Isaac's headstone at Holly Springs Cemetery in Martin, LA says he was born in South Carolina, but he apparently only lived there at the time of the 1850 census. Winfred is "Buried in woods on Calvin Griffith place near Martin, LA"

Children of Isaac Elliott and Winfred Rogers are:

According to Biographical and Historical Memoirs of Northwest Louisiana, Southern Publishing Company, Chicago & Nashville, 1890, "He obtained a common-school education and learned the details of agriculture on his father's plantation. After devoting his time to tilling the soil until June 13, 1862, he joined Company B, Eleventh Louisiana Battalion, and served until May, 1865, but during this time was taken prisoner April 14, 1863, on the gunboat "Queen of The West." which was then on Grand Lake, in Louisiana. After his return home at the close of the war, he resumed farming, continuing until he was appointed parish assessor by Gov. P. A. Wiltz. April 16, 1884, he was elected to the responsible position of sheriff of Red River Parish, was re-elected in 1888, and his present term will expire in 1892. No more capable man for the position could be found than Mr. Elliott, and owing to his geniality and desire to oblige, he is very popular with all.

"Mr. Elliott has always been a Democrat, and socially is a member of the Silent Brotherhood Lodge No. 146 of the A. F. & A. M. He and his wife are prominent members of the Missionary Baptist Church of Coushatta"
