PREFACE

The authors have done much research on the WALKER family. Other researchers have done a lot, also. We thank the contributors for their input. The information would not have been as complete without their efforts. This treatise is, therefore, a composite of the results of many personal efforts.

Oliver Waldron was found in the 1850 and 1860 Federal Census of Ware County Georgia. He married Ann Sylvester in Bryan County, Georgia. Her father was Asbury Sylvester from South Carolina. This genealogy begins at this point. It continues with the WALDRON family until we find that William Walker married Rebecca Jane Waldron. The marriage hasn't been found to tell where they were married.

Mr. James Waldron, descendant of Oliver Waldron, tells the authors that he had an interview with Mrs. Rosa Walker Bates in her home on October 15, 1974. She told him the following: That the Walker family came from Alabama after the Civil War. William Walker married Nancy Walker (she was not related to her husband). They were married in Tallahassee, Leon County, Florida. They came to Manatee County, Florida and homesteaded 120 acres of land on the Peace River (near what is now Bunker, DeSoto County, Florida). William Walker married Nancy Walker eleven days after they met. They farmed on the homestead and raised everything they ate--except their coffee and salt. They raised sugar cane and dripped the sugar they used. William Walker served in the Civil War in the Union Army with Company A of the Second Florida Cavalry. He was discharged at Tampa, Hillsborough County, Florida.

William Walker and Rebecca Jane Waldron (of Ware County Georgia) were married (place unknown). Rebecca was the daughter of Oliver Waldron and Ann Sylvester. She was born on August 28, 1810; died December 9, 1878; buried in Oak Hill Cemetery at Bunker, DeSoto County, Florida.

The information was originally placed on the computer using the Church of Latter Day Saint's program 'Personal Ancestry File'. The authors then converted the PAF file to the ROOTS III format. Subsequently, the ROOTS III file was used in this book. Therefore, some place names are combined into one word such as Friendship Baptist Church Cemetery being spelled as 'Frndshpchcem'. Other corrections to the manuscript are: state names were entered as all capital letters, but the conversion to a ROOTS III format changed the state names to a beginning with a upper-case letter and all the rest of the letters being lower-case letters

All persons reading this manuscript are invited to inform the authors of any findings that are incorrect and/or incomplete. An easy way to do this is to photocopy the incorrect page and send it to the authors at:

vicinity. We went to Sarasota when the land was cleared. There were two stores in the town. One store was owned by Mr. Higel and the other by George Cason. The families I knew were: Higels, Helvestons, Whitakers, Basses and Col. Gillespee. Also a few others. In Fruitville, there were Emmett and Frank Tucker, their mother and father, Reaves, Hand, and some Walkers. At Bee Ridge, there were: Hawkins, Tatum, Minks, Rawls, Taylor, and Albritton. In Bradenton, lived: Edwards, Bennett, Boyette, Whitaker, Gates, Joyners, Fogarty, Stewart, Prine, Fuller, and Horton. In Oneco, lived: Whitteds, Helms, Thompsons, Youngloves, Anges, Grahams, Collins, and Reasoners. In the Lockwood Ridge settlement lived: Bradleys, Walker, Anges, Drymons, Kinseys, Locklears, and Johnsons. In 1900, I married Allen Whitted. I married George McKendree in November 1920. When we came to Sarasota, there were no doctors and no fishing village. The nearest doctors were: Dr. Leffingwell and Dr. Ferman Whitaker in Bradenton. The nearest hospital was in Tampa. A Mrs. Carrie Abbie was the postmistress.

Wedding announcement of Westrick-Walker in a newspaper:

Of the brides who chose St. Valentine's Day for her wedding was Miss Mary Westrick, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Westrick, who exchanged nuptial vows with Homer E. Walker, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Walker of Sarasota, Fla.

The wedding took place at 2:30 p.m. Saturday in St. Mary's Catholic parsonage with Rev. Gerald F. Connolly, officiating. Attendants were Mrs. Ralph McAvoy of Senton, Mich., and Ted Dreves.

For her wedding, the bride wore a costume suit of beige wool, with a chic navy hat, white gloves and a corsage of tube roses and sweetpeas.

A reception was held in the evening in the home of the bride's parents.

The bride, a graduate of St. John's commercial, has been employed at the Defiance Automatic Screw Co., where Mr. Walker also is an employee.

They are at home in an apartment in West High Street.

Out-of-town guests were Mrs. Arthur Walter and children, Senton, Mich.; Mr. and Mrs. Harold Bower and daughter, Deanna, Fort Wayne.

So in hopes of seeing you soon I Remain your loving Brother

W. J. Walker"

The authors have a letter written by Elizabeth (Geiger) Walker to her brother, dated July 17, 1865.

July 17, 1865

Dear brother. I will send you a few lines to let you know we are alive yet hoping you all well. We have seen hard times since you left and no hopes of help for us. We are all sick with the measles and Amey and Sammy come very near dying. They are all here yet and was no person to look to for help.

John won't buy a thing for them little children. I have lived on dry bread made up with cold water ever since you left here. I do just eat enough to save life and that is all. I have got so weak I cant hardly walk and am sick too with the fever of diptheria. I must come to a close. You must write to me. I want you to remember dear brother the good advise I have given you and if ever are mustered out for my sake and for God sake you never reenlist again for if you do you will be carried to Mexico and you will never return again. I am not uneasy with you for reenlisting again.

Elizabeth Geiger Walker

The authors have a letter from E. M. Walker (Elizabeth (Geiger) Walker, wife of Oliver A. Walker) to her husband dated 17 July 1865:

July 17, 1865

Dear Husband,

I an not uneasy about you reenlisting in the service again for you promised me you wouldnt but I know a sum is enticing. I am afraid you wont be mustered out soon. Content yourself as best you can. I hope God will be with us all for without His help we can do nothing. So farewell my darling until I see you again and I hope it will be God's will for us to meet again on this earth.

E. M. Walker. Farewell, farewell.
