"After Levi Pitman died in 1892, and his wife Rachel died in 1893, their daughter Sarah "Sally" Pitman Borden, wife of Benjamin Franklin Borden acquired her fathers diary volumes, other family records, and the Augustine Wendel family bible, and kept them in her possession until she died on 24 October 1922. She and her husband and many of her descendents are buried in St. Johns cemetery, at Harrisville, Shenandoah County, Virginia. These family records then fell to her son Joseph Levi Borden. Joseph Levi Borden died on 25 September 1955, and he is buried in Prospect Hill Cemetery, Front Royal, Warren County, Virginia. The records were then received by James "Jimmie" Paul Borden, younger brother of Joseph Levi Borden, who placed these family records, in the Alderman Library, at the University of Virginia, Charlottesville, Virginia, in 1962."
