- 25 Obituary of Arnt Stratman (La Crosse, WI, La Crosse Tribune, 1/26/1910), "Arnt Stratman, aged 85, one of the old settlers of La Crosse county, who has resided here continuously for the last forty years, father of Supervisor William D. Stratman of the town of Barre, and for years prominent farmer of the town of Hamilton, died at the home of his son at Barre Mills yesterday afternoon shortly after 3 o'clock. Death was due to the infirmities of old age. Arnt Stratman was born in Germany and came to the United States in the early sixties, settling in the town of Hamilton, where he became a prosperous farmer. He continued to live there until six years ago, when he removed to the town of Barre and has since made his home with his, Supervisor W. D. Stratman of that place. Three sons and two daughters survive him. They are William D. Stratman of Barre, Charles Stratman of Wilton, Wis., Henry Stratman of Springfield, Neb., Mrs Anna Hanson of Waterloo, Wis., and Mrs Carrie Kastenschmidt of Burns, Wis.....Internment will be made at the Barre Mills cemetery."
- 26 La Crosse Co. (WI) 1880 Federal Census (Ancestry.com), Hamilton. Henry Stratman (age 22, b. Hanover) listed in household of W. L. Dudley on page previous to that of Arnt Stratman, no occupation listed. RLN speculates this is Arnt's son and Mary Sander's future husband.
