He married Rebecca Frances Lindsey November 08, 1848 in Oakville, AL, daughter of Benjamin Lindsey and Mary Brooks. She was born September 23, 1831 in Oakville, Lawrence County, AL, and died April 18, 1916 in Martin, LA.

Notes for Samuel Hiram Kellogg, Sr.:

- Red River Parish--Our Heritage (P. 397) says Samuel Hiram Kellogg, Sr. was born in Ireland. The Kellogg family fought in the Irish Rebellion during the potato famine and they had to literally fight their way out of Ireland when preparing to come to America. (as reported by Mrs. Barbara Kellogg) This information is highly suspect--no other source speaks of Kellogg members coming from Ireland, but rather from Scotland by way of England. And the 1850 Census says that he was born in Tennessee.
- Frances Rebecca Lindsey was born September 23, 1831 in Oakville, Alabama, where the couple was married November 8, 1848 (p.397)
- Samuel and Frances Kellogg migrated from Lawrence County, Alabama, before 1850, in the company of her brother Mark and Mary Anne Lindsey, and their sister, Margaret Tranquilla Hunter and her husband William Hunter. They supposedly took the Natchez Trace, crossing the Mississippi River at Vidalia, LA, and then migrating to Dubach and settling in what was then Union Parish. Mark Lindsey bought land there in 1856 (P. 311)
- The 1850 Census shows Samuel (age 24), Frances (age 17), and Martha (age 9/12) in Itawamba Co, MS, and by the birthplaces of their children, apparently moved to Martin after the birth of their second child on July 21, 1852, but before the birth of their third on December 1, 1854. [Elliott File] Census: 1850, Itawamba Co., MS

Notes for Rebecca Frances Lindsey:
