Old gentleman: Excuse me, constable, but here is a parcel of fish which I found in a railway carriage.

Constable: All right, sir. If it isn't claimed in six months, it's yours.

A young woman presented a check to a bank recently, payable to Gretchen H. Schmidt. Miss Schmidt had endorsed it without the middle initial, and teller called her attention to it, saying she had forgotten the "H."

Miss Schmidt: Ach, so I haf, and seizing a pen, she added, "Age twenty-three."

SCHOOLROOM ANSWERS

Al Smith is a famous scientist.
 There are two parts to a sentence, the subject and the predicament.
 To kill a butterfly, pinch its borax.
 The heart is an infernal organ.
 The teeth are the grind organs.
 Nicotine is such a deadly drug that a drop of it on the tail of a dog will kill a man.
 Geometry teaches us how to bisect angels.
 A circle is a round straight line with a hole in the middle.
 Gravitation is that if there were none we would fly away.
 Georgia was founded by people who had been executed.
 The purpose of the skeleton is to hitch meat onto.
 Weapons of the Indians—bow, arrow, tomahawk, and warwhoop.

Prof.: I believe you missed my class yesterday.
 Student: Why, no, I didn't, old man, not in the least.

The absent-minded professor:
 Held an egg in his hand and boiled his watch.
 Got up and struck a match to see if he had blown out the candle.

He put his arm around her
And whispered in her ear;
She listened and then nodded,
As he drew her near.
Then he gently kissed her
And talked in quiet tone—
The girlie was his sister;
He was asking for a loan.

The professor who comes ten minutes late is very rare. In fact, he is in a class by himself.

"I feel sorry for that fellow over there."

"How so?"

"He ate his salad with his spoon and now he has to eat his soup with his fork."

Bell Boy: Did you ring, sir?
Impatient Guest: No, I was tolling. I thought you were dead.

Teacher: What author is known for his vocabulary?
Willie: Webster.

Chemistry professor: What is the outstanding contribution that chemistry has made to the world?
Frosh: Blondes!

Our dog's name is Mars. He seems to be inhabited.

Boss: Are you one of those girls who watches the clock?
Applicant: No, sir, I have a wrist watch.

Physics teacher: Now are there any questions?
Student: Yes, how do you find the horse power of a donkey engine?

Teacher: Name a liquid that won't freeze.
Student: Hot water.

"Do you believe that jazz is dying?"
"I don't know, but it always sounds to me as if it were."

Author: This is the plot of my story. A midnight scene. Two burglars creep stealthily toward the house. They climb a wall and force open a window, and in the room the clock strikes one.
Sweet young thing (breathlessly): Which one?

If happiness exists, I've found it—
A half mince pie with a boy around it.

Teacher: What did Romeo say when he met Juliet in the balcony?
Pupil: Couldn't you get seats in the orchestra?

"Now," said the leader of the Brushville band, "we'll play 'Stars and Stripes Forever!'"

"Gosh," exclaimed the cornet player, "I've just played that!"

Teacher: What do they call the instrument the French use for beheading people?

Bobby: The Gillette, I believe.

"Why does a stork stand on one leg?"

"I don't know."

"If he lifted it, he'd fall down."

It is said that the Grand Canyon was made by a Scotchman who dropped a nickel in a gopher hole.

I snore so loud I wake myself,
It's hopeless I presume.
"No just a simple case," said Doc,
"Sleep in another room."

Modern Printing

WE have just equipped our shop with the latest fashion in types and are in a position to offer the public styles in harmony with the prevailing mode . . . the extreme as well as the conventional styles.

When in the market for any kind of printing, consult us. We will try to be of service to you. We will help you design your layout, or we will do printing after the fashion you desire, provided it contains nothing that would mar the reputation we are endeavoring to make as a reliable printing plant.

Padre: Do you take this woman for butter or for wurst?

Hardre: Oh, liver alone. I never sausage nerve.

Guest: Waiter, there's a fly in my ice cream.

Waiter: Let him freeze and teach him a lesson. The little rascal was in the soup last night.

“What are you standing over there throwing rocks at that little boy for?”
“I dasn’t go closer, ma’am. He’s got the whooping cough.”

Foreman: Send in young Clancy. I saw him smoking on a load of powder a while ago, and I’m going to fine him.

Rafferty: Well, sorr, here’s part of his hat.

Wife (to sax-playing husband): If you don’t stop playing that thing, I’ll go crazy.

Husband: You’re crazy already. I stopped playing half an hour ago.

Young Wife: I must apologize for the cake I made, dear. I think I left out something.

Husband: Nothing you left out could make a cake taste like that. It’s something you put in.

“That’s certainly a very lifelike snow man you have there. I almost thought I saw it move.”

“Maybe you did, mister. We’ve got my brother, Jimmy, inside.”

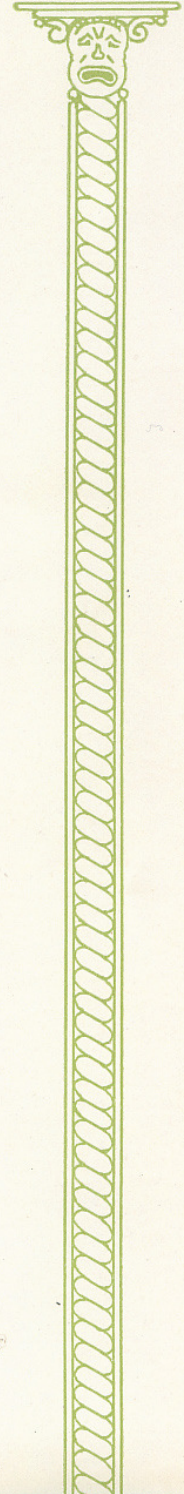

Did you hear about the Scotchman who went to the Black Sea to fill his fountain pen?
