Dawson and Mary Doyne, is believed to have been born in about 1716 in Prince George's County, Maryland. \(^1\) When George's mother, Mary (Doyne) Dawson, wrote her will on 14 December 1734, George was referred to in that document as being a minor. \(^1\) George was later married to a woman named Eleanor Ann Lowe. \(^1,11\) Although no record of their marriage has been found, it is believed to have taken place in Prince George's County, Maryland. Eleanor was the daughter of John Lowe and Mary Hawkins, and a sister of the Elizabeth Lowe that married George Dawson's brother, Thomas Dawson. \(^3,30,31\)

George Dawson inherited from his mother a one-half interest in a plantation in Somerset County, Maryland named "Spring Banks." \(^1\) He later acquired two other properties in Prince George's County, Maryland, namely "Mitchell's Choice" and "Addition to Golden Rod." \(^1\) George and Eleanor resided in that portion of Prince George's County that was latter formed into Frederick County, Maryland in 1748. \(^2\)

In about 1768, George and Eleanor apparently moved into western Pennsylvania, settling first at Bethelboro in that portion of Bedford County that was later formed into Westmoreland County in 1773, but later settling near the community of Uniontown in what is today Fayette County, Pennsylvania. \(^47\) George Dawson, however, died in Westmoreland County, Pennsylvania in 1783. \(^18\) His last will and testament, which had been written on 8 July 1778, was admitted for probate before the Westmoreland County Court on 9 June 1783. \(^18\) According to a statement signed by John Lowe Dawson, his mother, Eleanor Ann (Lowe) Dawson, died on 11 August 1806. \(^48\) With the exception of Mary, the children listed below were taken from "A Collection of Family Records" by Charles C. Dawson. \(^3\) Mary's identity was determined from other sources.

8. Nicholas Dawson.

Nicholas Dawson, the son of Nicholas Dawson and Mary Doyne, is believed to have been born in about 1720 in Prince George's County, Maryland. When Nicholas Dawson’s mother wrote her will on 14 December 1734, Nicholas was referred to in that document as being a minor. Nicholas was later married in Prince George's County to a woman named Sarah Edelen.

The children listed below were abstracted from the records of King George's Parish in Prince George's County, Maryland.

9. Thomas Dawson.

Thomas Dawson, the son of John Dawson and Martha Anne Marbury, was calculated, based upon his stated age in the 1776 Provincial Census of Prince George’s County, Maryland, to have been born there in 1735. He was later married in Maryland to a woman named Mary. Based upon the above mentioned 1776 Provincial Census, Mary was calculated to have been born in Prince George’s County in 1738. Thomas and Mary were apparently members of St. John’s Episcopal Church at Broad Creek in King George’s Parish, Prince George’s County, Maryland, as the births of three of their children were identified in the records of that church.

In 1757, Thomas received a grant of land in Prince George’s County, Maryland consisting of 44 acres which he named “Adventure.” Thomas later took the Oath of Fidelity and Support in Prince George’s County on 2 March 1778. Thomas and Mary eventually moved to the state of Ohio, however, where they settled in Jefferson County. Thomas died in Warren Township in Jefferson County, Ohio in 1805. His will, which had been written on 19 June 1805, was subsequently admitted for probate before the Jefferson County Court on 6 August 1805.

The children listed below as (male) or (female) were abstracted from the 1776 Provincial Census of Prince George’s County, Maryland. Although these are also believed to be Thomas and Mary's children, their identities have not been determined. The named children were abstracted from the records of King George’s Parish in Prince George’s County, Maryland.

10. James Dawson.

James Dawson, the son of John Dawson and Martha Anne Marbury, was born in Prince
George's County, Maryland.

Although James is known to have married, and to have had three daughters enumerated on the 1776 Provincial Census of Maryland, the name of his wife has not been determined.

James and his wife apparently remained in Prince George's County, Maryland after their marriage, as James died there in 1773.

Although James Dawson did not leave a will, an inventory of his estate was carried out on 18 September 1773 in Prince George's County, Maryland.

The children listed below as (female) were abstracted from the 1776 Provincial Census of Prince George's County, Maryland.

These children were residing with James Dawson's mother, Martha Anne, when the 1776 census was taken and are believed to be her grand-daughters.

Even though the 1776 census suggests that James had three daughters, he may very well have had additional children, including sons.

21. Nicholas Lowe Dawson.

Nicholas Lowe Dawson, the son of Thomas Dawson and Elizabeth Hawkins Lowe, was born in 1752 in Prince George's County, Maryland. He was subsequently christened in Saint John's Parish in Prince George's County on 5 November 1752. Nicholas was later married in Frederick County, Maryland to a woman named Mary Mackall. Mary was the daughter of Benjamin Mackall and Mary Taylor. She was also the sister of the Benjamin Mackall, Jr. who married Nicholas Dawson's sister, Mary Dawson, and the Rebecca Mackall who married his brother, Benoni Dawson.

After their marriage, Nicholas and Mary resided in that portion of Frederick County, Maryland that was later formed into Montgomery County, Maryland in 1776. Nicholas Lowe Dawson was a veteran of the Revolutionary War. He served as a Private in the 3rd Company, Upper Battalion of the Maryland Militia in 1777, and took the Oath of Fidelity and Support on 2 March 1778.

Nicholas appears to have died in Montgomery County, Maryland in 1832. His will, which had been written on 6 September 1831, was subsequently probated in Montgomery County on 17 September 1832. With the exception of his two daughters, Sarah and Rebecca, all of the other children listed below were named in Nicholas Dawson’s Will. In addition, with the exception of James Mackall Dawson, who was born in Frederick County, Maryland, all of Nicholas and Mary’s other children are believed to have been born in Montgomery County, Maryland.

23. Robert Doyne Dawson.

Robert Doyne Dawson, the son of Thomas Dawson and Elizabeth Hawkins Lowe, was born in Frederick County, Maryland on 10 July 1758. During the Revolutionary War, Robert served as a Lieutenant in the 3rd Company, Upper Battalion of the Maryland Militia from Frederick County, Maryland. Robert also took the Oath of Fidelity and Support on 2 March 1778. Although Robert was severely wounded during the Battle of Germantown in Pennsylvania, he eventually recovered.

Robert was apparently married twice during his life. He married first to a woman named Sarah Odell Newton Chiswell on 25 October 1781 in Montgomery County, Maryland. Sarah, who was the daughter of Stephen Newton Chiswell and Sarah Odell Newton, had been born on 29 March 1754 in Maryland. She died in Montgomery County, Maryland on 15 August 1806.

After Sarah passed away, Robert married for a second time to a woman named Henrietta Lowe. Although no record of this marriage has been found, it is believed to have taken place in Montgomery County, Maryland in about 1811. Henrietta, who had been born on 9 March 1779 in Frederick County, Maryland, was the daughter of Michael Lowe and Ann Magruder.

Robert died in Montgomery County, Maryland on 13 August 1824, while Henrietta died there on 31 March 1855. Robert, as well as both of his wives, were buried in the Monocacy Cemetery at Beallsville in Montgomery County, Maryland. NOTE: Robert’s first wife, Sarah, was originally buried in the Chiswell Family Cemetery at Poolsville in Montgomery County, Maryland, but was later re-interred in the Monocacy Cemetery.
The children listed below from Robert Dawson’s first marriage to Sarah Chiswell, were identified in “A Collection of Family Records” by Charles C. Dawson, as well as various other sources. The children listed below from Robert Dawson’s second marriage to Henrietta Lowe were taken from the Daughters of the American Revolution Magazine, Volume # 51.

24. Elizabeth Dawson.

Elizabeth Dawson, the daughter of Thomas Dawson and Elizabeth Hawkins Lowe, was born in Frederick County, Maryland.³² Elizabeth, who appears to have remained single throughout her life, died without issue in 1809 in Montgomery County, Maryland.³³

25. Rebecca Dawson.

Rebecca Dawson, the daughter of Thomas Dawson and Elizabeth Hawkins Lowe, was born in Frederick County, Maryland on 1 January 1765.³⁴ She was later married in Montgomery County, Maryland on 16 December 1784 to a man named Benjamin Mackall.³³ ³⁶ ³¹¹ Benjamin, who had been born in Ireland on 14 April 1761, was a veteran of the Revolutionary War.³³ ³⁴ ³¹¹

In about 1802, Rebecca and Benjamin apparently moved to Beaver County, Pennsylvania, where Rebecca's brother, Benoni Dawson, and his family had settled a few years earlier. Although Benjamin and Rebecca later moved to Brooke County, Virginia (now West Virginia) for a few years, they eventually returned to Beaver County,
Pennsylvania.³⁴ Benjamin Mackall died on 5 September 1830 in Beaver County, Pennsylvania, while Rebecca died there on 13 December 1846.³⁴ ³¹¹ Both were subsequently buried in the Georgetown Cemetery which is situated on a hill overlooking Georgetown, Pennsylvania.³⁴

With the exception of their son, Benjamin, who apparently died young, the children listed below were all identified in the “Genealogical and Personal History of Beaver County, Pennsylvania” by John Woolf Jordan.¹¹² Benjamin was identified through various other sources.

was born in Frederick County, Maryland. She was later married in Maryland to a man named Weaver Johns.
Aside from Weaver Johns being found on the 1783 tax list for Montgomery County, Maryland, no additional information has been found concerning this couple.
27. Lawrence Dawson.

Lawrence Dawson, the son of William Dawson and a very probable first wife whose name is not known, is believed to have been born in about 1735 in Prince George's County, Maryland. Although Lawrence is known to have been married, his wife's name has not been determined. The below named daughter is the only issue to have been found for Lawrence.

Known issue: (Surname Dawson)

130. Elizabeth ---- b. 1762 in King George's Parish, Prince George's Co., MD. chr. 4 July 1762 at St. John's Episcopal Church at Broad Creek, King George's Parish, Prince George's Co., MD. m. 29 January 1780 to Gaidon Roland in Frederick Co., MD.

28. William Dawson.

William Dawson, the son of William Dawson and a very probable first wife whose name is not known, was born in 1738 in Prince George's County, Maryland. Although William apparently remained in Prince George's County until shortly after his father passed away in 1756, he subsequently joined two of his uncles, Thomas and George Dawson, who had previously moved into Frederick County, Maryland.

In 1760, William purchased a plantation in Frederick County which was called "Well Wishes." William Dawson is believed to have married his wife, Elizabeth Melott, in about 1763 in Frederick County, Maryland. Elizabeth, who had been born in Middlesex County, New Jersey, was the daughter of Theodorus Melott and Catherine De La Chaumette. William later sold his "Well Wishes" plantation to a man named Robert Rose on 3 February 1769.

In about 1770, William and Elizabeth, along with William's uncle George Dawson and his family, apparently moved into western Pennsylvania where they settled in Spring Hill Township in that portion of Cumberland County that later became Bedford County in 1771, then Westmoreland County in 1773. William Dawson's name was shown on a list of taxable inhabitants of Westmoreland County, Pennsylvania as residing in Spring Hill Township in 1773, and in Franklin Township in 1783. His tax assessment for 1783 was based upon 80 acres of land and a small amount of livestock. In about 1787/1788, however, William and his family appear to have moved back to Maryland, where they settled in the Upper Old Town area near Cumberland in Allegany County. William and Elizabeth Dawson were subsequently found on the 1800 census of Allegany County.
Although many of the pre-1800 Allegany County, Maryland records have apparently been lost or destroyed, one document that was found that pertains to William was a property deed dated 17 November 1801. This deed indicates that William purchased one half of a plantation called "Clover Bottom," containing sixty acres, from his half brother, James Dawson, Sr. and his wife, Elizabeth. This property was subsequently left by William Dawson’s will to his sons, William and Benjamin B. Dawson. Another son of William Dawson’s, James Dawson, purchased the remaining half of "Clover Bottom" on 21 November 1801.

William Dawson died in Allegany County, Maryland in 1802. His will, which had been written on 11 June 1802, was later recorded for probate before the Allegany County Orphan’s Court on 21 July 1802. Although Elizabeth is known to have survived William, the actual date of her death has not been determined. She is believed to have also died in Maryland, however.

136. Thomas ------ b. (1755-1774), possibly in PA.

29. James Dawson.

NOTE: Unfortunately, this James Dawson, husband of Elizabeth and son of William Dawson and his second wife, Elizabeth (Marbury) Davidson, is almost always confused with the James Dawson, husband of Anne Odle (possibly Nancy Anne Odle or Odell), who was the son of William Dawson and Elizabeth Melott. This confusion can easily be cleared up through checking the “Clover Bottom” deed records and the 1800 census enumeration of Allegany County, Maryland.

James Dawson, the son of William Dawson and his second wife, Elizabeth (Marbury) Davidson, was apparently born during the period 1749-1756 in Prince George's County, Maryland. He was later married in Maryland to a woman named Elizabeth. James and Elizabeth Dawson, along with their only known child, a daughter who was also named Elizabeth, were later found on the 1800 census of Allegany County, Maryland.

By a property deed dated 17 November 1801, James Dawson and his wife, Elizabeth, sold one half of the plantation called "Clover Bottom," containing sixty acres in Allegany County, Maryland to his half-brother, William Dawson. James and Elizabeth subsequently sold the remaining one half of this plantation to William's son, James Dawson, Jr., on 21 November 1801. James Dawson, Sr. had originally acquired "Clover Bottom" on 24 August 1769 from a man named George Fraser Hawkins.

On 20 January 1802, James and Elizabeth Dawson sold 50 acres of land in Allegany County, Maryland to their only daughter, “Elizabeth Pilcher, wife of Elijah," for one penny.

30. Benjamin Dawson.

NOTE: Please see additional comments under Benjamin Dawson (# 41) below.

Benjamin Dawson, the son of William Dawson and his second wife, Elizabeth (Marbury) Davidson, was apparently born during the period 1749-1756 in Prince George's County, Maryland.\(^1,15,17,40\) He was later married on 21 March 1782 in Frederick County, Maryland to a woman named Mary Simmons (also written Simmonds)\(^1,45\) No additional information will be presented concerning this couple.

31. Thomas Dawson.

Thomas Dawson, the son of William Dawson and his second wife, Elizabeth (Marbury) Davidson, was apparently born during the period 1749-1756 in Prince George's County, Maryland.\(^1,15,17,40\) Thomas was later married in Maryland to a woman named Mary.\(^46\) Unfortunately, neither Mary’s maiden name, nor her parentage, have been determined. Although Thomas is known to have died in Allegany County, Maryland, the actual date of his death is not known.\(^46\)

The names and estimated birth dates of some of the children listed below were provided in a family group sheet which was furnished by the Allegany County Genealogical Society.\(^46\) Those children listed below as (male) or (female), however, were abstracted from available pre-1850 census records of Maryland. These are all believed to be Thomas and Mary Dawson’s children, but have not been positively identified. The 1800 census enumeration of Upper Old Town in Allegany County, Maryland shows males 1111 - females 0111.\(^119\) The 1810 census of Allegany County, Maryland shows males 11111 - females 2111.\(^120\) The exact order of birth of the below listed children is not known.

32. Mary Dawson.

Mary Dawson, the daughter of George Dawson and Eleanor Ann Lowe, was born in Prince George's County, Maryland on 8 September 1742. Mary was apparently married twice during her life. She married first to a man named Charles Blackmore in Maryland. Charles, was the son of Samuel Blackmore, Sr.

Charles Blackmore died in Frederick County, Maryland in 1765. Although Charles does not appear to have left a will, an inventory of his estate was filed with the Frederick County Court in 1765. His widow, Mary, was listed as Executrix, and Charles Blackmore’s father, Samuel Blackmore, Sr. and his brother, Samuel Blackmore, Jr., were identified as next of kin. The final distribution of Charles Blackmore’s estate in 1766 was “to his widow Mary and six children.”

NOTE: Even though the 1766 distribution mentioned above indicates that Charles and Mary had six children, I have only been able to identify two sons with any confidence. The two daughters listed below were taken from an Ancestry submission, but I have not personally been able to verify them. However, even by including the two daughters, this still leaves two children unaccounted for. This family requires more research.
Sometime after Charles Blackmore passed away in 1765, Mary married for a second time to a man named John Garrott, Jr. (also written Garrett) \(^3,17\) When John’s father, John Garrott, Sr., wrote his will on 21 September 1775, John, Jr. was mentioned in that will as being his “eldest son.” \(^{134}\) John’s father left him 200 acres of land, a portion of “Brother’s Good Will,” with the stipulation that he make the final payment on the land of 200 pounds to a Mr. Peter Cayne. \(^{134}\)

John Garrott died in Frederick County, Maryland in 1798. \(^{135}\) His will, which had been written on 25 January 1798, was later probated on 13 February 1798 in Frederick County. \(^{135}\) Because Mary was not named in John’s will, she apparently died in Maryland prior to its being written. \(^3\) John and Mary Garrott’s seven children were all named in John Garrott’s will. \(^{135}\)

33. Nicholas Dawson.

Nicholas Dawson, the son of George Dawson and Eleanor Ann Lowe, was born in Prince George's County, Maryland on 3 April 1745. 1,47,48  In about 1768, Nicholas moved with his parents to that portion of Bedford County, Pennsylvania that was later formed into Westmoreland County in 1773, but is today within Fayette County, Pennsylvania. 2,3,47  He subsequently served in the Westmoreland County Militia during the Revolutionary War. 47  Nicholas was apparently married twice during his life. He married first in about 1778 in Westmoreland County, Pennsylvania to a woman whose last name was Pearce. 1,48

After his first wife passed away, Nicholas married secondly, also in Westmoreland County, to a woman named Violette Littleton in 1780. 1,3,48  Violette, who was a native of Virginia, had been born there on 30 January 1759. 47  She was the daughter of John Littleton and Ellen Violette. 48  Nicholas and Violette Dawson eventually settled in Ohio County, Virginia (now West Virginia). 2  Nicholas later died in Ohio County, Virginia in 1790 (now West Virginia). 1,2,51  His will, which had been written on 13 January 1790, was submitted for probate during the March 1790 term of the Ohio County Court. 51  Nicholas and Violette had four children.
After Nicholas passed away, Violette married for a second time to a man named Solomon Scott in either late 1790 or early 1791. In about 1792/1793, Violette and Solomon left Virginia and moved to Nicholas County, Kentucky, where they settled in the vicinity of Blue Lick Springs. In 1807, however, they moved to Springfield in that portion of Ohio that was later formed into Clark County, Ohio in 1818. Solomon, who had been born in 1767 in Fayette County, Pennsylvania, died at Springfield in Clark County, Ohio on 19 September 1837, while Violette died there in 1842. Although Solomon was buried in the Columbia Street Cemetery at Springfield, Ohio, Violette’s place of burial has not been determined.

34. Henry Hawkins Dawson.

Henry Dawson, the son of George Dawson and Eleanor Ann Lowe, was born in Prince George's County, Maryland on 22 August 1747. In about 1768, however, Henry moved with his parents into that portion of Bedford County, Pennsylvania that was later formed into Westmoreland County in 1773, but is today within Fayette County, Pennsylvania.

During the Revolutionary War, even though Henry was actually a resident of western Pennsylvania on 16 December 1776 when he enlisted in the Continental Army, he served in Captain Benjamin Harrison's Company of the 13th Virginia Regiment. Henry, who was commissioned an Ensign on 31 October 1778, was subsequently transferred to Col. John Gibson's 7th Virginia Regiment (later designated the 9th Virginia Regiment). He later held the rank of Lieutenant from 1 January 1780 until he was discharged on 8 April 1783.

After the War, Henry returned to Westmoreland County, Pennsylvania, where it is believed that he married his first wife, Maria Wells. Shortly after their marriage, however, Henry and Maria appear to have moved into that portion of Fayette County, Kentucky that was later formed into Bourbon County in 1786. Maria is believed to have died in Bourbon County, Kentucky in about 1792.

After Maria passed away, Henry married in Bourbon County, Kentucky for a second time to a widow named Constantine “Conna” (Wells) Sanford. Constantine, who had been born in Baltimore County, Maryland on 26 May 1766, was the daughter of John Wells and Diana Cromwell. By 1803, however, Henry Dawson and his family had moved to Ohio, where they settled in Pleasant Township in what would soon become Champaign County in 1805, but would later become part of Clark County, Ohio in 1818. In addition to farming, Henry Dawson was also a cooper by trade, and is credited with bringing the first fruit trees to the area.

Constantine subsequently died just two years later on 29 June 1805 in Champaign County, Ohio, while Henry died there on 11 October 1815. Although Henry was originally buried on his farm in Pleasant Township, in 1906 he was re-interred in the Asbury Methodist Episcopal Chapel Cemetery near Catawba in Clark County, Ohio.

With respect to Henry’s children, six of those listed below were abstracted from “The History of Clark County, Ohio,” while the remaining four were identified through various other sources. Unfortunately, because the actual order of their birth is not known in many cases, which children belong to which wife is not known for sure.

35. John Lowe Dawson.

John Lowe Dawson, the son of George Dawson and Eleanor Ann Lowe, was born in Frederick County, Maryland on 23 February 1748/1749. 1,48,54 In about 1768, John Dawson moved with his parents to that portion of Bedford County, Pennsylvania that was later formed into Westmoreland County in 1773, but is today within Fayette County. 2,3,47
During the Revolutionary War, John Dawson served for about six months in the Pennsylvania Militia, first under the command of Captain John Mintor, and later under the command of Colonel Crawford to construct Fort McIntosh. After his discharge, John remained in Westmoreland County, and it was there that he married his wife, Elizabeth Harrison. According to available tax records, John and Elizabeth were residing in Menallen Township in 1783. In that same year, Menallen Township was included in newly formed Fayette County, Pennsylvania.

John and his family later moved to Kentucky, where John received a bounty land Warrant for 448 acres of land in northern Kentucky on 17 September 1798. The family eventually moved north, however, into that portion of Ohio that was formed into Champaign County in 1805. John Dawson died on 21 October 1845 in Champaign County, Ohio. He was subsequently buried in the Oak Dale Cemetery at Urbana in Champaign County.

36. Eleanor Dawson.

Eleanor Dawson, the daughter of George Dawson and Eleanor Ann Lowe, was born in Frederick County, Maryland on 5 August 1752.
It is not known at this time whether or not Eleanor Dawson moved to Bedford County, Pennsylvania in about 1768 with her parents, or if she actually remained in Frederick County, Maryland where she was later married on 17 January 1771 to a man named John Swearingen (also written Van Swearingen).
John, who was also a native of Frederick County, Maryland, had been born there on 9 November 1751.
He was the son of Thomas and Mary Swearingen.

John and Eleanor Swearingen did eventually move to Pennsylvania, however, as during the Revolutionary War, John Swearingen served as a Lieutenant in the Washington County, Pennsylvania Militia.
They were subsequently found residing in Fayette County, Pennsylvania when the 1790 census was enumerated.
John and Eleanor apparently resided there for only a few years, as various documents indicate that they had moved to Brooke County, Virginia (now within West Virginia) by the early 1790's.
Eleanor died in Brooke County, Virginia (now within West Virginia) in about 1805.
After Eleanor passed away, John married on 6 March 1806 for a second time to a woman named Fannie Baker in Virginia. John Swearingen subsequently died in 1832 at Holidays Cove in Brooke County, Virginia (now situated within Hancock County, West Virginia). His will, which had been written on 26 June 1830, was probated in Brooke County on 24 September 1832.

In about 1790, Augustine and Verlinda Moore settled near the town of Florence in Washington County, Pennsylvania, and it is there that they apparently resided for the remainder of their lives. 38. Rebecca Dawson.

Rebecca Dawson, the daughter of George Dawson and Eleanor Ann Lowe, was born in Frederick County, Maryland on 11 December 1758. In about 1768, Rebecca Dawson moved with her parents to that portion of Bedford County, Pennsylvania that was later formed into Westmoreland County in 1773, but is today within Fayette County. She was later married in Pennsylvania on 5 July 1778 to a man named Daniel Swearingen (also written Van Swearingen). (NOTE: The book “Family Register of Gerret Van Swearingen and Descendants” by Henry Hartwell Swearingen, mistakenly states that Daniel Swearingen married Eleanor Dawson. Eleanor was actually his mother-in-law). Daniel, who was also a native of Maryland, was calculated to have been born there in 1755. Daniel was the son of Thomas Swearingen and Ruth Beall.

According to the 1783 Tax Assessments and the 1790 census of Pennsylvania, Daniel and Rebecca were residing in Peter's Township in Washington County. Sometime prior to 1810, however, Daniel and Rebecca moved to Virginia, where they are found on both the 1810 and 1820 census enumerations residing in Brooke County (now within West Virginia).

Daniel Swearingen died on 11 September 1822 at Holiday's Cove in Brooke County, Virginia (Holiday's Cove is now within Hancock County, West Virginia). He was subsequently buried in the Three Springs Presbyterian Church Cemetery in Brooke County, Virginia (now within Hancock County, West Virginia). Rebecca, on the other hand, died at the home of her son, Thomas Swearingen, near Wellsville in Columbiana County, Ohio on 15 August 1831. The children listed below are all believed to be Daniel and Rebecca (Dawson) Swearingen's.

William, who had been born in Frederick County, Maryland on 30 October 1766, was the son of Samuel Swearingen and Catherine Cordell.

William Swearingen later served as a Colonel in the War of 1812. He subsequently died in Fayette County, Pennsylvania on 4 July 1841, while Elizabeth died there on 14 February 1848.

Nancy Dawson, the daughter of George Dawson and Eleanor Ann Lowe, was born in 1764 in Frederick County, Maryland. 48 In about 1768, Nancy moved with her parents to that portion of Bedford County, Pennsylvania that was later formed into Westmoreland County in 1773, but is today within Fayette County. 2,3,47 She was later married in Pennsylvania to her cousin, Thomas Dawson. 3 Thomas, who had been born in Frederick County, Maryland on 4 December 1765, was the son of Benoni
Dawson and Rebecca Mackall. 3,77

See write-up under # 62, Thomas Dawson, in Generation Five for children.

41. Benjamin Dawson.

Benjamin Dawson, the son of George Dawson and Eleanor Ann Lowe, was born in Prince George’s County, Maryland. 3 Although Benjamin may have been married, the name of a possible wife has not been determined. 3 No additional information will be presented concerning this couple.

this Benjamin Dawson (# 41), son of George Dawson and Eleanor Ann Lowe, had a son named Abraham. However, a number of other sources claim that it was Benjamin Dawson (# 30), son of William Dawson and Elizabeth (Marbury) Davidson, that had the son named Abraham. To confuse matters more, both Abraham’s were, of course, born in the same county during the same time period.
Because this is way too coincidental for my liking, I can only assume that one of the claims is not correct. However, I do not know which one that would be. In light of this, and in light of the fact that I have not been able to verify anything regarding this Abraham, no information will be presented regarding a child named Abraham under either Benjamin Dawson (# 30 or # 41) in this write-up. NOTE: Please see Author’s comments under Benjamin Dawson (# 30) above.

42. George Dawson.

George Dawson, the son of Nicholas Dawson and Sarah Edelen, was born in King George's Parish in Prince George's County, Maryland on 10 March 1750. George was later married in Maryland to a woman named Martha Rowland (also written Rowlands).

Sometime after their marriage, George and Martha apparently moved west into Frederick County, Virginia, where on 14 September 1793 Martha Dawson was found furnishing surety on a marriage bond for John Barnett and Drusilla Rowland. This marriage bond specifically refers to “Martha Dawson (nee Rowland), Wife of George Dawson.”

Ann Dawson, the daughter of Thomas and Mary Dawson, was born in 1763 in King George's Parish, Prince George's County, Maryland. She was subsequently christened during the month of October 1763 in St. John's Episcopal Church at Broad Creek in Prince George's County. Ann was apparently married twice during her life. Nancy Brooke Dawson, the daughter of Benoni Dawson and Rebecca Mackall, was born in Frederick County, Maryland. 3 She was later married in about 1790 in Pennsylvania to a man named John Bever (also written Beaver). 3,78 John, who was a native of Ireland, is said to have been born there in about 1756, and emigrated to the United States in 1788. 78,226
In 1798, John was appointed as a Deputy Surveyor by the Surveyor General of the United States, and was granted several survey contracts to survey portions of the territory that would later become the state of Ohio in 1803. After recognizing the potential of certain lands in what became Columbiana County, he and Nancy subsequently settled there. In 1807, John, and two partners, established the first paper mill on Little Beaver Creek in the Columbiana County, Ohio.

Although Nancy died on 12 November 1821 in Columbiana County, Ohio, her remains were taken back to Beaver County, Pennsylvania, where they were re-interred in the Georgetown Cemetery at Georgetown, Pennsylvania. According to the article, “John Bever, Entrepreneur,” published in volume 23, number 4, of the Beaver County, Pennsylvania historical magazine, “Milestones,” Nancy was the mother of five children. Unfortunately, even after extensive research, only one child, a daughter named Myrtilla, has been positively identified. As such, no information will be presented in this write-up with respect to the unknown children.

After Nancy passed away, John married for a second time to a woman named Lydia Vaughn in about 1820 in Ohio. John Bever died on 26 May 1836 in Columbiana County, Ohio. Although John was originally buried near his home in Columbiana County, Ohio, his son, Henry Bever, from his second marriage to Lydia Vaughn, had his remains taken to his maternal grandfather’s residence, where they were subsequently re-interred in what is now known as the Bever Cemetery in Carroll County, Ohio.

born between 1770 and 1780 in Frederick County, Maryland.  She was later married in Pennsylvania to a man named Charles Cluff Blackmore.  Charles, who was a

After his first wife passed away, Mackall apparently married for a second time to a woman named Elizabeth. Elizabeth, who was the mother of three children by Mackall, was mentioned as “my wife Elizabeth Dawson” in his will. Mackall Dawson later died in Beaver County, Pennsylvania on 3 June 1830. Both Mackall and his first wife, Rachel, were buried in the Georgetown Cemetery which is situated on a hill overlooking Georgetown, Pennsylvania. 67. Nicholas Dawson.

Nicholas Dawson, the son of Benoni Dawson and Rebecca Mackall, was born in 1772 in Frederick County, Maryland. Nicholas was apparently married twice during his lifetime. He married first to a woman named Rachel Moore in about 1797 in Pennsylvania. Rachel, who was Nicholas Dawson's cousin, had been born in Westmoreland County, Pennsylvania on 31 August 1777 (findagrave.com shows her birth as 30 August 1777). She was the daughter of Augustine Moore and Verlinda Dawson.

Although Nicholas and Rachel resided for a short time after their marriage in Beaver County, Pennsylvania, they soon established a settlement on the west side of the Ohio River in that portion of Jefferson County, Ohio that was later formed into Columbiana County, Ohio in 1803. Rachel subsequently died near Calcutta in Columbiana County, Ohio on 19 July 1846. Rachel was the mother of all of Nicholas Dawson's children.

After his first wife passed away, Nicholas married for a second time to a widow named Sarah Gilson on 23 September 1847 in Columbiana County, Ohio. Nicholas died in Columbiana County in 1855. Nicholas and his first wife, Rachel, were both buried in the Longs Run Cemetery at Calcutta in Columbiana County, Ohio.

69. Robert Doyne Dawson.

Robert Doyne Dawson, the son of Benoni Dawson and Rebecca Mackall, was born in Frederick County, Maryland between 1775 and 1784. As a young boy, Robert moved with his parents to Pennsylvania, where they settled first in Westmoreland County, and then later in Beaver County. Robert apparently remained single throughout his life and died without issue on 18 January 1801 in Beaver County, Pennsylvania. He was subsequently buried in the Georgetown Cemetery which is situated on a hill overlooking Georgetown in Beaver County, Pennsylvania.

70. John Lowe Dawson.

John Lowe Dawson, the son of Benoni Dawson and Rebecca Mackall, was calculated to have been born in 1778 in Frederick County, Maryland. As a young boy, John moved with his parents to Pennsylvania, where they settled first in Westmoreland County, and then later in Beaver County. John was later married in Pennsylvania to a woman named Mary Cotton. Mary was calculated from her tombstone to have been born in about 1787.

Shortly after their marriage, John and Mary are believed to have moved to Columbiana County, Ohio, where they resided for a number of years. In about 1814, however, they moved further west into Wayne County, Ohio, where they received a patent for 160 acres of land on 22 May 1814, and received another patent for an additional 165 acres of land on 2 January 1823. Both of these tracts were situated in that portion of Wayne County, Ohio that was later formed into Holmes County, Ohio in 1824.

John Lowe Dawson died on 9 August 1832 in Holmes County, Ohio, while Mary died there on 25 January 1836. John’s will, which had been written on 22 June 1832, was subsequently probated in Holmes County on 8 October 1832. Both John and Mary were buried in the Oak Hill Cemetery at Millersburg in Holmes County, Ohio.

Mackall, was calculated from her tombstone to have been born in 1782 in Frederick County, Maryland. She was later married in Pennsylvania to a man named William White. based upon his age at the time of his death, as stated on his tombstone, William was calculated to have been born in 1776.

William White died in Beaver County, Pennsylvania on 29 July 1849. His will, which had been written on 27 March 1842, was later probated on 4 October 1849 in Beaver County. William and Rebecca are said to have had nine children. With the

Mary Dawson, the daughter of Benoni Dawson and Rebecca Mackall, was calculated to have been born in 1783 in Fayette County, Pennsylvania. 3,89 She was later married in Pennsylvania to a man named James Blackmore (also written Blakemore). 3,49 James, who had been born in Maryland on 27 February 1764, was the son of Samuel Blackmore and Abrilla Dowden. 20,259

James and Mary appear to have resided in Beaver County, Pennsylvania until sometime prior to 1810, by which time they had apparently moved to Virginia, where they settled on a farm near Moundsville in that portion of Ohio County that was later formed into Marshall County, Virginia in 1835 (now within West Virginia). 2,260 James and Mary were last found on the 1850 census of Marshall County. 89

Census records for the years 1810, 1830, and 1840 indicate that this couple may have had as many as eight children. 260,261,262

NOTE: This family definitely needs additional research. Unfortunately, a large number of people seem to think that our James Blackmore, who was married to Mary S. Dawson, is the same James Blackmore who was born in about 1745 in Maryland, and died in Beaver County, Pennsylvania on 29 December 1800. Adding to this error, someone added a note on the Find a Grave site that says the James Blackmore who was born in about 1745 and died in 1800 was married to Mary Dawson, even though he was thirty-eight years her senior. I personally believe this note was added by someone who simply grabbed the first James Blackmore they came across and wrongly assumed it had to be the husband of Mary S. Dawson, daughter of Benoni Dawson.

In addition, the same four children, namely Thomas, Elizabeth, Rebecca, and Samuel, are listed as being children of both the James Blackmore who was born in about 1745 and died in 1800, and our James Blackmore who was born in 1764, married Mary S. Dawson, and died in Virginia after 1850. Unfortunately, information regarding these four children is also full of conflicts. Because most of the information pertaining to this family is so muddled up, I have decided not to present any additional data on this couple, or their children, until they can be researched more thoroughly.
74. James Mackall Dawson.

James Mackall Dawson, the son of Benoni Dawson and Rebecca Mackall, was calculated to have been born in Fayette County, Pennsylvania in 1784. At the present time it is not known whether or not James ever married, or had any issue. James subsequently died in Pennsylvania on 27 May 1843 at the age of 59. He was buried in the Georgetown Cemetery which is situated on a hill overlooking Georgetown in Beaver County, Pennsylvania.

93. James Mackall Dawson.

James Mackall Dawson, the son of Nicholas Lowe Dawson and Mary Mackall, was born in Frederick County, Maryland on 11 June 1775. He was later married in Montgomery County, Maryland on 17 December 1801 to a woman named Ann Nancy Allnutt (also written Allnut). Ann, who had been born in Montgomery County, Maryland on 11 September 1779, was the daughter of Lawrence Allnutt and Eleanor Lowe Dawson. She was also James Dawson’s cousin.

James and Ann appear to have resided on a farm near Dawsonville in Montgomery County, Maryland throughout their married lives. Ann died on 5 August 1854 in Montgomery County, while James died there on 11 January 1867. Although James and Ann were both originally buried in the Dawson Family Cemetery (also known as Mother’s Delight Cemetery) at Dawsonville in Montgomery County, their remains were later re-interred in the Monocacy Cemetery at Beallsville in Montgomery County.

Sometime after their marriage, William and Mary appear to have moved to Logan County, Kentucky, where they settled near the community of Russellville. William died at Russellville in Logan County, Kentucky on 25 September 1846.

After William passed away, his widow, Mary, was found on the 1850 census of Logan County, Kentucky residing in District No. 1 with her two sons, George W. Dawson and John Dathan Dawson. Mary was subsequently found on the 1860 census of Logan County residing with her youngest son, John Dathan Dawson, and his family. Although Daniel and Verlinda remained in Montgomery County, Maryland for several years after their marriage, in about 1816/1817 they apparently moved west into Kentucky, where they settled on a farm in Logan County. 130. Elizabeth Dawson.

Elizabeth Dawson, the only known child of Lawrence Dawson, was born in 1762 in King George’s Parish in Prince George’s County, Maryland. She was subsequently christened on 4 July 1762 in St. John's Episcopal Church at Broad Creek in King George’s Parish in Prince George’s County. Elizabeth was later married to a man named Gaidon Roland on 29 January 1780 in Frederick County, Maryland. No additional information has been found concerning this couple.

131. William Dawson.

William Dawson, the son of William Dawson and Elizabeth Melott, is believed to have been born between 1755 and 1765 in Frederick County, Maryland. This time period was calculated from the 1800 and 1810 census enumerations of Allegany County, Maryland which indicated that William was under forty-five years of age in 1800, but over forty-five years of age in 1810. William was later married in Maryland to a woman named Hannah.

After their marriage, William and Hannah settled in the Upper Old Town area near Cumberland in Allegany County, Maryland. William, along with his brother, Benjamin B. Dawson, inherited one half of a plantation called “Clover Bottom” from their father in 1802. William Dawson apparently died in 1822 in Allegany County, Maryland, as an inventory of his estate was completed on 5 December 1822 and filed with the Allegany County Court on 10 December 1822. William Dawson’s widow, Hannah, who was the designated Administratrix of his estate, filed a final account of his estate on 24 December 1824. What became of Hannah after William passed away is not known at this time.

The children listed below as (male) or (female) were abstracted from available pre-1850 census records. These are all believed to be William and Hannah's children, but have not been identified as yet. The 1800 census of Allegany County, Maryland shows males 0201 - females 3001. The 1810 census of Allegany County, Maryland shows males 10101 - females 1131. The exact order of birth of the below listed children is not known.

132. James Dawson.

NOTE: Unfortunately, this James Dawson, husband of Anne Odle (Odell) and son of William Dawson and Elizabeth Melott, is almost always confused with the James Dawson, husband of Elizabeth and son of William Dawson and his second wife, Elizabeth (Marbury) Davidson. This confusion can easily be cleared up by checking the “Clover Bottom” deed records and the 1800 census enumeration of Allegany County, Maryland.
This James Dawson did not sell one half of “Clover Bottom.” He is the James Dawson, son of William Dawson and Elizabeth Melott, who purchased one half of “Clover Bottom” on 21 November 1801 from his half-uncle, James Dawson, Sr.

James Dawson, the son of William Dawson and Elizabeth Melott, is believed to have been born in Frederick County, Maryland between the years 1755 and 1765. 119,120 This time period was calculated from the 1800 and 1810 census enumerations of Allegany County, Maryland which indicated that James was under forty-five years of age in 1800, but over forty-five years of age in 1810. 119,120

James was later married, probably in Maryland (or possibly in Hampshire County, Virginia - now West Virginia), to a woman named Anne Odle (Odell), possibly Nancy Anne Odle or Odell. 122,123 Anne was the daughter of William Odell and Asenath Owings, and the sister of the Richard Odle (Odell) who married James Dawson's sister, Elizabeth Dawson. 123

This James Dawson, who was generally identified in a variety of documents as “James, son of William,” was found on the 1793 Tax Assessment Records of Allegany County, Maryland paying tax on one lot. 303 He was later found in the Allegany County deed records acquiring one half of a tract of land called “Clover Bottom” from his half-uncle and aunt, James and Elizabeth Dawson, on 21 November 1801. 43 This tract consisted of sixty acres. 43

James subsequently died in Allegany County, Maryland in 1820. 122 His will, which had been written on 10 August 1816, was later admitted for probate before the Allegany County Court on 19 February 1820. 122 Although Anne is known to have survived James, the date and place of her death have not been determined. The following children were all named in James Dawson’s will. 122

133. Elizabeth Dawson. *

Elizabeth Dawson, the eldest daughter of William Dawson and Elizabeth Melott, was born in about 1768/1769 in Frederick County, Maryland. She was later married in about 1789/1790, probably in Maryland, (or possibly Hampshire County, Virginia - now within West Virginia), to a man named Richard Odle (also written Odell). Richard, who was born in 1766 in Baltimore County, Maryland, was the son of William Odell and Asenath Owings. He was also the brother of the Anne Odle (Odell) who married Elizabeth Dawson’s brother, James Dawson.

Richard and Elizabeth eventually left Virginia and moved to the state of Ohio, where they were found on the Census Substitutes Index for Ohio residing in Ross County with Richard’s brother, John Odle, and his family. The entry for Richard was based upon the 1806 tax list for Ross County, Ohio. Although Richard and Elizabeth were still residing in Jefferson Township in Ross County, Ohio when the 1830 census was enumerated, they apparently sold their farm in Ross County shortly thereafter and moved to Warren County, Indiana. Elizabeth died on 31 March 1841 in Warren County, Indiana, while Richard died there on 8 August 1844. Both Elizabeth and Richard were subsequently buried in the Union Cemetery in John Q. Adams Township in Warren County, Indiana.

134. Benjamin B. Dawson.

Benjamin Dawson, the son of William Dawson and Elizabeth Melott, is believed to have been born during the period 1765 to 1774, probably in Pennsylvania. 42,119 This time period was calculated from the 1800 and 1810 census enumerations of Allegany County, Maryland. 119,129 He was later married to a woman named Ruth Morrison. 126 Ruth, who was calculated to have been born in Maryland in 1775, was the daughter of James M. Morrison and Agnes Morrison. 130,322

Benjamin, along with his brother, William Dawson, inherited one half of a plantation called “Clover Bottom” from their father in 1802. 42 Benjamin subsequently died in Allegany County, Maryland in 1829. 127 Although Benjamin does not appear to have left a will, his sons Otho and Noah Dawson posted an Administrative Bond to administer the estate of their father, Benjamin Dawson, on 21 January 1829. 127 Ruth (Morrison) Dawson, on the other hand, was last found on the 1850 census of Allegany County, Maryland residing with her son, Benjamin B. “BB” Dawson, and daughter, Asenath Odell Dawson. 136

135. Edward Dawson.
Edward Dawson, the son of William Dawson and Elizabeth Melott, was calculated to have been born during the period 1755 to 1774, probably in Pennsylvania. Edward, who was generally identified in various documents as “Edward, son of William,” was found on the 1793 tax Assessment Records of Allegany County, Maryland paying tax on one lot. He is also believed to be the same Edward Dawson who was enumerated on the 1800 census of Allegany County, Maryland with a wife and three children. Unfortunately, neither the identity of his wife, nor the names of any of his children have been determined.

Edward was later mentioned in the will of his father, William Dawson, which had been written on 11 June 1802, and admitted for probate on 21 July 1802 in Allegany County, Maryland. According to this will, Edward was to receive a payment equal to one fourth of the fair market value of a sixty acre tract called “Clover Bottom.” This family requires additional research.

136. Thomas Dawson.
Thomas Dawson, the son of William Dawson and Elizabeth Melott, was calculated to have been born during the period 1755 to 1774, probably in Pennsylvania. Although Thomas, along with his father and three brothers, was listed on the 1800 census residing in the Upper Old Town region of Allegany County, Maryland with a wife and five children, neither the identity of his wife, nor the names of any of his children have been determined. By 1810, however, five additional children are listed.
Thomas was later mentioned in the will of his father, William Dawson, which had been written on 11 June 1802, and admitted for probate on 21 July 1802 in Allegany County, Maryland. According to this will, Thomas was to receive a payment equal to one fourth of the fair market value of a sixty acre tract called “Clover Bottom.” This family requires additional research.

137. Elizabeth Dawson.

Elizabeth Dawson, the only known child of James and Elizabeth Dawson, is believed to have been born in Maryland sometime during the period 1774 to 1784. She was later married in Allegany County, Maryland in about 1801/1802 to a man named Elijah Pilcher. Elijah, who had been born on 11 April 1778 in Virginia, was the son of James Pilcher and Nancy Murphy.

In about 1805, Elijah and Elizabeth left Maryland and moved to the state of Ohio, where they settled on a farm along the Hocking River in Athens County. Elijah later served on several Athens County Grand Juries in 1808, 1809, 1810, 1814, and 1815, and was a Township Trustee for Canaan Township in Athens County, Ohio for the years 1822, 1830, 1835, 1839 and 1840. Elizabeth is believed to have died in about 1835 in Athens County, Ohio, and is also believed to be the Elizabeth Pilcher who was buried in the Pilcher Cemetery at Athens, Ohio. Unfortunately, there is no marker for this Elizabeth.

After Elizabeth passed away, Elijah married on 14 September 1836 in Athens County, Ohio to a woman named Elizabeth Herrold. After his second wife passed away, Elijah married for a third time, also in Athens County, Ohio, to a woman named Abigail Jeffers on 29 August 1844.

Elijah was last found on the 1850 census of Athens County, Ohio residing on a farm in Canaan Township. Elijah Pilcher, who died on 5 May 1860 in Athens County, Ohio, was also buried in the Pilcher Cemetery at Athens, Ohio. His widow, Abigail, was subsequently found on the 1860 census of Athens County living with Elijah's son, Marcus Pilcher, and his family.
The offspring listed below as (male) or (female) were abstracted from available pre-1850 census enumerations. With the exception of the two youngest children depicted on the 1840 census, all of the other children shown on the 1820 through 1840 censuses were born prior to 1836 when Elijah Pilcher married for a second time, and are believed to be Elijah and Elizabeth (Dawson) Pilcher's children. Several have yet to be positively identified, however. The eldest female and the two youngest children (under 5 years of age) shown on the 1840 census are believed to be Elijah's second wife and her children.

The 1820 census enumeration of Athens County, Ohio shows males 311111 - females 2201. 332 The 1830 census of Athens County, Ohio shows males 122000001 - females 0002101. 333 The 1840 census of Athens County, Ohio shows males 102200001 - females 10100001. 334 Based upon the above census records, Elijah and Elizabeth appear to have had twelve children. The exact order of birth of the below listed children is not known in every case.

John Dawson, the son of Thomas and Mary Dawson, was calculated to have been born in 1783 in Allegany County, Maryland. 130 John was apparently married twice during his life. He married first on 19 January 1813 to a woman named Polly Putnam in Allegany County, Maryland. 27

After his first wife passed away, John married for a second time, also in Maryland, to a woman named Barbara Myers in about 1843. 123,130 Barbara, who was also a native of Maryland, was calculated to have been born there in 1796. 130 John and Barbara were last found on the 1850 census of Maryland residing on a farm in District Four in Allegany County. 130

Unfortunately, the pre-1850 census records of Allegany County, Maryland do not provide any helpful information concerning John R. Dawson and his possible children with Polly Putnam. Based upon the 1850 census, however, I believe they had at least two children, but may have had others. 130 The youngest daughter shown on the 1850 census is currently believed to be a daughter of John’s by his second wife, Barbara Meyers. 130

141. Mary Dawson.

Mary Dawson, the daughter of Thomas and Mary Dawson, was born in 1795 in Allegany County, Maryland. 131 She was later married on 6 June 1815 in Allegany County to a man named Abraham Dawson. 27 Abraham, who had been born in 1794 in Allegany County, Maryland, was the son of James Dawson and Anne Odle (also written Odell). 122,131

After their marriage, Abraham and Mary settled on a farm in District Four in Allegany County, Maryland, where they were still found to be residing on both the 1850 and 1860 censuses. 130,304 Neither Abraham nor Mary were found on the 1870 census of Allegany County, however, suggesting that they most likely died prior to that year. 307 Both Abraham and Mary were subsequently buried in the Dawson Cemetery at Dawson in Allegany County, Maryland. 131
The offspring listed below as (male) or (female) were abstracted from available pre-1850 census enumerations. These are also believed to be Abraham and Mary’s children, but have yet to be positively identified. The 1830 census of Allegany County, Maryland shows males 102001 - females 111001. 325 The 1840 census of Allegany County, Maryland shows males 1200101 - females 1011101. 323 Although these census records do not match well with respect to the male children, they still indicate that Abraham and Mary had approximately eight, and possibly nine, children.

175. Mary Elizabeth Dawson.

Mary Elizabeth Dawson, the daughter of John Lowe Dawson and Elizabeth Harrison, was born sometime during the period 1776 to 1794 in Menallen Township in Westmoreland County, Pennsylvania (now within Fayette County, Pennsylvania). She was later married to a man named Ninian “Ning” Nichols on 4 September 1800 in Harrison County, Kentucky. Ninian, who had been born in Montgomery County, Maryland on 3 April 1778, was the son of Benjamin Nichols and Comfort Vanderbilt.

In about 1803, Ninian and Mary Nichols apparently moved to Ohio, where they settled in that portion of the state that was formed in Champaign County in 1805, but was later incorporated into Logan County, Ohio in 1818. Ninian and Mary were later found on the 1820 census of Ohio residing on a farm in Miami Township in Logan County. Mary, however, appears to have died in about 1825 in Ohio.

After Mary passed away, Ninian married for a second time to a woman named Jane E. Hogshead on 25 September 1826 in Dearborn County, Indiana. Jane had been born in Augusta County, Virginia on 5 October 1769. Although Ninian and his second wife, Jane, were found on both the 1830 and 1840 censuses of Logan County, Ohio still residing on the farm in Miami Township, they eventually moved west into the state of Indiana.

Jane subsequently died in Lagrange County, Indiana on 29 November 1847. After his second wife passed away, Ninian was next found on the 1850 census of Indiana residing with his son, George N. Nichols, at Johnson in Lagrange County. Ninian died on 29 January 1855, also in Lagrange County, Indiana. Ninian and his second wife, Jane, were both buried in the Pierce-Witmer Cemetery at Witmer Manor in Lagrange County, Indiana.

Also [William Dawson had two sons, Lawrence (b. 1735) and William (b. 1738). Although these two sons are generally said to be children of William Dawson and Elizabeth Marbury, this is not accurate. Elizabeth Marbury was married to a man named John Davidson (Davison) during the period 1733 to 1746. When Elizabeth’s father wrote his will on 11 January 1734/1735, he specifically referred to her as “Elizabeth Davidson,” and subsequent probate documents refer to her as the “widow Davidson” as late as 29 July 1748. As such, William Dawson had to have been married prior to his marriage to Elizabeth Marbury].
