

THE 1931
RED AND WHITE

John Vander Zee leaves his honors won in track to Gilbert Ellis.
Here's another generous person. Doris Robbins leaves her slimness and a foot of her height to Nevada Hagist.
Edna Roessler wills her love of physics experiments to Evelyn Vitosh.
Lester Parizek leaves his business ability to Ansel Chapman.
Marcia Hodges leaves her old fashioned ways to Ila Dunshee.
Lester Gayfeller wills his curling iron to Howard James.
Edith Hughes and Evelyn Stutsman will leave to two junior girls their places in the cafeteria with the restriction that they do not go above their proper weight.
Ethel Fry is leaving John Deaton, since she cannot take him with her.
Nathaniel Mutchler bequeaths his athletic nature to Tom Monroe.
Alberta Coon wills her "after school job" at Woolworths to Gladys Arn.
Lowell Kriel gives his clarinet to Harold Riecke.
Virgil Schnoebelen, the future John Barrymore, is leaving his school books to any junior who can keep from studying as much as he did.
Vivian Wagner leaves her constant grin to Charlotte Balkema, Doris Emdia, and Edith Herring.
James Anderlik wills his ability to manage scenery and other stage apparatus to John Perdue.
Rose Cohn wills her perfect copies of typewriting to some poor junior who may get behind in her work.
Richard Stramp's ability to make posters goes to Clarence Kemp.
Sidwell Smith has at last decided to bestow the high school upon Howard Bogs.
Ardis Sanger wills her place in Clef Club to Virginia Eichler.
Rodney Stewart leaves his dramatic ability to Joe Harding.
Lois Williams unwillingly leaves her long blonde hair to Ella Mulherin.
Roger Claney bestows his mature look upon Leo Cerny.
Evelyn Mapes leaves her love of sports to Adelaide Means.
Lois Vanhorn wills her numerous shieks to all the freshman girls to quarrel over.
Edith Virginia West wills her sophisticated manner to Beth Fuiks.
Janet Seger's violin goes to Harriet Fink.
Charles Cohn leaves his position at the Englert to any underclassman who wants it.
Dorothy Blecha's vacant place in Room 14 she wishes filled by Virginia Lewis.
Jerome Chapman's "A La Nature" curls and his intense beauty go to Newton Weller.
Paul Jacobs bequeaths his mannish manner to James Sherman.
Howard McCleery bestows his brilliancy upon Neal Miller.
Lester Sanger leaves his robustness to Eldred Vestermark.
Walter Houser gives his Roman profile to Tom Monroe.
Lawrence Smith leaves his interest in band and orchestra with Mr. Thomas, to be apportioned out to those who need it.
Herbert Shulman wills his debating skill to Abe Kimmel.
Margaret Patterson gives three freckles to Beatrice Stine.
Viola Fleming donates her lipstick to Iowa Scharf.

Paul Spence gives his salt and pepper suit and his black and white shoes to Robert Roose.

Herdis Christensen leaves her clogging ability to Lucille Teefy.

Elizabeth Gatton bestows her dark tresses upon Ruth Todd.

Wilbur Tallman wills his modest quiet ways to Donald Rogers.

Catherine Carrigg wills her knowledge of economic principles to Ruth Morden.

Wesley Walter leaves his love of basketball to Lowell Halbfass.

David Danovitz gives his freckles and the shade of his hair to Alfred Diehl.

Esther Idema and Belle Markovitz bestow their ability to make G. A. A. points upon Betty Amish and Margaret Dane.

Beryl Weekes bequeaths her love of Latin to Violet Jameson.

Alice Krofta leaves her quiet ways to Virginia Mapes.

Gertrude Miller leaves her numerous boy friends to Virginia Schroder.

Richard Sidwell wills his enormous size to Allen Dunton.

Mildred Hradek leaves her quiet manner and listening ability to Rosalie Green.

Catherine Machovec leaves her typing skill to Hymie Dicker.

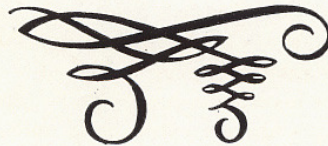

Margaret Mapes gives her quiet unassuming manner to Inez Miller.

Woodrow Fousek wills his glasses to Walter Rouse. Woodrow figures he studied so much in high school that he won't need them in the university.

We, now authorize and appoint as executors of this will, Miss Florence Churchill and Mr. Charles Trachsel, knowing that they can fulfill the task set before them.

Therefore, we do highly resolve that our last wishes shall not have been spoken in vain and that this Class of 1931 shall not perish from the memory of the school. Witness these, our signatures.

IN MEMORIAM

RALPH HAGENBUCH '32

MAURICE GOODY '32

ONVIE TERRY '33

There is no death! The stars go down
To rise upon some fairer shore;
And bright in heaven's jeweled crown
They shine forevermore.

There is no death! The dust we tread
Shall change beneath the summer showers,
To golden grain or mellow fruit
Or rainbow-tinted flowers.

There is no death! The leaves may fall,
The flowers may fade and pass away,
They only wait through wintry hours
The coming of the May.

He leaves our hearts all desolate
He plucks our fairest, sweetest flowers;
Transplanted into bliss, they now
Adorn immortal bowers.

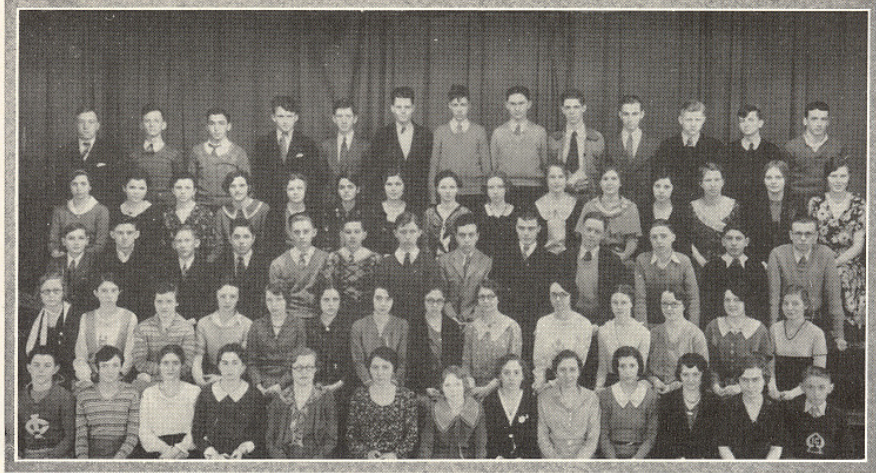

And ever near us, though unseen,
The dear, immortal spirits tread;
For all the boundless universe
Is LIFE—there are no dead.

Ersland, Swisher, Mahr, Batie, E. Mapes, Green, Peters, Holden, Davis, Webster, Sedlacek, Smith, Munroe

Places on the honor roll are much coveted by every student in the high school. Only students who have an average of "G" or better in all their studies for the entire semester are eligible for the honor roll.

Seniors who deserve special mention for receiving all "E" averages for the semester are Don Paden, Harriett Batie, Marjorie Bryan, Wilma Laughlin, Margaret Mapes, and Beryl Weekes. Betty Kuhl is the only junior who attained this honor.

Those who received averages of all "E's" but one are Cleldon Ruppert, Dorothy Ewers, and Lucile Smith for the seniors. Arlene Finch and Iowa Scharf represent the juniors in this classification.

FRESHMAN-SOPHOMORE HONOR ROLL

Cutler, Trowbridge, Williams, Soucek, Hurd, Mahan, Chapman, Van Doren, Howell, Christensen, Simpson, McCleery, Neuzil, King, Sybil, Schlanbusch, Johnston, Sievers, Knight, Mapes, Slavata, Scannell, Fitzgerald, Kelly, Braverman, Stronks, Lampe, Fairchild, Smith, Lauer, Bocek, Grissell, E. Wagner, Burr, Hotka, Headington, Wolfe, Stuck, Beckman, Korab, Tomlin, Shea, Neuman, Browning, Floyd, Kelso, Fox, Powers, Eichler, Rankin, Deal, Tanswell, Elliot, Gill, Sulek, R. Wagner

The sophomores are represented this year by Lambert Trowbridge and Eleanor Lauer, the only two students of the class finishing with all "E's". Marian Lawson received all "E's" but one.

Of the freshmen boys there are none, but the girls are to be commended on their splendid record. Marjorie Beckman, Vlasta Bocek, Betty Braverman, Vergene Headington, Emma Jones, Gertrude Shea, Cleone Sheldon, and Edith Tomlin received all "E's". Evelyn Powers, Doris Stuck, and Frances Wagner had all "E's" but one.

IOWA CITY 6—GRANT HIGH 19

Taking on the Grant High Panthers in the first game of the season proved a trifle disastrous for the Red and White eleven, and they dropped the contest on the short end of a 19-6 count. "Duke" Crawford scored Iowa City's six points on the opening kickoff, touching the ball back of the goal after Vestermark's kickoff. Coach Wells had a comparatively new backfield, which was unable to penetrate the Panther defense.

IOWA CITY 54—VINTON 0

No one doubted the fact that Iowa City had a promising team after witnessing this game. The Hawklets waded through the Vinton line as if it were water, passing and plunging for marker after marker. Larry Burr made three of the touchdowns.

IOWA CITY 7—FAIRFIELD 15

Underneath a blistering sun which took the pep out of twenty-two men participating in this game, Iowa City went down to defeat at the hands of the Orange and Black. The consistent punting of Crayne, Fairfield back, put the Hawklets on defense for most of the game. Mervin Minish, regular tackle, suffered a fractured vertebrae in this game, thus prohibiting his playing for the rest of the season.

IOWA CITY 0—CLINTON 7

Playing at night under the lights for the first time, the Hawklets went down to defeat at the hands of the Clintonians. The winning touchdown was much disputed since the pass, by which the marker was made, seemed to have bounced off the ground into the receiver's arms. The referee's decision held good, however, and Iowa City met defeat. Iowa City played a wonderful game of football, and missed several chances to score by small margins.

IOWA CITY 18—COLUMBUS JUNCTION 0

The Red and White machine began its winning streak by heading off Columbus Junction 18-0. Both teams proved stubborn on defense, but the polished Hawklets took the game by virtue of a smooth and powerful attack, led by Captain "Bud" Wright.

IOWA CITY 6—GRINNELL 0

Captain "Bud" Wright, along with "Pinky" Vestermark, led his team to victory with his plunging and passing. Two successive passes from "Bud" placed the ball on the one yard line, where two attempts by him drove it across. "Bud" was hurt on his first attempt at the marker, but his fighting blood and his Hawklet spirit kept him going till he put the ball over.

IOWA CITY 6—WASHINGTON HIGH (C. R.) 0

The Little Hawks showed their best form of the season by turning back the Washington High Tigers, 6-0. The Hawklets played fast and clean, driving the Tigers continually to cover. Captain Wright made the winning score. "Pink" Vestermark came within two yards of another touchdown, but was interrupted by the gun ending the half. Every Hawklet played his best game of the season, and turned back every Tiger advance. "Rollie" Williams, head coach of basketball at Iowa, who refereed the game, said it was the best high school game he had ever seen.

IOWA CITY 0—DAVENPORT 37

The score of this game looks rather decisive, but it really gives a wrong impression. The score at the half was 6-0, in favor of Davenport and at the third quarter was 12-0. After Captain Wright had been removed from the game because of a leg injury, Coach Wells substituted almost the entire second team, saving his men for the Thanksgiving Day battle with Ft. Madison. The reserves battled stubbornly, but could not withstand the Blackhawk attack. Captain Wright, before his removal from the game, made the Davenport line look like a sieve, after he had completed his driving and plunging.

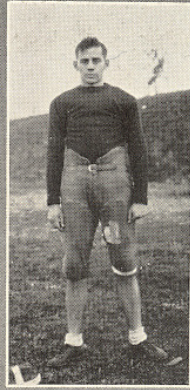

IOWA CITY 0—FT. MADISON 0

In a dull, slow game, caused by the cold and snow, the Hawklets and Ft. Madison battled to a scoreless tie. Neither team threatened seriously at any time, and both battled evenly throughout. No one was able to get away for long gains. If he did, he fell down or was tackled before he had progressed very far. On a fair day, this might have been a real battle. Nine Hawklets concluded their football careers with this game.

COACHES

COACH GEORGE WELLS

It is the natural ambition of every coach to turn out winning teams, and in this particular, Coach Wells has made a remarkable record. Although every game did not result in a victory, the teams displayed enough talent to make themselves an asset to the high school. Coach Wells has won the admiration of every student and team member, and has created a spirit and a feeling of fellowship with his followers, which has bound them together in a lasting friendship.

This year, with a dusky outlook, Coach Wells developed a football team which possessed every quality of a real team, a morale which dominated every man, a sense of sportsmanship which has never been surpassed, and an undying, fighting spirit which has turned the tide of many games and sent many teams to defeat. His basketball team, which received only the slightest attention from outsiders, made a name for itself by bowling over the leading contenders in the M. V. C., and, after being doped to fade out in the sectional tournament, won that tournament, and trampled on two undefeated teams in the district tournament. Except for an unlooked for misfortune, it would undoubtedly have won the district and made a great showing in the state finals.

All those who have followed the 1930-31 athletic season realize what Coach Wells has accomplished, the morale he has established, the sportsmanship he has developed, and last but not least, the boys he has practically "made" through their athletic relations.

It may well be said of him,—"he was a successful warrior, and had the soldiers' hearts."

ASSISTANT COACH CLARENCE CANNON

Assistant Coach Cannon, a great factor in the development of athletics at Iowa City High, is the model, ideal gentleman of every student and athlete. "Joe" opened the eyes of many a player and passed on to him the knowledge he had derived through his long experience as an athlete.

The teams consider Coach Cannon as an irreplaceable backer of the teams in his stress on the fundamental principles of sportsmanship.

THE TEAM

HARRISON WRIGHT. Captain Harrison "Bud" Wright, a triple threat man, played the best games of his high school career last fall. Time and again he broke through the line and it took the whole secondary defense to stop him. He could run the ends equally well. He played a marvelous defensive game all year and an opponent seldom got past him. "Bud" was high scorer of the Iowa City High team, and received honorable mention on the all state team. He will not return next year. It will take a good player to fill his shoes.

LORNE ISENSEE. Lorne Isensee is co-captain elect of the team. "Ike" was used at halfback and then at guard the first of the year, but was shifted to his customary position at center. He played his best game against Washington High. He was an accurate passer and charged fast. He made tackles all over the field when the opponents had the ball.

CLEATUS STIMMEL. The other co-captain elect is Cleatus Stimmel. "Gus" alternated at tackle and halfback, but did not play much last fall, due to an injury. His 190 pounds were used to good advantage in gaining necessary yardage. He was a tower of strength on defense, and was especially good at opening holes for the backs. It took two or three opponents to block him and at that, he usually stopped the ball carrier. He will be back next year, a dangerous player for opponents to stop.

JACK LEWIS. Jack Lewis made the team the first year he went out for football, but it was his last year in high school. He was a good defensive player, a hard tackler, and was fast in getting down under punts.

PAUL REED. Another end who showed up especially well on defense was Paul Reed. Plenty of interference was needed to get the ball carrier around his end. Paul will be back next year, when his play should show improvement.

BILL YETTER. Bill Yetter is another end who will return in the fall. He had all the qualifications for his position and was used in one or two instances in the backfield. Bill was at his best on defense.

CHARLES CRAWFORD. It is seldom that a tackle scores a touchdown, but "Duke" made three, last season, by recovering the ball behind the goal, after an opponent had touched it. He kept his eyes on the ball and was seldom fooled by trick plays. Often he broke through, and threw the ball carrier for a loss. He played a consistent game all season. He will be missed next year.

BURTON SCHRODER. Burton Schroder was handicapped somewhat by an injured leg, but played well in spite of it. He was a good defensive player and was aided in this respect by his size. "Buck" will not be back with us next year.

GERALD MARESH. Another dependable lineman for next season will be Gerald Maresch. Gerald could always be depended on in a pinch. With last season's experience he should develop into a good player.

TED MILLER. Ted Miller played his best game of the 1930 football season at Davenport. He was out to stop those Davenport backs, and he did, effectively. He was one of the lightest men on the line, but he made up for it in fight. He will not be back next year and will be missed greatly.

HAROLD RIECKE. Harold Riecke will be one of Coach Wells' best linemen next year. Riecke was strong on defense and the interference found it hard to block him. He played consistent football all fall and, although he did not star, the opponents had plenty of evidence that he was there.

LAWRENCE BURR. A newcomer to school this year, Lawrence Burr started the season at quarterback. He directed the team well and was a good ball carrier. However, he was injured near the middle of the season, and from then on he filled in at end. His play was slowed up somewhat, due to an injured leg.

VICTOR CURRY. Victor Curry, quarterback and safety man, was the smallest player on the first team. He was shifty and good at returning punts. He was ineligible the first part of the year, but returned the latter part of the season and made a good showing. He is a junior, but will be unable to play next season, due to the eight semester ruling.

ELDRED VESTERMARK. Another backfield man who will not return is Eldred Vestermark. "Pinky" was another triple threat man, and was especially good at breaking up the opponents' aerial attacks. In the Columbus Junction game he intercepted five passes. "Pinky" was shifted from tackle to halfback. He was a hard tackler and got down under punts as fast as the ends.

JOHN VANDER ZEE. Another player who earned his only letter in his senior year was John Vander Zee who played right half. He had a deceptive side-step which was an aid in running back punts, and he was fast in getting started. "Johnny" graduates this year.

MERVIN MINISH. Mervin Minish injured a vertebrae in his neck at the beginning of the Fairfield game, and as a result was out of school the rest of the semester. He was a hard tackler, was good on defense, was hard to block, and could open holes for the backs. Although he will be back next year, he will not be able to play, due to the eight semester ruling.

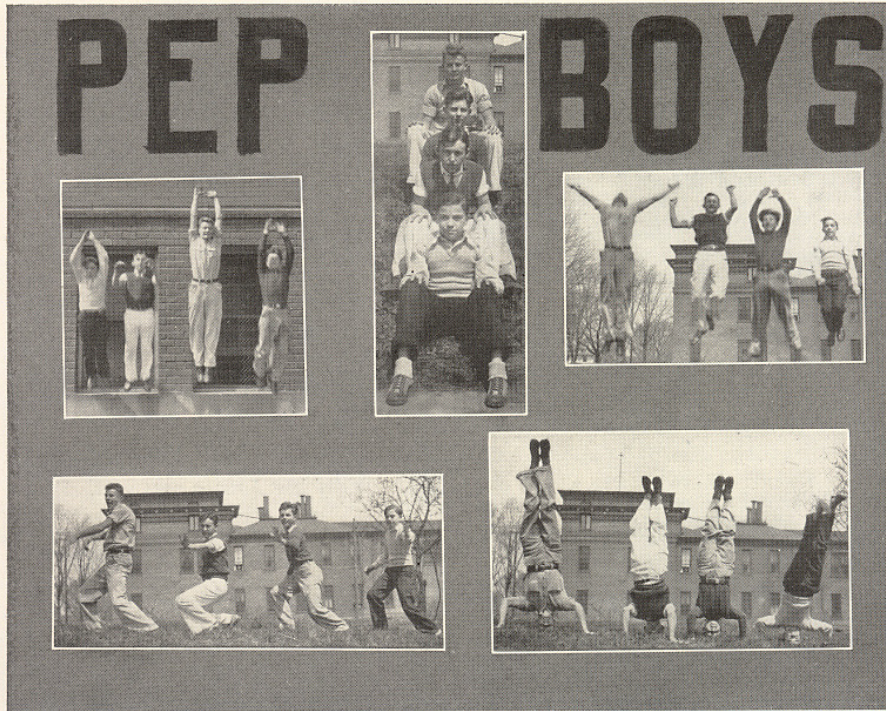

SEYDEL ERSLAND. Seydel Ersland, an end, was the smallest player on the squad. Although he was hindered somewhat by his size, he gave a good account of himself while playing. He was hard to draw out of position. "Si" will be back next year and should develop into a good player.

HENRY SOUCEK. Henry Soucek, another diminutive end, made himself known to his opponents regardless of his size. He is a sophomore, and should in two more years, become a capable end.

REVIEW OF THE FOOTBALL SEASON

Playing a nine game schedule which included some of the state's best teams, Iowa City turned in an enviable record in spirit, if not in scores. The team possessed the fight which carried it to unlooked for victories, and brought it recognition in the state's record of outstanding teams. The team's record of five victories and four defeats is not average; it is far above the average when one considers the opposition encountered. Here are the results of this season:

Iowa City	6	Grant High (C. R.)	18
Iowa City	54	Vinton	0
Iowa City	7	Fairfield	15
Iowa City	0	Clinton	7
Iowa City	18	Columbus Junction	0
Iowa City	6	Grinnell	0
Iowa City	6	Washington High (C. R.)	0
Iowa City	0	Davenport	37
Iowa City	0	Ft. Madison	0

REVIEW OF THE BASKETBALL SEASON

BASKETBALL SQUAD

Soucek, Coach Wells, Wright
Ersland, Walters, Reed, Isensee, Sulek
Miller, R. Barrick, Stimmel, Vestermark, K. Barrick, VanderZee

For the last three years, Iowa City has advanced to the finals of the district tournament, losing by small margins each time. But she has grown stronger each year, and is putting up a better fight each successive tournament. This year, Iowa City presented one of the most formidable teams in the state, although it was rated as the underdog in almost every encounter. Only the members of the team knew what they were able to do, and they strove to attain that degree of perfection which would enable them to conquer greater fields.

Very few teams have reached the height of perfection in sportsmanship that this one was able to attain, or acquire the personnel that these boys possessed. Many an opponent was sent to defeat because of the undying spirit and stubbornness displayed by these men before admitting defeat. The team was forced to overcome a serious handicap at the close of the first semester, due to the loss of two regular players, but it proved to the sport world that it could make the best of every obstacle.

By virtue of a steady and determined rally, Iowa City emerged from its schedule in a tie for fourth place with Clinton in the M. V. C. The Hawket rally began with the second Dubuque game, and from then on, Iowa City lost only one game until the finals of the district tournament. At the district tournament, she was beaten by fate in a four minute rally brought about by the extraction, on fouls, of their great defensive center, after she had outplayed and outscored her opponents for 28 minutes of the game. Although this encounter concluded the team's victories, it could well lay claim to the fact that it had made as good a showing as any team which competed in the state finals.

RED AND WHITE

IOWA CITY 22—LONE TREE 12

Led by Captain Vestermark and "Kay" Barrick, the Hawklets subdued Lone Tree in a typical first game of the season. The Red and White had had only one week of practice, but showed surprising power.

IOWA CITY 16—GRANT HIGH 28

Grant High made away with the Little Hawks in the first quarter after Iowa City had evened accounts in the second and third quarters. "Kay" Barrick played an excellent floor game, while "Pink" Vestermark and "Bud" Wright handled most of the scoring.

IOWA CITY 12—DUBUQUE 36

Dubuque presented a bunch of hot-shots who forgot how to miss the basket for four quarters. Iowa City couldn't get started, and fell a victim to the Duhawk attack. Captain Vestermark led the Red and White advance.

IOWA CITY 20—CLINTON 21

In a fast and snappy game, the Hawklets went down to a last minute defeat in one of those games that "they should have won." Iowa City had the game up until the last few seconds, which told the tale of victory for the Clintonians.

IOWA CITY 14—UNIVERSITY HIGH 10

This was probably the worst game of the season. The Hawklets had the upper hand all the way, but because of the rivalry and over-anxiousness, the score was kept quite low.

IOWA CITY 11—DAVENPORT 22

A half scared Red and White quintet tackled Davenport and fell short only because of their timidity. The half ended 15-4 for Davenport; but after the Little Hawks had rested a few minutes, they came back strong, and outscored Davenport 7-5 in the last half.

IOWA CITY 30—WASHINGTON HIGH 13

In a fast game which concluded the careers of two Hawklet regulars, Iowa City smothered the Tigers from Cedar Rapids. Captain Vestermark captured scoring honors, while "Bud" Wright mowed down the Tiger defense with his evasive dribble and set-up shots.

IOWA CITY 14—GRANT HIGH 28

Grant High again proved too much for the Little Hawks, taking the long end of a 14-28 count. The Hawklet defense faltered in the last half, allowing Grant's hot-shots to pile up a big score. Bob Barrick was unable to make the trip due to a conflict.

IOWA CITY 22—DUBUQUE 16

The Little Hawks with a rejuvenated and reorganized team ripped the spurs from the heels of the Duhawks, and avenged their former defeat at Dubuque. The Red and White zone defense held the visitors at bay for seven minutes before they scored a point. The Hawklet defense continued the good work throughout the rest of the game, however, and baffled all Duhawk attempts at penetration. Bob Barrick and Johnnie Vander Zee led the scoring with seven points each.

IOWA CITY 19—CLINTON 8

Iowa City proved to Clinton that she had the best team by taking a well earned decision from her at Clinton. Nothing could stop the Little Hawks as they ran in and out of the Red and Black defense, collecting 19 points to Clinton's 8. This victory marked another cross on the Hawklet rally chart, and avenged the former one-point defeat.

IOWA CITY 23—UNIVERSITY HIGH 9

Attacked by University High on the home floor, Iowa City made up her former low score game by decisively defeating the Blue and White. Both teams were quite ragged, and bad passes marred the playing on both sides.

IOWA CITY 21—DAVENPORT 24

If ever a team was scared to death, it was Davenport. Leading 15-10 at the half, Davenport could not withstand the Hawklet assault which was renewed with surprising power. Iowa City needed about thirty seconds to cop the game, but, unfortunately, the timer's gun put a stop to a determined rally which would certainly have overcome the Blackhawks in time.

IOWA CITY 19—WASHINGTON HIGH 14

The Hawklet rapped the Tigers for another victory at Cedar Rapids in a rough and tumble game featured with many fouls. One man on each team was sent to the showers as a result. Nevertheless the Red and White machine emerged victor by checking the late Tiger rally. This game concluded the M. V. C. schedule, placing Iowa City in a tie for fourth place with Clinton.

SECTIONAL TOURNAMENT AT MARENGO

IOWA CITY 20—WELLMAN 14

The score indicates a close game, which is true, but the Hawklet reserves played practically the whole game, and stepped on all Wellman's attempted rallies. The game was rather awkward and rough, one Little Hawk being removed from the game on fouls.

IOWA CITY 26—WILLIAMSBURG 16

The undefeated Williamsburg quintet proved no match for the consistent Red and White team. Iowa City had the game tucked in the bag from the start, sinking their shots from any point on the floor. Captain Vestermark collected 14 of his team's 26 points.

IOWA CITY 42—MARENGO 12

The finals of the sectional tournament proved to be a point-getting affair as the Little Hawks whipped the net red hot before Marengo entered the scoring column. "Pink" Vestermark turned in high honors with seven baskets.

DISTRICT TOURNAMENT AT DAVENPORT

IOWA CITY 26—CENTERVILLE 6

Iowa City exploded the first bomb of the tournament by stepping on Centerville in a tight defensive game. Captain Vestermark and Cleatus Stimmel led the scoring with ten and nine points respectively.

IOWA CITY 17—KEOKUK 13

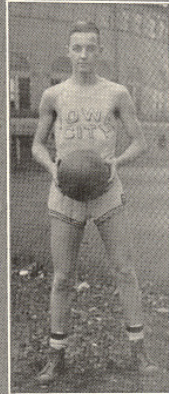

Spilling all previous so-called "dope," Iowa City surprised the state by tripping the strong Keokuk quintet, which had a record of twenty-four consecutive victories to their credit, and was considered a strong contender for the state title. This game was the first sample of what Iowa City could do in the way of defense and scoring, and by virtue of which Iowa City became the center of attraction of the tournament.

IOWA CITY 14—MUSCATINE 21

Contrary to the story the score tells, Iowa City came so close to smashing Muscatine's hopes of a championship team that the whole state gasped in amazement. The Little Hawks displayed in this game the finest defense of any team in the tournament, but was unable to cope with the breaks which went to Muscatine's advantage every time. The Muskies jumped to a 5-1 lead at the quarter, but were held scoreless for the second quarter while the Little Hawks raised their own score to 8. Iowa City clearly outplayed and outscored the Muskies who were almost beaten, until the time Iowa City's great defensive center left the game on fouls. The Hawklet pivot man, Stimmel, put the damper on Muscatine's "big-shot" Barko, who was able to make only one basket while playing opposite him. After Stimmel's departure, he ran his total up to seven points, making five points in the last four minutes.

Popular opinion awarded the decision to the Little Hawks, without a doubt, but as long as the score told the tale, it had to remain that way. Muscatine, however, made a good showing at the state finals by winning second place. If Iowa City High could have presented a team superior to the Muskies, as she did at Davenport, she certainly would have made as good, if not a better showing at the state finals than did Muscatine.

THE TEAM

CAPTAIN ELDRED VESTERMARK—Forward. "Pink" was the most consistent scorer on the team. His follow-up shots and his long shots were equally as regular, thus adding considerably to the Hawklet advantage. "Pink" possessed the stamina and speed necessary for a steady player, and was rewarded for his playing by being chosen as all-tournament forward on the all-star team of the Davenport district. He was the idol of the team members and the students for his sportsmanship and spirit which carried the Hawklets to many a victory. "Pinky" played his best basketball in the 1931 tournaments, and ended his high school athletic career with one of the finest records of any Hawklet athlete.

KENNETH BARRICK—Guard. Kenneth is the older of the two basketball guards that made the 1930-31 Little Hawks famous as a defensive team. With his drive, his keen insight in determining every move of his opponent, which enabled him to check them or take the ball away from them, his natural ability to dribble and handle the ball, and his ability to make baskets from well behind the free throw line, won for him the reputation of being one of the best guards that has ever represented I. C. H. S.

ROBERT BARRICK—Guard. "Bob" came to the squad as a beginner in basketball. Lack of experience, however, was no handicap for him, and by dogged determination and willingness to surmount all difficulties, he improved with each succeeding game until he was able to team with his brother in such a way that they earned the cognomen of the "Barrick Twins." To name one of the Barricks on an all-star team is in reality naming both of them, because if either had a shortcoming in basketball, the other made up for it.

JOHN VANDER ZEE—Forward. "Johnnie" displayed his basketball talents throughout the season with his quick, deceptive pivot, and his snappy shot. He was always a point getter, and played steadily throughout every game. His services will be greatly missed next year, as he has built up the reputation of a very dependable player. John excelled in floor play also.

CLEATUS STIMMEL—Center. Cleatus was unsurpassed on defense, and proved his ability by holding Layden of Davenport to one basket in the final Hawklet-Blackhawk tilt of the season. At the district tournament, he opened up and added point getting tactics along with his defensive work. In the final Muscatine game, he held the "great" Barko to three points in 28 minutes, before he went out of the game on fouls. Cleatus has given his best in every game, and returns next year until the close of the first semester.

LORNE ISENSEE—Guard. "Ike" proved to be a dependable guard, handling the ball with the eye of a veteran. He often proved rough with opponents, but kept his ground throughout every game. "Ike" improved on his shots to a considerable degree, and during the tournaments he was at his highest pitch, planting long shots consistently from anywhere on the court. "Ike" will be back next year until the close of the first semester.

THEODORE MILLER—Guard. "Ted" was a great defensive player who stuck with his man like a barnacle. He showed his ability in the Wellman game with his great defensive playing and floor work. "Ted" will not be back next year.

EDWARD SULEK—Forward. "Ed" fitted well in pinches and displayed his hot-shots before the game was very far along. He played his best game against Wellman, holding second scoring honors.

PAUL REED—Center. "Bango" lived up to his nickname by planting many pot-shots from the free throw line and from under the basket. Paul also proved to be a stellar defensive player. He will be back next year for the first semester.

HARRISON WRIGHT—Forward. "Bud" certainly did his share of the scoring and defensive work during his stay on the squad which lasted up until the close of the first semester. He was master of "fake and dribble" which caused many teams to go down in defeat. "Bud" has proved to be one of the best players that has ever represented I. C. H. S.

WESLEY WALTERS—Forward. "Wes" played up until the close of the first semester, and proved that he was there with the goods when called upon to enter the fray. He excelled in floor play and defense, and gave the best he had in every game.

SEYDEL ERSLAND—Forward. "Si" made up for his size by using his head consistently. Because of his brevity, he saw little action, but that didn't keep him from fighting when he was inserted in the game. "Si" failed to gather enough quarters for a letter, but showed his worth as a squad member. He will be back next year.

HENRY SOUCEK—Forward. "Hank" and "Si" made a good pair for size, Henry having about a three inch advantage which didn't amount to a great deal when the real test came. Although he didn't quite make his letter, "Hank's" fighting spirit made him a valuable squad member who will be available next year.

TENNIS TEAM

Bannon, Boyles, Coach Orvis, Chapman, Vander Zee

Although it faced a hard schedule, the tennis team came through with a successful season. The team which was composed of John Boyles, John Vander Zee, Ansel Chapman, and Peter Bannon, was coached by Howard Orvis, a freshman at the University of Iowa.

A five match schedule was arranged. Two matches were played with Muscatine, and one each with Grinnell, Roosevelt of Des Moines, and Washington of Cedar Rapids. The Little Hawks beat Grinnell 4-2 and played to a draw with Roosevelt. In the district meet John Vander Zee in the singles and John Boyles and Ansel Chapman in the doubles won firsts and represented this district in the finals at Des Moines. Tennis is rapidly becoming a popular sport in Iowa City High, and much interest is being shown in it.

MISS HELEN HAYES
Director of Girls' Athletics

Under the direction of Miss Hayes, Girls' Athletic Director, girls' sports and activities have come to the front. They are exceedingly more interesting than they were five years ago when Miss Hayes began her teaching here. Each year some new phase of girls' sports has appeared. Tennis, canoeing, tap-dancing, volleyball, basketball, and play night are all good examples. This year a swimming club was organized.

Besides her work with girls, Miss Hayes had charge of all the dancing in the operetta, and much of the dancing in the vaudeville.

THE SHARKS

Ewers, Fitzgerald, Miss Hayes, Fairchild
Vanhorn, Balkema, Markovitz, Lauer

The Sharks, a girls' honorary swimming club, was originated this year. It is open to all who can pass a standard test which includes form swimming and diving. To retain membership, each girl must pass a secondary test, and show some improvement during the year. The club gives an annual exhibition which is open to the public, and also sponsors a swimming meet in which all high school girls may enter. To further the interest among high school girls in excellent swimming is its main purpose.

To increase interest in Latin and to give a greater knowledge of the customs of the Greeks and Romans, has been the aim of the "Iunior Romanus Senatus" this past year.

Each program was connected with "Virgil," the great Roman poet, as much as possible, because of the celebration of the two-thousandth anniversary of his birth.

"The Fall of Troy," the annual assembly play, was presented April 15.

Among other parties the club enjoyed, was the annual party in the fall and the annual picnic in the spring. The fall party was held at school and the spring party at Newton Weller's.

They are organized into two separate groups; one is for handicraft work, and the other for the regular programs. Work and play are combined to make each type of endeavor interesting to the girls preferring it. Besides these small gatherings, a regular meeting once a month is held to plan social service and other community work.

Those who are especially interested in camp work may attend a camp during the summer at Lake Okoboji, where they may meet other girls from all over the state and the Middle West, and learn more of Girl Reserve work and Y. W. C. A. life.

The efficiency of this instruction is shown by the fact that all of the boys on the debate squad, with one exception, were members of Debate Club.

A silver loving cup was offered by the club to the winners of the class debates. This recognition will be given the winners every year in order to arouse more interest in the debates and to stimulate the efforts of those participating.

Normal Training Club aims to promote professional interest in teaching problems, to create good fellowship among the teachers-to-be, and to give opportunity for doing things not provided for in the class recitation.

Among the latter are the following: charge of programs, plays, social functions; discussion of professional articles in teachers' magazines; picture studies, critic work, music, inspirational talks by educational leaders, exhibits of hand work and study work devices.

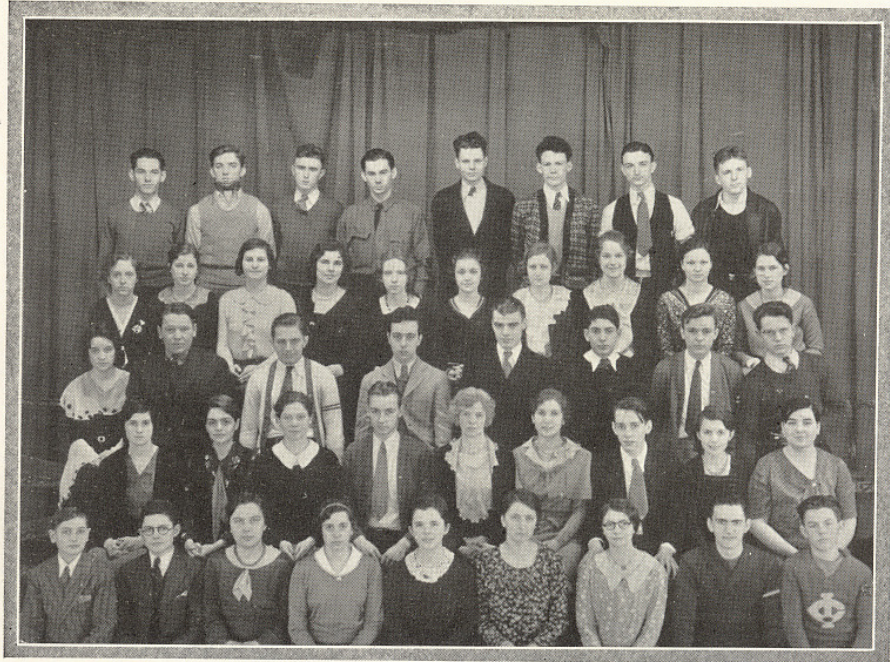

One of the chief results of this club is the strong friendship tie that binds the members, not only in the teaching field, but in the Alumni Club which is still true to the old motto, "For Others."

RED AND WHITE

G. A. A., under the leadership of Miss Hayes, is one of the most popular organizations for girls. The past year's program consisted of swimming meets, volleyball and basketball tournaments, canoeing, hiking, baseball, and clogging. Points were given to girls who excelled in any one of these activities. At the end of the year, emblems were awarded to the members who had acquired 250 points. An I. C. H. S. monogram was presented to anyone who had acquired four of the emblems.
