Patriotism in Washington.

From the Historical Bulletin.

Monday, June 15 was celebrated as the anniversary of the birth of the American Flag. . . Mrs Morgan G. (Flora A.) Lewis, President General of the National Auxiliary of the Spanish War Veterans, sang the "Star Spangled Banner" in her beautiful far-reaching voice, and those who did not know the words after the first verse read them from the June Bulletin and joined in the chorus. A touching incident showing the good feeling of two sister organizations, was the presentation to Mrs. Lewis at the close of her song of a bouquet by Mrs. Main with the compliments of the D. A. R. and another floral tribute with the compliments of the U. S. Daughters of 1812.

The one hundred and twenty-eighth anniversary of the battle of Bunker Hill was celebrated in Washington by a noteworthy visit of the Minute Men to the Spanish War Veterans—Lieut. Col. E. R. Campbell who opened by remarking that the Minute Men were in hearty accord with the spirit of the young veterans and their lady auxiliaries and . . . then introduced Captain M. M. Lewis who read Oliver Wendell Holmes' poem "Grandmother's Story of Bunker Hill Battle."

L. L. L. And Lewis Day Notes.

The great Lewis roster is growing. Hundreds of directories have been examined and all the Lewis addresses copied and forwarded to the chairman of the Executive Committee, Edward S. Lewis, 915 Washington ave., St. Louis, Mo. Does the directory of your city contain Lewis addresses?

Most of Lewisiana subscribers express great interest in Lewis Day and many state they intend to be present on September 23d, 1904.

The South Carolina Lewis Society is organized, William Wallace Lewis, Yorkville, chairman. The promoters are John Baylis Lewis, Anderson, Dr. J. O. Lewis, Greenville and Robert A. Lewis, Belton. They hope to enroll every Lewis in the State.

The Official Register of U. S. (1901) indexes 610 Lewises in government employ.

Why not have the Lewis Rolls properly arranged and published as a Book for future reference.

It is hoped arrangements will be made to have every Lewis present at St. Louis register name and address. This list should be printed. (The Editor would suggest that this list and perhaps the Roster be included in a souvenir edition of Lewisiana for Lewis Day to be sent to every subscriber and to all others making a small deposit with their registration.)

May we have a glorious day and one ever a notable one in Lewis annals!

American Genealogical Association.

This association is being formed at Washington, D. C., and a Committee on Constitution is busy drafting that document. A member of this committee is Dr. J. G. Bulloch who is a Lewis and a sketch of whom has been sent Lewisiana.

Joseph Gaston Baillie Bulloch, M. D., is the gt. gt. gr. son of Hon. Archibald Bulloch, President and Commander-in-chief of Georgia 1776-77, and gr. son of John Lewis, an eminent merchant of Savannah, who occupied various positions in the church and was in many ways a well known man, a descendant of Samuel Lewis of Ga.

and Va.

Dr. Bulloch as a physician and surgeon has seen a good deal of experience, performed many operations of importance and for years has been in government service occupying the following positions:—Sanitary Inspector and A. A. Surgeon, Marine Hospital Service with a good record and Physician in Indian Service with record of "excellent." Time after time, he has been appointed to take charge of physicians' Conferences at the Indian Institutes and President of the Indian Medical Association. He has been a member of and deputed to write articles for the State Medical Societies of Fla. and Ariz. and is rec. sec'y and librarian of the Ga. Med. Soc.

A writer on medical and sanitary articles, author of several stories, Dr. Bulloch has written on the following subjects:—Negro Question, Indian Question, Are We Anglo-Saxons, a Proposed Form of Government for Cuba, do. for the Philippines, the Bulloch Family and Connections, History of Stewart Elliott and Dunurdy, Bailie of Dunain, and History and Genealogy of the Habersham and other Southern Families.

GENEALOGICAL RECORDS.

Explanations, Abbreviations, Etc.

For convenience the records of the various Lewis families are divided into Books and each Book into chapters. At the head of each Book appears the name of the earliest known ancestor of that family. The List of Books is a complete index to the Books as published to this time. New Books will be added from time to time as new branches of the Lewis family are found. As soon as Books are proved parts of others they will be merged into the Books to which they belong. Each name is numbered when first printed and whenever the name is repeated this number follows in brackets. The abbreviations commonly used in genealogical work are used. as b. for born; d. died; m. married; m. (1) first wife;

Here and There in the Family.

Fred E. Lewis (64 v p 180, Vol. XIII) is the junior partner of the prominent grain and feed firm of Fravel & Lewis at Kinsley, Kansas.

Frank P. Lewis (39) Supreme Chancellor of the Loyal Lewis Legion has personally secured recently seven new charter members. L. L. L. is growing—the good healthy growth of youth—has paid promptly all its debts and has money in its treasury. A meeting of some of its members was held last year at Watch Hill, R. I. and a second meeting was held early in August at Seattle, Wash. Its first regular meeting will be held on the evening of Lewis Day, Sept. 23, 1904, at St. Louis, Mo., after which time admission can be had only through the different degrees in regular order. The Supreme Castle hope to have 100 Charter members before that meeting.

(The following document almost identical in wording and form with that adopted at Hopkinton (across the river from Westerly) the next day (v p 34 Vol. I) is of interest to all Lewises and especially to all descendants of the Lewises who signed it. Ed.)

At a Town Meeting held in Westerly, September 18th, A. D., 1776.

We the subscribers do Solemnly and Sincerely declare that we believe the war Resistance and opposition in which the United American Colonies are Now engaged Against the Fleets and Armies of Great Britain, is on the part of the Colonies just & Necessary. And that we will not directly nor indirectly Afford Assistance of any sort or kind whatever to the Fleets and Armies during the Continuance of the present war but that we will heartily resist in the defense of the United Colonies.

Chapter CCCXVI.

From New Haven, Ct. Courier.

A very pretty home wedding this week was that of Caroline Elizabeth, dau. of the late William Henry and Ellen (Nolan) Merrow, and Robert Hart Lewis (794 v p 87 Vol. XII) the bookseller and newsdealer, son of John G. Lewis (438 v p 66 Vol. IX) principal of the Webster School, and a graduate of Yale in the class of '87, on Thursday, July 30, 1903, at the home of the bride's mother, by the Rev. T. E. Davies.

The wedding was a very quiet one, the ceremony being performed in the presence of only the members of the two families concerned.

The bridesmaid was Miss Annie Bassett and the groomsman Harry B. Lewis (798) of the class of '93 Sheff. The flower girl was Frances, a niece of the bride.

The groom is widely and most favorably known in the city, especially among the book trade of the city and is secretary and treasurer of the Pease-Lewis Company (v p 120 Vol. XII).

The bride is a cultivated and refined young lady of very attractive presence and having a large circle of friends.

Chapter CCCXXXIX.

From The Pen Prophet.

Mr. Clancey M. Lewis (1211 v p 151 Vol. IX) of the Christian College in China writes the following concerning his personal experiences as a Dip-no-more:

I beg to acknowledge the receipt of your letter of April 9th and also "The Pen Prophet." I shall be glad to see in the next issue how you used the matter that we furnished you.

It is certainly a pleasure to count oneself a member of the American Society of Dip-no-mores. And every member should be entitled to write his name with "A. S. D.," for he has certainly reached a degree of proficiency in his work which others have not. I hope that you will find more who have taken the Ninth Degree. The longer I am a member the more advisable I find it to take the higher degrees. At present I feel that I must have three pens in order to do my best work. At my desk there are always two—a red barrel filled with red ink for ruling and making balances and a black barrel filled with black ink for the general book work. The third pen I carry with me. Nothing but a "Waterman's Ideal Fountain Pen" should ever be used in bookkeeping, because:

1. They are always ready. It would be interesting to know how much time is consumed by the old way in changing pens and filling ink bottles.

2. They are clean. Never too much or too little ink. No blots. No inky fingers.

3. They are rapid. No time lost in dipping. The continuity of one's work is preserved.

4. They are neat. This is a very important point. A certain set of books were handed over to an auditing committee in Canton not long ago, and in making their report they overstepped themselves by adding that they were the neatest set of books that they had examined in that city. Every bit of the work had been done with a "Waterman's Ideal Fountain Pen." The pen produces uniformly shaded letters, and this adds greatly to the neatness of the books.

5. They are like a Smith & Wesson. "No other so perfectly meets the emergency, requiring absolute accuracy, safety and reliability." "It never fails at close quarters." Yours respectfully, Clancey M. Lewis.

By Edwin C. Lewis, Boston, Mass.

My grand uncle Theodore Lewis (1271 v p 7 Vol. X) was a distinguished physician and surgeon and migrated back to Stratford, Conn., (our family intermarried with the Lombards for a while at Barnstable, Mass., then with the Cooks at Stratford, Conn., and then went to Wells., Vt.) where he lived and died and where I presume his descendants are. My father, Edwin Fayette Lewis (1339 v p 39 Vol. X) had 5 sons.

Chapter CCCXLI.

Death of the Oldest Lewis.

From the Cleveland Leader.

CINCINNATI, O., July 10.—Having lived through the entire nineteenth century and part of the eighteenth and twentieth, Mrs. Amelia Thomson (v p 183 Vol. X) probably the oldest woman in the West, died July 9th at the residence of her daughter, Mrs. R. M. W. Taylor, on Highland avenue, Walnut Hills, at the age of 104 years.

Mrs. Thomson was born in Nashville, Tenn., on Oct. 16, 1799. Her maiden name was Lewis, and her mother was a member of the famous Harriman family of Tennessee. The city of Harriman in that state is named after the noted pioneers. She remembered well the account in the newspapers of the battle of Waterloo and told in after years of the great impression the downfall of Napoleon made, even in this country. She had six children, three of whom are now living; twelve grandchildren living; twelve great grandchildren living. The oldest great grandchild is aged thirty years.

She was in full possession of her faculties up to a very short time before her death, which was entirely painless—a simple falling to sleep from extreme old age.

Chapter CCCXLII.

By Harry W. Lewis, Erie, Penn.

Edgar Allen (1855 v p 120 Vol. XIII) has removed from Easton, Pa., to Wacogdorhes, Texas.

James Blaine (1868 v p 134 Vol. XIII) who was graduated in June at Oberlin where he ranked high in all his studies, especially mathematics, took the civil service examination and secured an excellent appointment. He is in the Enumeration Dept. U. S. Coast and Geodetic Survey at Washington, D. C., and expects soon to be sent as a Staff Aid on board the U. S. Coast Survey Steamer on a trip along the coast of Maine.

Corrections:—p 169 Vol. XIII line 47 read Gongar for Gongar and 1 23 col. 2 read Shuman for Sherman.

The writer leaves Erie on the evening of July 31st for Seattle by way of Chicago, stopping for a day or two at Pasco, mouth of the Snake river, to visit relatives at Walla-Walla. He will visit Vancouver Island, Portland, Oregon, and the mouth of the Columbia river and see the places Meriwether Lewis visited a 100 years ago. From a small boy he has been enthusiastic over the name Lewis and the deeds of Lewises and since reading Lewisiana has become even more so. He will spend a week at San Francisco at the G. A. R. encampment. Then he will visit Los Angeles and San Diego and crossing the Mexican line visit the Gulf of California. On his return he will stop at Sacramento, Salt Lake City, Denver and Omaha. Everywhere relatives and comrade-in-arms await him. Thus he will take his annual vacation.

Lewis not an Adopted Name.

During my service in the regular Army and during my 20 years connection with the Post-Office, besides my travels over 22 States and Canada, I have met and interviewed many hundreds of Lewises. All claimed Welsh or English descent--nine-tenths Welsh.

I feel sure it will prove the same on my coming trip to the Pacific. Lewisiana in its list of earliest ancestors gives two from Ireland but claiming French descent and one from Holland. These may have been of English descent. For Lewises took a prominent part (some were colonels and generals) in all the wars of England and when reverses came became exiles in France and Holland. The myth of Pierre Lewis (v p 162 Vol. VI.) has probably that much of historical fact in it.

If it were true as Rev. A. M. Lewis (I wonder if this could have been my brother 1655 v p 56 Vol. XIII) claims v p 178 Vol. XIII that so many have adopted the Lewis name what a vast number of galvanized Lewises there would be in America, even to the crowding out of the Welsh of the name Lewis. From intermarriage we all have in our veins the blood of Germans, French, Scotch, Irish, English as well as other nationalities. That is what helps to improve a race and make Americans the people they are. And we Lewises think no other (v p 124 Vol. IV) family is quite equal to ours. Lewis Day should prove it.

JOHN LEWIS, New London, Conn.

Chapter LXXV.

From Sons of Revolution in Cal. (1902).

Capt. Ira Beebe, the gt. gt. gr. father of Hon. Holdridge Ozro Collins, president of the Society since 1893, a lawyer of Los Angeles, was descended from the earliest settlers of New London, Conn. He was b at Lyme, July 20, 1735, the oldest ch. of Jonathan Beebe and Hannah Lewis (373) his wife, dau. of William Lewis (372 v p 23 Vol. XII) and Elizabeth Borden. In 1745 the family moved to Waterbury, where the permanent home was established and where Ira grew to manhood.

During the French and Indian War in February 1757, his father, Jonathan, was commissioned 2d Lieut.* in the 13th Co., 20th Regt. of Conn. Colony, and in Dec. 1758 he was promoted to be 1st Lieut. Capt. Amos Hitchcock's Co. 2d, Conn. Regt., which formed a portion of the army organized to invade Canada via Crown Point. In the campaign of 1759 he distinguished himself in the fighting around Lake George and attracted the attention of his commanding officer, Col. James Montrossor, who mentions him several times in his journal.

Ira Beebe was 1st Lieut. of Capt. John Lewis's Co., Lt. Col. Jonathan Baldwin's 10th Conn. Regt. and commanded his Company on the Hudson to guard the Highlands and prevent communication between New York and General Burgoyne. He was promoted to be Capt. in 27th Regt. Conn. Militia. He m Waterbury, Ct., Aug. — 1758, Jemima, dau. of Gideon and Sarah (Upson) Hickox. Both are interred in the family lot at Naugatuck, Ct., where their monument bears the following legend:—

Ira Beebe, d Dec. 29, 1792, ae. 59. Jemima, his wife, d Apr. 9, 1813, ae. 77.

GEORGE LEWIS, England to Mass.

Chapter CCLXVI.

By Arthur R. Lewis, Marshall, Mich.

Died, midnight Thursday, May 7, 1903, of heart disease at his residence 117 Fairmount Ave., Jamestown, N. Y., Dr. Alvin Button Rice, president of the Lewis Association of Chautauqua county, N. Y. Doctor Rice was of the line of Enos, (1649, v p 183, Vol. XI) being the oldest of the three ch of Stephen Rice and Louisa Lewis, (16, LXXIX, v p 172, Vol. IX which should read Louisa m Stephen Rice, while 15 should read Dema m Elijah Bennett.) Louisa (Lewis) Rice is still living and is the oldest known descendant of Nathaniel (709) being 86 yrs. of age. An obituary of Dr. Rice in the Jamestown, (N. Y.) Evening Journal, of May 8th, 1903, says in part:

"Dr. Alvin B. Rice was born near Panama, Oct. 22, 1842. After gaining such education as the public schools afforded he went to Amherst College from which he was graduated. He studied medicine with Dr. H. H. Glidden at Panama, later taking a course at Ann Arbor, Mich., and afterwards entering Bellvue Hospital Medical College in New York, from which he was graduated. After attaining his degree he returned to Panama where he for a time practiced in the allopathic school of medicine, eventually taking studies in homeopathy in New York and afterwards remaining in the latter school. He came to Jamestown 14 years ago and has since resided and practiced here, winning wide and honorable fame for his skill in and devotion to his profession. As a mark of merited distinction he was elected, not long ago, vice-president of the New York State Homeopathic Medical Society. He was an earnest and active member of the First Baptist Church; corresponding secretary of the Chautauqua County Baptist Association. In politics a Prohibitionist, on several occasions the nominee of his party for public office. An ardent Free Mason, member of Mt. Moriah lodge, Western Sun chapter and Jamestown commandry; at the time of his death Eminent Commander. He m Helen M. Davis, Feb. 23, 1868, to whom three children were born—Lottie, wife of Chas. E. Treat, of this city, and Vincent and Charles, both deceased. Besides the wife and daughter he leaves his mother, Mrs Stephen Rice, and one sister, Eunice, wife of Ezekiel Bart, of Frewsburg, with whom the aged mother makes her home."

Dr. Rice was interred Monday, May 11, at Jamestown, Rev. Jno. T. Kerrin, of St. Luke's Episcopal Church, and Rev. Dr. W. J. Ford, of the First Baptist Church, conducting services at the church and the Masonic Fraternity the interment. One hundred and fifty Masons and twenty physicians were present in a body.

Chapter CCLXVII.

Lewisiana has received a copy of a large 4 paged pamphlet entitled A Guide for the Purchasers of United States Lands and Pension Agents whose editor Gleason F. Lewis (1944 v p 171 Vol. XIII) of Cleveland, O., is also editor of Zion's Day Star.

From this pamphlet the following extracts are taken:—

There are over a million unlocated Land Warrants. Most of them are in the hands of heirs who know not how to perfect them.

There is a considerable amount of college scrip that was located in excess of the million acre limit locations cancelled. We buy this class of warrants and scrip.

When I look back seventy years it seems to me there was nothing done in America then. No railroads were built except a few miles here and there. Gas was almost unknown. There was no telegraph nor telephone. A letter cost twenty-five cents if it went beyond the bounds of your State. It took me ten days when I was twenty-three years old to go from New York to Cincinnati. I used to hear men discuss the question with a living interest whether they should ever live to see fresh oysters brought from Baltimore to Cincinnati in the shell. Almost every one of the great questions in science has been developed since that time, and by and by there will be men developed who will be able to follow science and understand even evolution.

Zacheus Greeley, Horace's father, was a ne'er-do-well. Horace's ability came from the mother Mary, who was of Scotch-Irish origin, from Londonderry. Zack left Vermont between two days to avoid arrest for debt, came to Wayne township, Erie co., Pa., then a wilderness, in 1826, settled on the state line road about three miles from Clymer, N. Y. His cabin was about half a mile west of the old shell recently burned. It has long since gone to pieces. The father (Amos (1654) v p 171 Vol. XIII) of the editor of this paper settled in a cabin about half a mile still further west in 1828; Barnes Greeley, Horace's only brother, was our playmate and lifelong friend. He passed to the spirit world some five years since. He left several children, one of whom is Burt, who occupied the burned shell. One of Barnes' daughters, Esther, married Peter Lewis, lives near the old home. Her brother Horace lives near her. Their post-office is Corry, Erie co., Pa.

Note by the Editor.

Mr. Doane gives no proof that Solomon (2000) is of this line beyond the fact that he res. at Eastham, Mass., Lewisiana has many fragmentary records of Eastham Lewises of which the following are of interest here.

Archelaus Lewis (2003) m July 2, 1735, Mary Taylor. 2 ch. b. Eastham. 2000. I. Solomon, b Dec. 20, 1737, m Dec. 24, 1763, etc. as above.

2001. II. John, b Mar. 13, 1742-3, m Oct. 15, 1767, Mary Baley.

As Archelaus is an unusual name in the Lewis family having occurred so far only in Book XCII where the first of the name was b Feb. 15, 1753, the following fragment would seem to carry the line back one more generation.

John Lewis (2006) who d January 24, 1711-12 had 3 ch. b.
