Ypsilanti Town, Aug. 20.—The seventeenth reunion of the Moore families was held last Thursday at the home of Rev. and Mrs. Howard Moore, six miles south of Ypsilanti. One hundred and three Moores were present from Ohio, Pennsylvania, New York and from the Michigan towns of Ann Arbor, Ypsilanti, Detroit, Adrian, Tecumseh, Pontiac, Bellevue, Milan, and Battle Creek. Those from Ann Arbor were Mr. and Mrs. Eli W. Moore, Dr. and Mrs. Walter Moore and three children, and Mr. and Mrs. Weston. The ages of the reunioners ranged from 2 to 92 years, the latter being Mrs. Elizabeth Pester, of Pittsfield. Another aunt, well along in years, was Mrs. Hannah Moore, of Pontiac, 82. There were a number ranging from 70 to 78.

Dinner was served in the specially decorated wagon shed, which at one time had actually been the home of the host. After dinner there was a brief program of speechmaking and song, and two whistling solos with piano accompaniment by Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Weston of Ann Arbor.

The next meeting will take place in Pontiac at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Moore.

Ex-Mayor John Corkins and wife, of Cass City, are guests of Mr. Corkin's brother, Wilmer, near Rawson.

Miss Zelma Walters has returned from a two weeks' visit with her grandmother, Mrs. Ella Eaton, of Lima Center.

The sixth annual reunion of the Dixon family took place in Dawsonville Saturday. Detroit, Denton, Royal Oak, Belleville, Ypsilanti, Martinville and Sumpter were represented. The reunion included relatives of Mrs. Eli Dixon, whose maiden name was Sampeon.

Miss Ella May Gardner, who has been ill, is recovering.

Newton Long and a Mr. Kern, of Apollo, Pa., who came out to attend the Moore reunion, were the guests of Mr. and Mrs. P. W. Moore Thursday night.

Garrison Moore, of Bellevue, and his two sisters, Anna and Ida, of Adrian, were present at the Moore reunion with their families.

The next meeting of the Ladies'
