PREFACE

This is the preface for Book 2. It is one of three books by the same authors. All the researchers that are reviewing this book should consult the other books of this series. Very little information is duplicated from one book to the other books.

The compilation of this book is gathered from many persons. Some of the persons are family members. Other material is gathered from publications other than as stated previously. With all due regard as to the family members and 'other publications', the authors recognize that individuals, when submitting material, slant the data as they, individually, interpret the data. The authors, then, publish the data as 'uninterpreted' and straightforward information. This observation may or may not be true. The researcher then must accept the material as it is presented and then must do further research into the genealogy.

All persons who use this book may or will find errors in the data. The authors apologize for the errors. When an error is found, all the researchers are asked to submit any errors. Then, subsequently, the authors will write an addenda to this book outlining the errors.

Persons may have died, persons were born to families, many were married, divorced, etc. Date and place are essential data to the event of occurrence. On the reverse side of the page, please include a summary account of the family history--such as occupation, religion, where they lived at various times, hobbies, etc.

A good method of submitting any errors is to photocopy the disputed page from the book, make any corrections on the page, and then forward it to the authors. The authors address is:

Lt Col Michael Evanco
3845 27th Parkway
Sarasota, Florida 34235-8027

Other genealogies by the same authors are:

The WHITTED family
The WALKER family
The ALDRIDGE family (future publication)
The EVANCO family (future publication)

NOTES

1. Mr. Forrest Walker tells the authors that there is folklore that William (Billy) Walker was married twice. His second marriage was to Rebecca Waldron. He also says that William Walker had ten children by the first marriage and seventeen children by the second marriage. It is presumed that some died very, very young since there are only twelve children shown on the family group sheet. The Evancos have only six children with Rebecca Waldron and no children with Martha Jane Skates.
 2. All the children were married at the Walker home by Judge A. E. Peeser at the Walker home at Bunker, De Soto Co., FL. This information is according to Mrs. Rosa (Walker) Bates (RIN).
 3. Pension No: W.O. 1072652. Also Pension No. 747119. Pension papers say that William F. Walker was born 19 Mar '85. Could it be that the birthdate is for the father of this William J. Walker. Or was the birthdate for a son of William J. Walker (This author has the birthdate for the son as 4 Aug 1882. It is more likely that the date is for the son.
 4. Nancy Walker was not related to William J. Walker.
1. Nancy Walker was no relationship to her husband.
 2. Nancy Walker (RIN 88) was a sister to Mary Catherine Walker (RIN 91). Catherine was the wife of John Walker.
 3. Oak Hill Cemetery is located at Bunker Community, De Soto Co., FL.

NOTES

Information obtained from a personal interview with Viola (Gray)

HUSBAND: James Henry Walker
 WIFE: Mary Julia Scarborough

NOTES (Continued)

Walker by Florence (daughter)....and a personal interview with Fred Elbert Walker by Joy Ann (daughter).

1. Julia Mary (Scarborough) Walker, wife of James Henry Walker, died at home in New Pierce, Florida.

2. Julia Mary (Scarborough) Walker had a nephew named John Scarborough. John Scarborough was the son of Julia Mary Walker's sister, named Josephine (affectionately called "Aunt Phennie"). Aunt Phennie was the oldest child in the family. Aunt Phennie never married and John always went by the name "Scarborough". It is believed John Scarborough is buried at Riverview, Florida.

3. Julia Mary (Scarborough) Walker's siblings were as follows:

SISTERS: (1) Josephine was the eldest. She was called "Aunt Phennie". She was the mother of John Scarborough.

(2) Betty. Her married name was "Lewis". Betty and her husband, "Dink" Lewis, and her son, Clyde Lewis, are all buried in Myrtle Hill Cemetery.

(3) Missouri. She was called "Aunt Zue". She had no children.

(4) Mattie. She was the mother of Clarence Albrooks.

BROTHERS: (1) Alec. He was called "Will". He was killed by a woman who she supposedly shot her sister.

(2) Lum. He had ten children. It is believed one of the children named "Katie" lives in Tallahassee, Florida (1980)

4. Josephine Scarborough (Aunt Phennie) died of 'Scurvy' sometime before 1920. 'Scurvy' was called "the potato disease" at that time because the diet of that consisted mostly of potatoes in various forms. Scurvy is believed to be caused by a lack of 'Vitamin C' in the diet.

5. The mother of Julia Mary (Scarborough) Walker was named: Martha. (Author's note: We have her name as 'Margaret'.)

6. The family of Julia Mary (Scarborough) Walker came to Florida from Missouri and Alabama.

NOTES

The following information regarding Fred Elbert Walker was obtained from personal interview with Florence Viola (Gray) Walker, wife of Fred Elbert Walker.

1. Fred Elbert Walker's family lived in Hillsborough County, Florida near 'Six Mile Creek' for many years. This was when Fred was young and still lived at home with James Henry and Julia Mary Walker, his parents. At one time, when Fred Elbert was a young boy, his family lived a short time at Oviedo, Florida. Fred Elbert related to his daughter, Florence, how he walked from Oviedo, Florida to Turkey Lake on the west side of Orlando, Florida to go fishing.

According to the personal interview with Viola (Gray) Walker, Mary (Scarsborough) Walker was 'one of the best women who ever lived'. She was a christian and a member of the 'HOLINESS CHURCH...a group of people who came through the area preaching holiness'.

'Riggin's Slough', the birthplace of Fred Elbert Walker, was located due east of County Line Road (now known as University Parkway). According to the interview with his wife, Viola (Gray) Walker, the reason he is listed as being born in 'Manatee' County is because there was no 'Sarasota' Cuntly at the time of his birth. The present Manatee and Sarasota County were, at that time, known as 'Manatee' County.

The new born baby, Fred Elbert Walker, was delivered by 'Aunt Sally'...his paternal great aunt.

Another long time resident of the area, Mr. Melvin Head, described the location of Riggin's Slough as approximately 1/2 or 3/4 mile due east of the present Walker residence at 6200 North Lockwood Ridge Road. Riggin's Slough is no longer in existence making it impossible to pinpoint the exact location. However, these two early residents have described Riggin's Slough in such a parallel manner that it is safe to assume the location described is accurate.

HUSBAND: Freddie Elbert Walker
WIFE: Florence Viola Gray

It is believed (according to the interview with Viola (Gray) Walker) that, at one time, a small 'packing house' of some sort was located at Riggins Slough. There was definitely a barn of some type at the location. Fred Elbert was born . . . with his great Aunt Sally serving as mid-wife. This type of birth (mid-wife assisting in birth) was not unusual in the day.

Information obtained from a personal interview with Viola (Gray) Walker by Florence (daughter) and a personal interview with Fred Elbert Walker by Joy Ann (daughter)

1. James Henry Walker, father of Fred Elbert, is believed to have been born at Pine Level, Florida near Arcadia, Florida. Two other children were born to James Henry Walker and Julia Mary (Scarborough) Walker. They were: 1. James Robert Walker (known as "Uncle Bob").
2. Margaret Viola (Walker) King (Walden) (known as "Aunt Maggie").

2. William J. Walker (affectionally called "Uncle Billy Walker"), father of James Henry Walker and grandfather of Fred Elbert Walker lived at "Bunker", a suburb of Arcadia, Florida. He had two wives, Martha and Nancy; and one brother, George. William J. Walker and his wife, Martha, were the parents of James Henry Walker. The family of William J. Walker came to Bunker, Florida, from Ware County, Georgia. It is believed the family came to Ware County, Georgia from one of the Carolinas.

3. Paternal relatives of Fred Elbert Walker:
a. William James Walker ("Uncle Billy" Walker was sometimes known as "Little Billy" Walker), was Fred Elbert's grandfather.
b. James Henry (called "Henry") was Fred Elbert Walker's father.
c. Elizabeth ("Aunt Lizzie") was Fred Elbert Walker's aunt.
d. "Rosie" - believed to be still living in Arcadia, Florida as of 1980.
e. Edward ("Eddie")
f. William ("Williw")

4. At the time, Fred Elbert and Viola (Gray) Walker lived in Belmont Heights - Tampa, Florida. John Scarborough lived right across the fence from them. He was Fred's first cousin. Fred and Viola Walker lived in an orange grove on Hargrove Avenue in Belmont Heights when their daughter, Florence, was a baby. Fred and Viola Walker's other children (Julia Elizabeth, Lilian Florence, Philip Elbert) attended school in Belmont Heights.
