

Sereal no.
1856791

Rank Cook Instructor
George T. McKendree.

Enlisted in the U.S. Army Co. D.
306. Regiment of Engineers 81st. Div on June the 5th 1917. at Dade City Fla., assigned to Camp Jackson
Columbia S.C. on Sept ~~18~~¹⁹th 1917.

Then assigned to Green Ville
Camp, S.C. Then to Camp Upton
Long Island, N.Y. Then departed
July 30th 1918, to Liverpool Eng.
on the Boat named Canada.

owned by the British Government.

Then across the English Channel on the Boat named King George.

Then landed in Dela Schurberg France. Then hiked 186. Miles. to La Harve France, then to St. Dis Sector. Then to Lamony France.
Then to the Volgez mts

Line Sergeants

Rhodes

Dewitt Adams

Then to Verdun, then to the 19th Engineers reserve sector, then to the Meuse Argonne Sector,
Then across the Rhine River,
into Germany, to Lexingberg
Germany, Then to Bordeaux Germany,
Then back to Assise Ser Seaine
France, Then to Monte Carlo France,
Then to Orchee Court, France, then to Amfillie France Then to Buncie
France, Then to Kraud France
Then to Ra-on La Sap. France, then loaded on the U.S. train and transported to St Nazair, France, Then loaded on the Santa Malta, set sail for the U.S.A. on June 1st 1919 arrived at Charleston S.C., June 15-1919
Then transported by train to Columbia
S.C. then discharged June 20th 1919.
From The U.S. Army.

Name of Sectors in battles.
St. Die. Sector.

Verdoone

Hendenberg

St. Maheil.

Volgez. mts.

Meuse Argonne

Lamouz.

in the U.S. the first Captain

George H. Bunker.

2nd capt. L. L. Adams.

1st Sergeant Pichorski

2nd, Johnny Austin

1st Lieutenant

Rogers

2nd Dillingham

second Lieutenants

1st Blue

Monahan

Andrews