

an attack on the posts that they Cork custodian came into collision, and ing received a terrible blow, was
 o. retire, his place being taken by S. who proved equally good. The Clare e never seen to such advantage. Every ed splendidly, but above all shone out hers Power, whose long pucks had a ing effect. Spellisy, Considine, Fox herthy played a magnificent game out, and supported by their dogged and ed fellow-players they fought out every he ground, and amidst intense excite-e long time whistle went, after which cheers which rent the air for miles f "Up Clare." The Clare men will ve to meet Queen's County at Croke he final for the All-Ireland Champion-Sunday, 18th October, when it is to be hoped that Clare will again emerge
 rs. Details:—

JUNIOR GAME.

me was announced to take place at 2 and just to the minute the Clare men, oud applause, took the field, soon fol-Cork. Clare having won the toss, the set going in a few minutes. Cork first to make an impression, and im-y invaded the Clare territory, where relieved and sent to midfield. Cork essed, and after an exciting encounter the Clare posts, McCarthy, for Cork, e net. For the next few minutes Cork ing the best of the game, but Coote ogue saved repeatedly. Crowe, rais-leather, put his forwards attacking, over was the result. Crowe, Gordan, es were now very conspicuous, and ly sent in the ball to the mouth of the the defence proved sound. Eventually de a fierce onslaught and by a desperate ged ahead soon making the equaliser. red up the Clare men, who worked and tested the strength of the Cork who were not able to frustrate the with the result that Clare scored again n, Crowe, Flannery, Quin, and Baker ainly instrumental in opening up the The Clare men were all over their ts for the remaining half, and thanks forwards they piled up the score, half-time stood:—
 e—5 goals 1 point (16 points).
 t—1 goal 2 points (5 points).
 some play of a give-and-take nature home-and-home rubber of 13 games of 21 aces each game for a gold medal between Mr. R.

 J. Daly (Senior Champion for the City and County Dublin), and Mr. G. Cole (Limerick).
 The play right through was all that could be desired, and some lovely passages were witnessed. The local man was in great tossing form, and at the termination of the seventh game he emerged with six games to his credit.
 Scores:—

Daly—15, 21, 21, 21, 21, 21, 21.

Cole—21, 10, 10, 5, 5, 2, 8.

Mr. P. Doyle acted as marker, and Mr. J. Kennedy, officiated as referee.

Funeral of Mr. T. Lane, D.C

The funeral of the late Mr. Thomas Lane, D.C., whose death we announced in our last issue, took place yesterday amidst every manifestation of regret. The popularity which the deceased enjoyed was evidenced by the huge concourse of sympathisers who attended to pay their last tribute of respect to his memory. The interment took place at the family burial ground near Clonlara. The chief mourners were—Rev M. Murphy, P.P., Monaleen; Rev D O Driscoll, P.P., St. Munchin's; Rev J O'Carroll, C.C., Monaleen; Rev T O'Connor, Rev J Lane, and Rev D Fitzpatrick, C.C., St. Mary's. The chief mourners were—Patrick and John Lane (sons), Patrick Lane, D.C., Quinpool, and John Lane, D.C., Donoman (brothers); William O'Connell, Thos Collopy, R Dunworth, Martin Ryan, and T Humphries, D.C. (brothers-in-law); Patrick Lane, D.C., Donoman; Thomas Lane, Patrick Lane, Dublin; Dr Wm Lane, Rev J Lane, Rev T O'Connor, Dr Jeremiah Lane, Michael Collopy, Patrick O'Connor, Joseph Collopy, James Humphreys, W Dunworth, Michael Lane, James Lane, Patrick Lane, and John Lane (nephews); T Ryan (cousin).

It would be impossible to give anything like a complete list of those attending the funeral. Rev M Murphy, P.P., Monaleen, officiated at the graveside.

Sleeping Out

THREE MEN SENT TO GAOL

