Where are you going to, My Pretty Maid

“Where are you going to, my pretty maid?”
 “I am going a-milking, sir,” she said.
 “May I go with you, my pretty maid?”
 “You’re kindly welcome, sir,” she said.
 “What is your father, my pretty maid?”
 “My father’s a farmer, sir,” she said.
 “Say, will you marry me, my pretty maid?”
 “Yes, if you please, kind sir,” she said.
 “Will you be constant, my pretty maid?”
 “That I can’t promise you, sir,” she said.
 “Then I won’t marry you, my pretty maid!”
 “Nobody asked you, sir,” she said.

ANNOUNCING

Our Coronation

This is the night,
One of us ten will be queen!
I have waited four years;
It was my dream—
We bought our gowns;
They make us so beautiful.
Nobody can look at us and be sad.

Now we are ready to march;
I feel like crying;
I feel like laughing.
What is the matter with me?
I slip my hand in that of my escort;
It gives me courage.
The music starts.

Softly one couple after the other
Marches to the stage.
We sit down and wait — breathless!

There is a whisper to the flower girl—
She turns, she approaches me!
Goodness, what shall I do?
I want to weep;
A blush comes to my cheeks.
Yes, I must now take the throne;
I am the Queen!

But I am not so happy now,
I wanted all of us to be queen.
They are as beautiful, as good, as kind as I.
Why can't they be queen too?
Don't worry any longer, Our Majesty,
They are!
All of us who love our fellowmen are queens, Your Majesty!

Measure Of Man

The man's no bigger than the way
He treats his fellow man!
This standard has his measure been
Since time itself began.

He's measured not by race or creed,
High-sounding though they be;
Nor by the gold that's put aside;
Nor by his sanctity.

He's measured not by social rank,
When character's the test;
Nor by his earthly pomp or show,
Displaying wealth possessed.

He's measured by his justice, right;
His fairness at his play
His squareness in all dealings made;
His honest upright way.

These are his measures, ever near
To serve him when they can;
For man's no bigger than the way
He treats his fellow man!

What Is Success?

It's doing your job the best you can,
And being just to your fellow man;
Not making money, but holding friends,
And staying true to your aims and ends.

It's figuring how and learning why,
And looking forward and thinking high,
And dreaming little and doing much;
It's keeping always in closest touch
With what is finest in word and deed;
It's daring blithely the field of chance
While making of labor a brave romance.

It's going onward despite defeat
And fighting staunchly, but keeping sweet,
It's being clean and it's playing fair,
It's laughing lightly at Dame Despair,
It's looking up at the stars above,
And drinking deeply of life and love.

It's struggling on with the will to win,
But taking loss with a cheerful grin;
It's sharing sorrow and work and mirth,
And making better this good old earth.
It's serving, striving through strain and stress,
It's doing your noblest — that's Success.
