

Over the Soldiers
where you will find

ERN UNION

in such changing
it is good to know
Union service is being lengthened to meet
conditions.

where the soldier
you can depend on to reach them
at small cost—so elastic
—so universal.

TELEGRAPH CO.

Fletcher's

STORIA

ought, and which has been has borne the signature of been made under his per-supervision since its infancy.
one to deceive you in this.
Just-as-good are, but
and endanger the health of against Experiment.

STORIA

for Castor Oil, Paregoric, it is pleasant. It contains other narcotic substance. Its more than thirty years it has
of Constipation, Flatulency, Playing Feverishness arising Stomach and Bowels, aids
healthy and natural sleep.
Mother's Friend.

PORTUGUESE EXILES RECALL PAST DAYS

Anniversary Observed at Northminster Church with Address by Rev. W. E. Spoons—Mortuary Record Prepared by J. N. Joaquin.

Sunday was rally day and the anniversary of the Portuguese Exile association church was observed at Northminster church and very large audiences were present. The pastor, Rev. W. E. Spoons, gave a talk on the coming of the Portuguese people to Illinois, reviewing various interesting facts of church and personal history. He told of the organization of the church in 1845 on the Island of Madeira and then related the events which led up to August, 1849, when the exiles came from their home in Madeira to Jacksonville. It was in the year following, that is, in 1850, that the church was organized here, as a result of which Northminster is now in existence.

In Madeira the church leader was the Scotch physician, Dr. Robert E. Kalley, and his work was such on the island and here that his memory has ever been held in reverence by the Portuguese people. The church which he organized had the honor of being the first Portuguese protestant church in the world. Rev. Mr. Spoons emphasized the splendid characteristics of the exiles and dwelt upon the noble heritage they had bequeathed to the Portuguese people of the present day. He declared that the younger generation have high ideals to live up to if they by any means approach the faithfulness and loyalty of their forefathers.

Exile Association Officers

As mentioned, the attendance at the service was large, the auditorium being filled to overflowing. Special provision had been made for bringing the aged and for those unable to walk automobiles or other conveyances were provided. As a part of the service John N. Joaquin as secretary of the exiles' association reported the deaths which have occurred during the last two years from August 23, 1915, to August 23, 1917. Because of a sad happening in Mr. Joaquin's own family no report was made in 1916, so that his report Sunday covered the two years. By unanimous vote the officers of the association were re-elected. They are:

President—E. M. Vasconcellos.

Secretary—John N. Joaquin.

Treasurer—A. P. Vasconcellos.

Mr. Vasconcellos and Mr. Joaquin have served as officers continuously for twenty-one years, as they were elected to their present positions when the association was formed in August, 1896. The service Sunday morning was both interesting and inspiring. The list of those who have died during the period mentioned is given below, together with the age, dates of birth and death:

The Mortuary List

Joaquin Vasconcellos—Born, 1848; died Sept. 5, 1915, aged 68.

SPEAK WORDS OF PRAISE FOR DR. F. A. McCARTY

NOTABLE FAREWELL SERVICE HELD AT CENTENARY CHURCH

Great Audience Gathered There Sunday Night to Pay Tribute to Minister Soon to Leave—Praised Because He Has Stepped Across Denominational Lines To Be a Community Influence—Resolutions Adopted by Ministers and Audience.

That was a notable gathering at Centenary church Sunday night when the people of all denominations and some of no denomination gathered to pay their tribute to Dr. F. A. McCarty who is to leave this week for Quincy to become pastor of Vermont Street church. The pastors of practically all of the protestant churches of the city dismissed their evening services in order to take part in this farewell for the popular Methodist minister who has been a resident here for ten years. The church was filled with Dr. McCarty's friends and at the close of the service all by a rising vote endorsed the resolutions which Dr. Harker presented signed by the ministers of the city.

Rev. W. W. Theobald, president of the Ministerial Association, presided. The vast audience was truly imposing and when the array of ministers accompanied by E. E. Crabtree, who was to speak, filled up the aisle the imposing array caused a profound sensation. The music through out was fully in keeping with the occasion and was very fine both organist and singers doing their part admirably.

Rev. E. B. Landis, pastor of Westminister church, offered the invocation and Rev. J. F. Langton, rector of Trinity Episcopal church, read the scripture lesson from the 20th chapter of Acts, the touching farewell of Paul to the elders of the church at Ephesus. Many of the words of the great apostle were applicable:

"I have not shunned to declare unto you the counsel of God."

"I have coveted no man's silver or gold or apparel."

"I have showed you all things how that so laboring ye ought to support the weak and to remember the words of our Lord Jesus; how he said, it is more blessed to give than to receive."

One verse, of course, didn't apply. It was:

"For I know this; that after my departing shall grievous wolves enter in among you not sparing the flock."

Such language can never be applied to either the coming district superintendent or pastor of Centenary church.

"Blest Be the Tie That Binds," was then sung and Rev. W. E. Spoons, D. D., offered prayer. Mrs. Hartmann then sang in an accomplished manner a solo entitled, "God of Our Fathers." Rev. W. R. Leslie the new pastor of Centenary church, and make other—

"He must have
have cold hands
most every enter
cannot be done,
but warm water
of the kettle; it thusiasm valuable boiling point.
described my first

Unite in

Rev. A. B. M.

Mr. McCarty as

love feast, not good to see the

thus unite in a

are glad to see

and sorry to see

is a seer, one who is sorely needed

Billy Sunday

got us to work

church the past

sent; in the

they go when

and we shall

cud and trust

McCarty is a Meth

ian proclivities

train once and

five dollars on

McCarty and I

that I was a Meth

a Presbyterian preached such sense. One day

to go to Meredos

Methodist church

After the service

went down to the

at work with the

them to come to them did so. I with him and he

man named McC

there and he cou

mon; it had "I

him why he had

ter then and final

right with God.

and he made a d

"Quincy needs

are told that Q

headquarters an

McCarty to oust his

big automobile

to do big thing

present is a gre

for the land is

needs just as w

Civil war. Some

to the Indian s

have, and then

looking back on

(Continued)

W

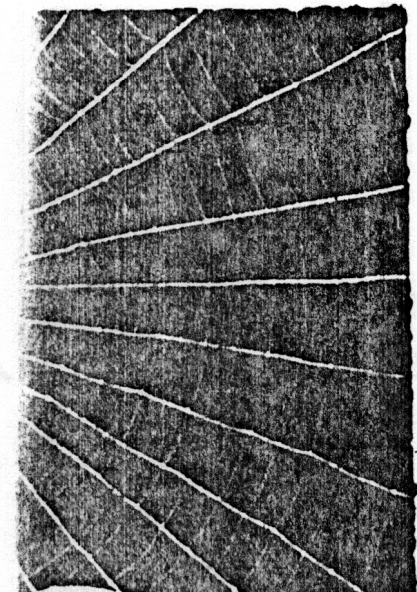

...aying Feverishness arising
the Stomach and Bowels, aids
healthy and natural sleep.
Mother's Friend.

ORIA ALWAYS

Signature of Litcher
er 30 Years
Always Bought
NEW YORK CITY.

early date. Both have been em-ved in the state house for sevyears. Miss Lola in the Secre-
of State's office and Miss Marie
the offices of the Utility commis-

Henry Oakes of Bluffs was a caller yesterday.

Drinking
ly given up changes to
POSTUM
Make
the Change

...died during the period mentioned
given below, together with the age,
dates of birth and death:

- The Mortuary List
- Joaquin Vasconcellos—Born, 1848; died Sept. 5, 1915, aged 68.
Frank Ferreira—Born, 1852; died Dec. 4, 1915, aged 64.
Josephine (Vasconcellos) Spears—Born, 1884; died Dec. 9, 1915, aged 32 years.
Belle DeFreitas—Born, 1853; died Jan. 20, 1916, aged 63.
Mrs. John F. Day—Born, 1868; died Jan. 30, 1916, aged 58.
Mary C. Vieira—Born, 1822; died Feb. 9, 1916, aged 94.
John DeCastro—Born, 1865; died March 5, 1916, aged 51.
Mrs. J. Z. Smith—Born, 1856; died March 30, 1916, aged 60.
Josephine DeFreitas—Born, 1825; died April 22, 1916, aged 91.
Mrs. Wm. Nunes—Born, 1860; died April 23, 1916, aged 56.
Ada Fernandes—Born, 1891; died April 23, 1916, aged 25.
Phillip DeFreitas—Born, 1832; died July 7, 1916, aged 84.
Miss Caroline Fernandes—Born, 1860; died July 11, 1916, aged 56.
Joseph P. Correia—Born, 1842; died July 24, 1916, aged 74.
Emmanuel Correia—Born, 1826; died July 26, 1916, aged 90.
Francisca DeOrnellas—Born, 1810; died July 30, 1916; aged 106.
Joaquin F. Nunes—Born, 1848; died Aug. 10, 1916, aged 68.
Emmanuel Gonsalves—Born, 1826; died Aug. 11, 1916, aged 90.
J. Carl Joaquin—Born, 1881; died Aug. 23, 1916, aged 35.
Mrs. Julia P. Smith—Born, 1859; died Aug. 25, 1916, aged 59.
Manuel Gomes (Springfield)—Born, 1833; died Nov. 26, 1916, aged 83 years.
Abbie DeFrates Lopes (Springfield)—Born, 1861; died Nov. 27, 1916, aged 55.
Mrs. Rita Vieira—Born, 1825; died Nov. 27, 1916, aged 91.
Mrs. Mauel P. Goveia—Born, 1826; died Dec. 29, 1916, aged 90.
Henry J. DeCraatos—Born, 1857; died Jan. 23, 1917, aged 60.
Mrs. Augusta Ferreira (Oklahoma)—Born, 1845; died Jan. 23, 1917, aged 72.
Mrs. Patricio Nunes—Born, 1852; died Feb. 17, 1917, aged 69.
Mrs. Johanna F. Smith—Born, 1843; died Feb. 21, 1917, aged 74.
Elmer R. Nunes—Born, 1886; died March 8, 1917, aged 31.
Mrs. Johanna Vieira—Born, 1821; died March 11, 1917, aged 96.
Mrs. John W. Vieira (Colo.)—Born, 1860; died March 30, 1917, aged 57.
Reuben R. Smith—Born, 1891; died April 13, 1917, aged 26.
William Nunes—Born, 1859; died May 15, 1917, aged 59.
David DeFreitas—Born, 1882; died May 31, 1917, aged 35.
Mrs. Henry A. Vieira—Born, 1861; died July 6, 1917, aged 56.
Manuel DeFrates (Texas)—Born, 1848; died Aug. 11, 1917, aged 69.
Mary DeFrates—Born, 1848; died Aug. 12, 1917, aged 69.
Mrs. Josie Vasconcellos Smith—Born, 1891; died Aug. 23, 1917, aged 26.

ILLINOIS COLLEGE
CONSERVATORY OF MUSIC
Students who wish to reserve time with Conservatory instructors should Spoonts, D. D., offered prayer. Mrs. Hartmann then sang in an accomplished manner a solo entitled, "God of Our Fathers." Rev. W. R. Leslie, the new pastor of Centenary church, was then introduced and led in reading from the psalter after which E. E. Crabtree was introduced and spoke for the business men. Of all the remarks made a short outline is offered:

Going a Source of Regret
"If there is a man in Jacksonville whom I fully appreciate and admire that man is Rev. F. A. McCarty, as a man of business, socially and in every other way. I have come to know him in many ways and his going hence is to me a source of sincere regret and yet I am glad too to pass on to my friends in Quincy such a man. Let me read to you a letter I wrote a banker friend in that city.

"By the papers I notice that the Rev. Frank A. McCarty is to be moved from Jacksonville district, where he has been a superintendent of the Methodist church, to the Vermont street church, Quincy.

"I do not belong to the Methodist church, but we think so much of Mr. McCarty in this town and in this bank that I am going to say to you as a friend that he is one of the best fellows over. He is a good business man, genial, has the happy faculty of saying the right thing at the right time, antagonizes no one, and has been a safety valve for many a gathering here. Summing it up, he is a dandy good fellow. I want you to meet him and I want you to know him. As soon as I can get hold of him I am going to ask him to call upon you as soon as he gets in Quincy.

"Mr. McCarty is a well balanced man. A man of good judgment and a broad liberality for the weakness of others; a splendid example in the daily conduct of life; in the balance of force, always willing to assist, but never pressing; never antagonistic or causing jealousy. He is not sensational, he is not radical and he is not a reformer, but always yielding an unconscious influence for good."

Could Always Be Depended On
"Dr. McCarty was valuable because of his good judgment, his toleration, his kindness and hearty efforts without antagonizing any one or being sensational. He had a vast and unconscious influence for good. He could always be depended on in any emergency and was valuable as a citizen. He is well balanced and possessed the rare gift of wisdom. Some people are good in some specific direction but when the stress comes they go to pieces. He says the right thing at the right time."

Concurred in Words of Appreciation
Dr. Marker spoke of Dr. McCarty as an administrator: "I shall slightly paraphrase Mark Antony's oration by saying we come not here to bury Dr. McCarty but to honor him. A flower now is worth a room full when he is dead. I fully concur in the words of appreciation which have been uttered regarding our departing friend. An administrator should be far seeing. We all have fine hind sight but how few have good foresight. An administrator must be one who can see far ahead. If he can do this he need not despair of anything. He must have energy; able to grasp everything. Some hard-

Jacksonville Daily Journal, Fri, Sep 18, 1917

