J. A. Lewis

Joseph Allen Lewis.

From the Biog. Record of Tolland and Windham Counties, Ct.

Joseph A. Lewis (2314 VIII) than whom there was not a more respected old citizen of Willimantic, Windham co., was the pioneer in the gardening, nursery and fruit business in the town, where his residence of more than forty years was marked by an honorable and upright career, second to none of the business men of his time.

He attended the public school at Exeter, R. I., where he proved himself an apt pupil and made rapid progress. When he became a young man he taught school and was a fine instructor, being a thorough master of everything which he undertook to teach. In his early manhood he was employed in Moore's nursery at Providence, R. I., and acquired a good knowledge of the business in which he afterwards became distinguished.

In 1858 in company with his brother-in-law, Joseph R. Frye, he bought nine acres of land from Mar. in Harris on Jackson st. To this original purchase they added more land as their business demanded it. The tree and vegetable business was at once established, and soon grew to be one of the largest of its kind in the State. The handsome maple trees which now adorn Jackson st. in front of his home were set out by him and the Norway maples around the works of the Wilimantic Linen Co., were raised by him from the seed. Mr. Lewis at first made a specialty of forest and fruit seedlings, but later devoted his attention very largely to fruit and vegetables. In growing tomatoes alone, at one time he had as many as seventy acres under cultivation, growing and canning for the wholesale trade. Mr. Lewis built a large canning factory at the head of North st. in 1892, which he operated for several years. This plant was a very extensive one, and at times over 40,000 bushels of apples were canned in a single season, as well as the immense quantity of tomatoes, which were the best goods sold in New England, commanding always the highest price. The building was later destroyed by fire.

Mr. Lewis was characterized by much energy and push, and was a good business man, a fact his career establishes beyond question. His dealings were straightforward, and personally he was a most modest and unassuming man, never given to boasting. Universal respect attended him, and he found much help and encouragement in his hard struggle with the world in the excellent woman who became his wife. She is still living on the old homestead and is a remarkably well preserved lady.

L. L. L. and Lewis Day.

By Frank P. Lewis, Seattle, Wash.

All great and important events cost time and money; cost effort and sacrifice. Are you, reader, proud of your name and Lewis blood? Are you ready to demonstrate your interest, your loyalty, your superiority over others, and contribute your mite to make the Lewis idea a winner? If you are full of the Lewis spirit, you will apply for membership in the Legion; you will subscribe for several copies of Lewisiana and send to your city and school libraries; you will ask your local newspapers to extend notice of Lewis Day; you will donate a few dollars to the cause by remitting the same to Edward S. Lewis (915 Washington ave.) Chairman of Executive Committee, St. Louis, Mo.; you will send him a list of Lewis names and addresses.

Lewis Day Notes.

St. Louis, Sept. 23, 1904.

Members of the committee on ceremonies of the World's Fair have done everything possible to encourage the family reunion idea. They believe the gathering will bring out a large attendance, besides furnishing an exceedingly interesting and novel feature for the Exposition. Col. Culp, secretary of the committee, says hardly a mail fails to bring in one or more letters asking for information and details regarding the gathering. "The Lewis family," says Col. Culp, "has gone to considerable expense in circulating literature of the exposition. For this reason we have considered them entitled to a special day. The family will produce a notable gathering, which will be a credit to itself and to the Exposition."

Portland, Aug. 12, 1905.

Among those forming the Lewis and Clark Corporation is Ion Lewis, Director of Architecture at the Fair.

A. B. Lewis of Milford, Utah, is a member of Lewis and Clark Utah State Commission.

Round trip tickets good for ninety days from Chicago to Portland are promised for $50.

GENEALOGICAL RECORDS.

Explanations, Abbreviations, Etc.

For convenience the records of the various Lewis families are divided into Books and each Book into chapters. At the head of each Book appears the name of the earliest known ancestor of that family. The List of Books is a complete index to the Books as published to this time. New Books will be added from time to time as new branches of the Lewis family are found. As soon as Books are proved parts of others they will be merged into the Books to which they belong. Each name is numbered when first printed and whenever the name is repeated this number follows in brackets. The abbreviations commonly used in genealogical work are used: as b. for born; d. died; m. married; m. (1) first wife; dau. daughter; unm. not married; v. p. see page; etc.

Book II.

BENJAMIN LEWIS, Stratford, Conn.
Chapter CCIX.

From the Cazenovia, N. Y., Republican.

Franklin C. Lewis (25 v p 147 Vol. VI) died here Feby 13, 1904, at an advanced age of eighty years. Mr. Lewis was born in the town of Madison, Sept. 16, 1824. He was thrice married and at the time of his 3rd marriage took up his residence here and continued to live here until his death. Mrs. Lewis died about seven years ago and he continued to reside and help care for Mrs. Sturdevant, who is now in her 87th year. Mrs. Sturdevant feels her loss deeply as he was very kind and willing to do all that he was able to make life as pleasant as possible to one of her advanced age. Mr. Lewis was a great reader, he was also of a poetic mind (v p 84 Vol. VI) when we boys had our debating club we could always depend upon Mr. Lewis for something spicy and good. At the Centennial celebration held at Erieville he composed and read a poem which was printed in full in the Republican. He was always ready to help and thus he endeared himself to the people of this town. His many kind acts and words will be remembered by many and we only wish that in our lives we can emulate and exemplify the good that has been done by Mr. Lewis. By his former wife he leaves the following children, Edgar M. Lewis (642) of Syracuse, Mrs. Cora Smith (643) of Fresno, Cal., Clayton L. Lewis (644) of Brooklyn; a brother Seymour Lewis (27) of Madison; two sisters Mrs. A. B. Coe (24) Medford, Mass., and Mrs. Eliza Allen (23) of Bloomington, Ill.

 Mrs. Margaret L. Peissner (2751 v p 165 Vol. VII) Registrar of Union College, died at her home in Schenectady, N. Y., Feb. 28, 1904, of pneumonia, after a brief illness. She was a daughter of the late Tayler Lewis (2741) who was a professor of ancient Oriental languages at Union College and was the widow of Col. Elias Peissner who was killed in the battle of Chancellorsville and who was also a professor of languages at Union College at the breaking out of the Civil War. She never fully recovered from the loss of her two children, Tayler Lewis Peissner, who died eight years ago, and Barbara, the wife of Lieut. Ira N. Hollis, U. S. N., who died a few years previously. Mrs. Peissner is survived by a brother, Charles F. Lewis (2752) of the United States Postal Service, with whose family here she made her home. She had been Registrar of Union College for the last twenty years. She was a woman of brilliant intellectual attainments and inherited much of the literary ability of her father. Her home was the center of the culture and refinement of Schenectady.

GEORGE LEWIS, Hopkinton, R. I.
 Chapter LVIII.

From the Hastings, Mich. Banner.

William Lewis (93) was a man of indomitable courage and perseverance—never discouraged—always happy, and with a fund of humor, wit and story telling rarely excelled. He was just the one to lead in settling and establishing a new country. He planned largely and liberally and was able with his perseverance and strong health to carry out his plans, and by his personal magnetism encouraged others to work and persevere also. He was the first to contract for carrying the U. S. Mails through that portion of the country. In the first contract he was assisted by General Withey, of Grand Rapids. This route was from Battle Creek to Grand Rapids. Later a contract was taken to carry the mail from Kalamazoo to Grand Rapids. Lines of stages were put on, and several coaches a day were started from these points all meeting at Yankee Springs "the half way house," for refreshment of passengers and change of horses. For many years this was the only route through the woods from Battle Creek and Kalamazoo to Grand Rapids, and until other roads were opened up, it made very lively times at the old house. The Yankee Springs post-office for a long time supplied the adjacent country.

From the Evening Journal of St. Thomas, Ontario, Canada.

Shortly after eight o'clock last evening (March 7th) Mrs. Wilson (1822 v p 86 Vol. XIII) was summoned to the telephone to speak to her old friend Lady Laurier at Ottawa, and through this conversation she learned that Dr. Wilson had been appointed to the Senate. It was particularly pleasing that the first news should come from the wife of the Prime Minister of Canada to one of her dearest friends. Dr.

Wilson was b in Argenteuil, Quebec, Feb. 14, 1833. His father, the late Jeremiah Wilson, was a native of Vermont. His grandfather was a United Empire Loyalist and a veteran of the American Revolutionary War. In 1835, when the doctor was a toddler of two years of age, the family removed to the township of Westminster, County of Middlesex. The homestead is on the London and Port Stanley road and in one of the richest farming districts in the Province.

Chapter CCCLXX.

From American Pottery in Good Housekeeping.

The Rookwood pottery of Cincinnati, one of the pioneers, was founded in 1880 by Mrs. Maria Longworth Storer and is now under the direction of Mr. W. W. Taylor (of Lewis kin v p 6 Vol. XI Ed.). Since its beginning it has made very marked progress and improvement in the glazes, colors and decorations. The colors at first were inclined to yellows, browns and reds, with plain ed decoration under a bright transparent glaze. From time to time other colors and glazes were discovered, so that today the colors range from very pale green and blue, to deeper tones and even black. Modeled decorations under a dull neat glaze is a recent addition. The peculiar quality of Rookwood is its liquid effect of glaze and color decorations.

Chapter CCCXIII.

Joseph Smith, Mormon Leader

The National Cyclo. of Biography states that Joseph Smith (v Emma 1867 p 88 Vol. XIII) has been conceded one of the most remarkable figures of the 19th century. Starting in life without education or worldly advantage, he became a recognized leader of thousands of enthusiastic converts, who passionately shared his conviction that he was a veritable prophet of God. Of magnificent physique and commanding presence, he was eminently fitted for this role, and, on the whole, it must be confessed, maintained it with dignity. For strength and perfection the hierarchy founded upon his teachings is confessed as at least equal to that of Catholicism.

In Five Colonial Families it is stated that his three sons (v p 89 Vol. XIII their gr mother was Elizabeth Lewis 714 of Litchfield, Ct. v p 183 Vol. XI. Ed.) are all Reverends, opposed to polygamy, founders, members and leaders of the Re-organized Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints, residents of Lamoni, Iowa.

Washington, March 7.—Joseph F. Smith, president of the Mormon Church, was again on the stand today before the Senate Committee on Privileges and Elections.

A telegram was received by Chairman Burrows denying that Joseph Smith was the originator of the doctrine of polygamy.

"Joseph Smith never had but one wife," continued the telegram. "Ask Smith to show any children from any alleged plural wives of the first Joseph Smith"

The N. Y. Sun in a long article on the Mormon Church states:—

"Each of the presidents of the Mormon Church has been a man of marked individuality. President Smith is no exception.

"His uncle, Joseph Smith, prophet and founder of the faith, as a boy of 18 was able to impress men of two and three times his age and to win them over to the belief that he was inspired by God to carry a message to the people of the earth in modern times. A man of vivid imagination, strong emotions, great personal magnetism, original ideas and practices, he was able to gather about him a band of staunch followers and to map out the powerful religious organization which has ever since been in conflict with the great majority of the American people.

“Joseph Smith was to a large extent an idealist. His successor, Brigham Young, was eminently practical. Both were natives of Vermont and were of strong old New England stock.”

From the Sharpless Family.

We have one ancient Bible, however, which belonged to the Joseph Sharpless branch. It descended to Joseph W. Jones, of Middletown, through his gt. gr. mother Hannah, dau. of Joseph Sharpless, 2nd, and wife of Abraham Pennell.

Its family record is highly interesting. It contains the date and place of birth of each one of the ch. of John and Jane Sharpless, as well as of the ch. of their son Joseph, and other entries. The Bible bears the imprint, London, 1697, and the inscription "Lydia Lewis, (3 v p 93 Vol. VI) her Book, 1703," shows it to have been her property before her marriage, in 1704, to Joseph Sharpless.

By Geo Harlan Lewis, N. Y. City.

This Haines (v last issue) record is from one of the family who has been seeking the truth about Mary Lewis (18) for a long time. There is nothing to lead any one to the conclusion (p 125 Vol. XIV) except the names of George Lewis, John and Eleanor being among the children. John (2) was probably killed by the Indians and his wife and family also. He was serving under Capt. Scottow in Oct. 1677 (Boge's Indian Wars p 339), and no mention is made of him after. The 13th 7 m 1679, Azor Gale claims the land of John and Elinor Lewis. his wife. This land was sold to Nathaniel Wallis, Sr., Mar. 20, 1674, and by him conveyed to Edmund Gale, Feb. 10, 1678. If John Lewis had been alive in 1679 it would not have been necessary for Gale to go to court to get the land he had bought. George (1) d 1682 or before 1683 when his ch. sold his land to Richard Seacomb. It is supposed that Mary (18) was about 1686, which is several years after John's (2) death.
