Preface

It was during the reign of Louis IX, the period when the Germanic Coumentites produced only poverty and death and the spirits of its people were at their lowest, that we find Konrad John Lautermilch married to Johanna Katherine Kopf. They were from Sinnsheim and Karchard.

Kirchard and Sinnsheim are towns about 40 kilometers northeast of Kurlsruhe and 20 kilometers southeast of Heidelberg, Baden, Germany.

Baden is a region or state in the southeastern part of Germany.

Jacob Lautermilch was our common ancestor in Germany, this family line was from one of his 19 children.

Melchoir Hans Lautermilch	1697-1775
Adam Hans Lautermilch	-1781
Konrad John Lautermilch	1776-1834

Like many of the German people, being persecuted and unable to obtain a proper education, several of their children decided to sail to America. The first group settled in Dauphin County, Pa. and scattered to different parts of Ohio. They are now located throughout the country. Konrad and Johanna married in 1805 and they had twelve children. The children we have found so far are listed and as we find more, we shall add those to this list.

Dedicated to: My daughter, Cheryl, for getting me started with her 4-H project.

Compiled: 1979 through 1995

With later names and dates penciled in.

My sincere thanks goes to all those who responded so willingly to my many letters of inquiry. And I am doubly thankful to the following for their extra help:

LOUIS W. LAUTERMILCH for his investigating of the past generations.
HARRIETT D. LAUTERMILCH, my Mother, for helping with the present generations.
OTTO J. LAUTERMILCH and GRACE BONZA

All my appreciation goes to MARY, SUE AND LAURA LAUTERMILCH for helping me put together and typing this register.

Editors Note:

The sources of these family records are from Birth Certificates, Death Certificates, Marriage Records, Census, Micro-film, and from Church Records in Kirchartd, Germany, and from personal visits and letters.

Some space is allowed for those names and dates missing so that each branch may complete their own tree. I would greatly appreciate receiving this missing information from any of you so that there might be a complete register in existence.

Please send to:

Mrs. Alice Marie Zoll
07929 Independence Road, R# 4
Defiance, OH 43512

My only desire is to prepare this register with as few errors as possible. At the same time there is likely a few will occur. Also the listing is far from complete. Families are living throughout the United States, more children have been born, others have married, and deaths have occurred with no recorded information available. My only regret is I did not start recording these records years ago when Dad and I first talked about them.

General Notes: WELHELM (WILLIAM) LAUTERMILCH SR. - HISTORY

William was born in Kirchart, Baden, Germany, the son of Konrad and Johanna (Kopf) Lautermilch. William was the sixth child in line of birth of his eleven brothers and sisters. Not all of them came to America.

Konrad, the father, was a saddler and harnessmaker. (He was said to have made saddles for the Kaiser.) Although most of the children received very little or no education, William managed to receive a military education and was commissioned as Lieutenant in the Army. William lived in Wurttemberg; but at the time of the Revolution in 1848, he took part against the Government and in consequence was obliged to flee from his country.

He married a short time before leaving his native land to Miss Regina Huebsman, and brought his young bride and infant son with him. Regina was the daughter of the Kaiser.

William and Regina arrived in America through Baltimore, MD. and for a short time stayed in Dauphin County, PA. All his property in his own country had been confiscated; but his wife had some, which furnished him capital to engage in the hardward business, first in Mansfield, then Monroeville, OH, subsequently to Shelby, OH where he engaged in business. He was also a Tinner by trade until the time of his death, which occurred on February 26, 1860.

William's family consisted of five children:

William Jr.: The eldest, born in Germany. Served in the Civil War with the 120th Ohio Infantry. Died at age fifteen.

General Notes: JOHN H. LAUTERMILCH

(Taken in part from the Centennial Bio. History)

In a witty after-dinner speech Chancey M. Depew once said: "Some men achieve greatness, some are born great, and some are born in Ohio." To this last class Mr. Lautermilch belongs, for Ganges, in Blooming Grove Township, is the place of his birth on August 20, 1844. His parents were Conrad and Sarah (Bucker) Lautermilch.

John Lautermilch spent the days of his childhood under the parental roof and the common schools afforded him his educational privileges. In 1867 he was married to Miss Mary A. Bricker. Our subject took his bride to the old home place of his father, Conrad, which he operated on shares until his mother's death in 1895, when he came into possession of the farm. In 1895 he purchased the Wesley Fickers farm, a small tract of land upon which stood a handsome residence. It was his intention to take up his abode there and leave his sons to care for the old homestead, but ere he had opportunity to carry out his intention. He was called upon to moan the loss of his wife, who died on the 8th of November, 1895. This changed his plans and his oldest son took possession of the new house, while Mr. Lautermilch resided quietly at the old homestead, the land being cultivated by tenants.

Mr. and Mrs. Lautermilch had two children, George W. and Austin.

Noted events in his life were:

- He worked as a Farmer.

17. William Lautermilch Jr. [44]² (*Wilhelm (William)*², *Konrad John*¹) was born on 28 Sep 1848 in Germany and died on 15 Aug 1864 in Marganzie, LA at age 15.

Konrad John Lautermilche and His American Descendants

(Taken in part from the pretrial biographical album of Hillsdale Co., Mich. 1888)

Mr. Alleger first saw the light near the Atlantic Coast, being born in Hunterdon County, N.J., April 7, 1841. His father, Hiram Alleger, was a carpenter by trade, migrated to Ohio in 1851 near West Unity, then to a farm in Hillsdale County. He passed away in 1865. His mother was Elizabeth Schamp.

Elemuel was thirteen years old when he moved to Hillsdale with his parents. In 1861 he volunteered his services and joined Company E, 14th Ohio Infantry. He received his honorable discharge only to re-enlist the same year in the 3rd Ohio Calvary, serving a term of three years.

William was born on 6 Oct 1846 in Kincross, Scotland (Near Edinburgh), died on 23 Jul 1931 in Mansfield, Richland, Ohio at age 84, and was buried on 24 Jul 1931 in Mansfield Cemetery, Mansfield, OH.

General Notes: WILLIAM DOW - (History of Richland Co., A. A. Gramh, 1880)

Contractor and stone mason, in Mansfield, Ohio. He was born near Edinburg, Scotland, on Oct. 6, 1846, and the first son of John and Janet (Miller) Dow, which was an old and respected family in that country. He migrated to this country in 1869 and came to

Konrad John Lautermilche and His American Descendants

Mansfield in the summer of 1870. Directly after his arrival here, he was employed by the contractor of the Court House which was being built. He was likewise employed in building the stonework on the Congregational Church in this city. In the spring of 1873 the firm of Hancock and Dow were the contractor and builders of the Mansfield Savings Bank. In 1875 they built the freighthouse of the CC & RR in Columbus and the passenger station in Berea. Among the public and larger buildings for which they were the contractor and masons since that date were the Marysville School in 1876 and the City Hall in the same place, the Masonic Temple in Marion in 1877, Keith and Scattergood Building, and the frontage of the Swigart building. The firm is at present the contractors for the same work in the new City Jail, now in process of erection.

WILLIAM DOW - (History of Richland Co., A. J. Baughmen, 1908)

President of the Dow Chemical Mfg. Co. and identified with various other interests, keen determination that enables him to understand and embrace business opportunities and to carry them forward to successful completion, long and well defined lines of labor, intelligently directed. Mr. Dow, born in Kincross, Scotland, was educated in that country. He came to America as a young man of 20 years, locating in New York. Later he moved to Cleveland, Ohio and afterward to Mansfield, where he has conducted a general contracting business until his practical retirement from business activities and management. He was closely connected to the building interests here and many substantial monuments of his thrift and enterprise stand in the city. He is now living largely retired in the enjoyment of a well-earned rest, although he is financially connected with various Corporate interests which are contributing substantially in building of the city and giving the stockholders a goodly return.

In 1903 Mr. Dow and his three sons established the Dow Chemical Mfg. Co., of which is president. He is also vice-president of the Ideal Electric Co., director of the Bank of Mansfield, and Director of the Barnes Mfg. Co.; also in a coal and timber company operating in W. Va. and in the Mechanics Savings and Loan. As the years passed and he prospered in his undertakings, he also invested in realty and is the owner of a consider-able amount of valuable property in the city. His buildings include his home at 564 Park Avenue West in this city, the residence being built in 1896.

Mr. Dow was married in Forest, Ohio to Miss Lusetta Sletzer of an old German family connected with nobility. There are three sons, John W., Treasurer of the Dow Chemical Mfg. Co., Ralph, who is Secretary, and Walter, who is Vice-President.

 This statement is untrue. First, William and Lusetta were married in 1875 in Mansfield, Ohio (this is recorded in the Court House). Second, her name was not Sletzer, but Lautermilch. Her marriage license and death certificate and all other information lists her as such. This possibly came about from the fact that a half brother had his name changed to Sletzer in Cleveland.

Konrad John Lautermilche and His American Descendants

20. Gustave Augustus (Gus) Lautermilch [47]⁵ (*Wilhelm (William)*², *Konrad John*¹) was born on 25 Sep 1856 in Richland Co., Shelby, Ohio, died on 10 Oct 1920 in Hillsdale Co., Michigan at age 64, and was buried in Baker-Drake Cemetery, Territorial Road, R.R. Camden, Mich..

General Notes: GUSTAVE AUGUSTUS (GUS) LAUTERMILCH

The farming interest of Amboy Township found a worthy representative in Gus Lautermilch, who owned and cultivated one hundred and seventy-five acres of land, constituting one of the finest farms of the community. It was improved with up-to-date conveniences of that day and constituted one of the most attractive features of the landscape in which it was located. As owner, he was therefore justly accounted as one of the progressive agriculturists of the community. He was born September 25, 1856 in Richland Co., the son of William and Regina (Herman, as she was called in America) Lautermilch.

William and Regina came to America from Baden, Germany in 1849. William was here only a few years before his death in 1860, leaving his wife, Regina, with five very young children, William Jr., Lusetta, Ada, Gus, and Louis.

Gustave, the fourth child in order of birth, spent a great deal of time living with his Uncle Conrad and Aunt Sarah, whom the children all called Grandfather and Grandmother.

Mr. Lautermilch worked out by the month as a farm hand until the time of his marriage to Miss Ida Beattie in 1885, after which he engaged in farming and breeding Holstein cattle on the farm of his Father-in-law, which he then later purchased.

Ida passed away soon after the birth of their fourth son. Their first son died at birth. Carson, their second son, and Carl, the youngest child, went to live with Catherine Beattie, Ida's sister, in Shelby, Ohio. Glen stayed with his father on the farm. Later Carson returned to the farm also.

Gus continued his occupation until his death, which occurred October 10, 1920.

Carson Lautermilch: Married Miss Elsie Russell. They had four children: Ida, Russell, Helen, Ralph.

Glen Lautermilch: Married Miss Harriett D. Merryfield. They had nine children: Lewis, Marion, Opal, Hazel, Paul, Mildred, Alice, Grace, Junior.

Carl Lautermilch: Married A. Pearl Moffett. They had two girls: Doris, Leota.

Noted events in his life were:

- He worked as a Farmer.

Gustave married Ida Mae Beattie [91]⁵ [MRIN: 35], daughter of James Beattie [92] and Susanna Bryte [93], on 23 Apr 1885 in Hillsdale, Mich.⁶ Ida was born on 25 May 1865 in Michigan, died on 3 Jan 1889 at age 23, and was buried in Baker-Drake Cemetery, R.R. Camden, Mich..

Was employed as a general jobber in early life and later became a farmer.

From "Douglas L. Whipple"

Isaac moved to northwestern Ohio about 1858 from Delaware County New York. He was served during the Civil War. Not sure if he was drafted or enlisted. He was wounded during the battle of Atlanta and was discharged shortly thereafter. Believe his wounds were only minor. He received a proclamation from President Abraham Lincoln for his service during the war. I've never heard that he did anything special during the war. ???

He returned to northwestern Ohio and married Margaret Catherine Falkner. If you read any of the history of Fulton or Williams county, Margaret's father (John Peter) was prominent in the settlement of this area of the country. Margaret was born in Baden Germany on May 27, 1843. Her parent's names are John Peter Falkner and Margaret Loutermilch. Isaac and Margaret were married in North Morenci, Mich. on Oct 23, 1864.

Konrad John Lautermilche and His American Descendants

Shortly after they were married, he and Margaret moved back to Delaware County New York. They lived in or near Clovesville where the first of their 3 children were born. These are

Abraham Lincoln Whipple - b) September 15, 1865
 Caroline Bertha Whipple - b) December 13, 1866
 Charles A. Whipple - b) January 26, 1868

Soon after Charles's birth they moved back to northwestern Ohio and settled near Elmira, Ohio. Isaac bought 80 acres and farmed. He did not have the 80 acres long and swapped it for 180 acres (I believe, this info can be found in the historical records for Fulton and Williams County.).

Here 7 more children were born. They are John Peter - b) October 18, 1869
 Idella (Ida) Jane - b) August 9, 1871
 George Walter - b) September 8, 1872
 Willie A. - b) 30 May 1874 & d) September 4, 1874
 Albert (Bert) A. - b) 6 August 1875
 Mary Ann - b) 21 September 1877
 Margaret Carrie - b) 19 February 1880

I provided Willie's death date for many do not know of him. He died a few months after being born. Most references I've seen of Isaac and Margaret fail to mention him.

Abraham (Abe) Lincoln Whipple was named after his father and the president of the U.S. I have been told by a descendant of Abe's that Isaac received his proclamation from the President, was impressed by him and so named his son Abraham. I don't know for sure. Also, and I think just as important, Abe was probably named after Isaac's father.

Isaac started a Family Bible. Isaac so stated that the Bible was to be given to the eldest child upon his death. When that child died, it was to go to the eldest living child at that time. Meaning, the last living child would inherit the Bible and it was theirs to do with as they wished.

This infuriated Abe. He thought since he was the eldest it should be his. Abe did inherit all of Isaac's Civil War memorabilia. This includes Isaac's rifle, a sword and the proclamation. Today all of these items (and I believe a few more) belong to Abe's great-grandson, Mike who lives in Atlanta, Ga. Abe, started his own Family Bible as a result of not inheriting the one Isaac started.

John Peter Whipple (4th eldest child) out-lived all of his brothers and sisters. He died July 16, 1955. He is my great grandfather. And I remember him very well even though I was 5 when he died. Grandpa John stated that the eldest Whipple of his descendants to carry on the family name (thus the eldest male with a last name of Whipple) was to receive the Family Bible. My dad was the one. Actually, after my great grandfather died, his eldest child, Marie had the Bible for many years and maintained and kept it up to date.

When she died, my dad at last received it.

Since your ISP is fulton-net.com, I presume you live in Fulton County.
If you do and have never noticed, look at the Oblisk in front of the County Courthouse building in Wauseon. On it is the names of the people who where from that area who served in the Civil War.
On it will be Isaac's name. Also, another Whipple by the name of Basil(?) is also recorded.

Noted events in her life were:

- Children: None.

31. Henry Adam Lautermilch [554]³ (*George Adam*², *Konrad John*¹) was born on 26 May 1866 in Tiffin, OH, died on 2 Jun 1946 in Tiffin, Seneca, Ohio at age 80, and was buried on 5 Jun 1946 in St. Joseph Mausoleum, Tiffin, OH.

General Notes: HENRY ADAM LAUTERMILCH (by Otto J. Lautermilch)

Henry Adam Lautermilch was born May 26, 1866 and passed away on June 2, 1946 at 479 Circular Street, Tiffin, Ohio. Henry was married to Mary Magdalena Hergenrather on April 25, 1893 in St. Joseph Church, Tiffin, Ohio by Rev. John Puetz. Mary, his wife, was born on November 16, 1865 to John Hergenrother (B. 1825, D. Feb. 13, 1884) and Mary Magdalena Mehrmann (B. 1829, D. 1907 in Tiffin, Ohio, M. St. Joseph Church on May 15, 1855). Mary M. Lautermilch was the fifth child born to John and Mary (The others were Joseph, John W., Elizabeth, Mary M., and Anna) All are buried in St. Joseph Cemetery in Tiffin, Ohio. For record purposes, the parent names of John Hergenrather, who was a Tailor, is not known. Both John H. and his wife, Mary M. Mehrmann, were born in Germany, but her parents, Phillip J. Mehrmann, born in Alsace Lorraine, 1798 and died July 16, 1876, both buried in St. Boniface Cemetery, New Riegel, Ohio. Her maiden name was Nussbaum.

Prior to his marriage, Henry A. and his half brother, Otto L., conducted and were partners in a marble monument business on N. Main Street, Upper Sandusky, Ohio. Both were accomplished marble cutters, and had previously worked for a short time in the marble quarries in Rome, Georgia. At this time, they both took up music, becoming members of the Upper Sandusky Cornet Band. Henry A. took up the French horn and the E flat Alto, Otto L. the saxophone. Henry A. had previously remarked that as a ten year old, he would carry in a cord of wood each Saturday morning for a music teacher named Spiess and for his labor would receive a violin lesson. He was a longtime member of the Second Regiment ONG Band and also Sixth Regiment Band for many years, also the renowned Tiffin Band and Elks Band, in all over 42 years. In the late 1800's the Tiffin Band entered band competitions in other cities, once in Chicago where 16 bands were competing. Finally it was between a Peoria, Ill. and the Tiffin Bands. The two bands were to pass the judges' stand once more and to play a final choice number. A hundred yards from the judges' stand, Prof. H. Roedegerts, the director, changed the number to a very recent and popular piece, "Casey Danced with a Strawberry Blond" and this was such a hit with the crowd and the judges, that the Tiffin Band won the first place.

The year that they were married, Henry A. was appointed a city letter carrier for the Post Office and was the first letter carrier in the city of Tiffin. The postmaster at that time was General William Harvey Gibson, a former Union Army General, having served in the War of the States. Henry was a faithful carrier for 42 years and six months according to the Department Records, retiring in 1938. His delivery route was both business and residential, making two complete full trip deliveries each day, six days per week. On Sunday he made mail collections at six various mail drop boxes in the business district. General Gibson's monument in recognition of his past years is located on the southwest corner of the Sececa County Court House lawn. On his retirement Henry Adam Lautermilch received a personal letter of commendation and recognition from the United States Postmaster General.

To this union were born five boys, all born at 483 Circular Street, the house that Henry and Mary Lautermilch started up housekeeping directly after their marriage in 1873. They were in order of their age, Louis O., Carl Urban, Paul Albert, Otto Joseph, and John Henry.

45. Carson Lautermilch [94]² (*Gustave Augustus (Gus)*³, *Wilhelm (William)*², *Konrad John*¹) was born on 9 Jun 1889 in Hillsdale Co., Mich., died on 5 Feb 1961 in Hillsdale Co., Mich. at age 71, and was buried in Floral Grove Cem. Pioneer, Ohio.

General Notes: CARSON LAUTERMILCH (Submitted by Helen Smethurst)

On June 9, 1889, Augustus and Ida (Beattie) Lautermilch welcomed into their home their second child, a son, christened Carson. At the time of his birth his parents lived on a farm in Amboy Township, Hillsdale Co., Mich. just two miles north and one mile west of the little village of Pioneer, Ohio, on what is now known as Territorial Road.

In October of 1891, the Lautermilch's became the parents of their third son, Glen; and in 1897 a fourth son, Carl. Shortly after the birth of Carl, Ida passed away. Carson was persuaded to do a great deal of the cooking and the housework, besides helping out a great deal with the chores most farm boys were expected to do. An elderly lady in the neighborhood said he was a very good cook and housekeeper.

During this time his brother, Glen, and he attended the one room eight grade school located near their home. The care of the younger son, Carl, was taken over in his infancy by his Aunt Catherine (Kate) Beattie, Ida's sister, who resided in Shelby, Ohio and then in Ashland, Ohio.

In November of 1913, Carson married Miss Elsie Russell, daughter of Fred and Mary (Fowler) Russell, of Frontier, Mich.

In the years following they became the parents of four children, Ida, Russell, Helen, and Ralph. Early in March of 1923 Carson and his family moved approximately one-half miles east of the family home, to a 140 acre farm previously owned by Betty Davis, while Glen and his family remained at the home place.

During the time his children were in school, he acted as director of the Amboy Center District Number Four School for a number of years.

In 1928 Carson helped with the grading and building of the Territorial Road running past his home. When the road was completed he accepted a position with the Hillsdale County Road Commission until 1936. Carson then worked a short time at the Body Works in Montpelier, Ohio. During those years of outside work he also farmed the farm where he lived, raising Duroc hogs and milking a sizeable herd of cattle.

In April of 1946, after the marriage of his youngest son, Ralph, Carson moved to a forty acre farm located one mile west and one mile north of his home.

On this acreage he had moved and relocated the old schoolhouse where he attended grade school and made it into their home. Here he resided and kept busy with farm work with the assistance of his son, Ralph, for the rest of his life.

On February 5, 1961 Carson passed away quietly in his sleep and was buried in the Floral Grove Cemetery, Pioneer, Ohio.

Elsie passed away in 1971. They left four children and twelve grandchildren.

Konrad John Lautermilche and His American Descendants

Born October 18, 1891 in Amboy Township, Hillsdale County, Michigan, he was the son of Gus and Ida (Beattie) Lautermilch. Glen spent his childhood attending school at Amboy Center district #4 and helping his father in his farming operations.

Subject: [KERR] The Name Kerr in Ulster
Date: Tue, 18 Apr 2000 19:44:58 +0100

These notes offer some views on the appearance of the surname Kerr in Ulster.

THE SURNAME KERR IN ULSTER

In Ulster, the name Kerr has been confused with the Irish Name Carr, and the names were often used synonymously in Coleraine and Lisburn districts, even to the beginnings of the 20th century. In Donegal, Kerr can be an anglicised form of MacIlhair or a shortening of Kerin, a variant of Kierin, Gaelic MacCiar in. In Monaghan, it is often like CARR, from the MacGiolla Gheara, a sept which descends from Mahon MacGiolla Cera, Lords of Cremorne in 1297. Apart from these, the majority of Kerrs in Ulster are of Scottish stock.

When the "riding clans" of the Scottish Borders were broken by King James VI's pacification of the Borders in the early 17th century, many of the members of those clans fled to the newly opened plantations of Ulster (where another form of pacification was in progress).

Many Kerrs of those "planted" settled in Ulster, being particularly well represented in Counties Antrim and Fermanagh by the middle 17th century. But unlike other clans, most of the Kerrs did not remain in Ulster, making their way back to the growing agricultural, weaving and latterly mining industries of South West Scotland. Nevertheless, Kerr is among the 50 most common surnames in Ulster, being found in every county. It is most concentrated in Co Antrim, where the name is among the 20 most numerous. It is also common in Co Down and Tyrone. In the mid 19th century the main Co Antrim concentration of Kerrs was in the Barony of Upper Dunluce, and in Co Down in the parish of Dromara.

There were at least three waves of emigration of Lowland Scots to Ulster; the first during the Protectorate when Protestants, many those uprooted for their adherence to the Covenant were settled in the Ulster plantations. The clearance of the riding clans carried out by King James VI and I dates between 1601 and 1609. Families escaped to Ulster (as well as the Americas and later Australasia) following the other clearances which were consequences of the 1715 and 1745 Stuart risings. Those clearances affected the Lowlands and Borders as well as their main target, the Highlands. Lastly, a wave of emigration to Ulster followed the American Revolution in 1776, which restricted the North American emigration route for some time.

Scots settler families moved on from Ulster to the other Irish Provinces and to North America, Australia etc. either because they were tempted by the prospects of prosperity or freedom from religious persecution. Some families, dissatisfied with their lot in Ulster returned to Scotland. These further movements were accelerated in the 1840s, when the Irish problems of the potato blight (which also affected Scottish crops at low altitudes) and the consequent Famine drove families out. Some were attracted to return or come to Ayrshire and Lanarkshire by the emerging iron mining industry, the supporting coal mining and the steelworks and shipyards that developed alongside the source of raw materiel.

Scots-Irish settler families moved on from Ulster to the other Irish Provinces and to North America, Australia etc. either because they were tempted by the prospects of prosperity or freedom from religious persecution. Some families, dissatisfied with their lot in Ulster, returned to Scotland. These further movements were accelerated in the 1840s, when the Irish problems of the potato blight (which also affected Scottish crops at low altitudes) and the consequent Famine drove families out. Some were attracted to return or come to Ayrshire and Lanarkshire by the emerging iron mining industry, the supporting coal mining and the steelworks and shipyards that developed alongside the source of raw materiel.

Since the sea passage between Ayrshire and Antrim is quite short and relatively sheltered there must have been regular voluntary movement of families between Ulster and south Western Scotland.

Yours aye,

Iain Kerr

Compiled: 1979 through 1995 My sincere thanks goes to all those who responded so willingly to my many letters of inquiry. And I am doubly thankful to the following for their extra help: LOUIS W. LAUTERMILCH for his investigating of the past generations. HARRIETT D. LAUTERMILCH, my Mother, for helping with the present generations. OTTO J. LAUTERMILCH and GRACE BONZA All my appreciation goes to MARY, SUE AND LAURA LAUTERMILCH for helping me put together and typing this register. Editors Note: The sources of these family records are from Birth Certificates, Death Certificates, Marriage Records, Census, Micro-film, and from Church Records in Kircharht, Germany, and from personal visits and letters. Some space is allowed for those names and dates missing so that each branch may complete their own tree. I would greatly appreciate receiving this missing information from any of you so that there might be a complete register in existence. Please send to: Mrs. Alice Marie Zoll 07929 Independence Road, R# 4 Defiance, OH 43512 My only desire is to prepare this register with as few errors as possible. At the same time there is likely a few will occur. Also the listing is far from complete. Families are living throughout the United States, more children have been born, others have married, and deaths have occurred with no recorded information available. My only regret is I did not start recording these records years ago when Dad and I first talked about them.
