OBITUARY.

On Friday August 23, at about 5 a.m. David Pitman died at his home two and one half miles east of Minneola. The deceased was a little over 57 years old and was a Methodist, and an Odd Fellow, which order conducted the funeral, assisted by Rev. W. H. Patterson, who preached a short discourse to the large crowd of sorrowing friends who had gathered to pay their respect to the memory of their departed friend and brother. Brother Pitman was a man of wonderful vitality, and battled successfully with his last enemy much longer than it was thought possible that he could. His mind was active and he directed the work done upon his farm up to the last day of his life, but when death came, it came suddenly. Ten minutes before the end, he called his wife to perform some ordinary household duty, apparently without a thought of death. He was heard to struggle.

His heart stopped and he was soon dead. His trouble was dropsy and heart affliction. The sudden end prevented his giving the parting testimony and counsel which was desired. But we feel certain that his peace was made with God, and a short time before his death, he lamented the fact that he had put off so important a fact so long, and rejoiced in the fact that his children were turning to the Savior while they were young, - particularly did he mention his son who died a few years ago, in the Savior's love.

Notes for Isaac Edward PITMAN Jr.:
Obituary; Corydon Democrat; 6/22/1921

Isaac Edward Pitman died suddenly on his farm near his home in Heth township last Sunday night. He went out about his farm about ten o'clock to look about his sheep, and especially to protect them from the dogs that had been attacking them, and he took his gun with him. He remained so long that Mrs Pitman became alarmed and went to look for him, and failing to find him she called his nephew, Jesse O Pitman, who lives almost a mile away, and he came and made search for his uncle. He found him lying under a tree about two hundred yards from his residence, with his hat folded under his head and his gun lying by his side. He had evidently lain down in this position, with his gun by his side, to await the return of the dogs to attack his sheep, and passed away soon thereafter, as it was apparent that he had been dead for some time. And it is also probable that he lay down because of an attack of heart trouble from which he had suffered for three or four years. Earlier in the evening Mr Pitman went out and shot a skunk that was after his chickens. He went back to bed and later he heard the dogs after his sheep. His wife tried to persuade Mr Pitman to remain in bed but he persisted that he couldn't comfortably remain and let the dogs injure the sheep, and no doubt he hurried in his excitement bringing on the fatal heart attack.

Mr Pitman belonged to one of Harrison County's oldest and most highly respected families, and he was himself one of the county's best citizens. He was an honest, industrious farmer, and was a man of strong and unyielding convictions.

He was sixty-one years old January 1, 1921 and leaves surviving him one child, a daughter, Mrs James Shields, of Boone township, near Laconia. He also leaves three grand-children.

He also leaves one brother, Harrison Pitman, of Corydon, and two sisters, Mrs Julia Smith, of Corydon, widow of the late Chas. T Smith and Mrs Susan Smith, wife of Milford Smith, of near Central, and numerous other relatives.

The deceased was an honored member of the New Amsterdam Lodge of Odd Fellows.

Notes for Roy PITMAN:

Death Notice, Corydon Democrat, Corydon, Indiana, 3/2/1927

Mrs Fannie Pitman has just received word of the death of her grandson, Roy Pitman, who accompanied his parents from Minneola some fifteen years ago when the Jesse Pitman family emigrated to the State of Washington. Roy was always a great outdoor man and loved to trap and hunt and when he became old enough went to the wilds of the wild Northern Canada to indulge his passion for the great outdoors. He established a camp some twenty day's travel by dog team from the nearest trading post and although his death occurred on October 6th, news of the sad occurrence just reached his folks in Washington, and from that state was conveyed to the relatives in Colorado and Minneola. With the exception of the news that the deceased died from Strychnine poisoning, no further details were conveyed. His father has left his home near Olympia, Washington, for his son's camp in Canada and expects to bring the body back to the United States for burial and also to investigate the manner of his death. Until he returns no further particulars are obtainable. Editor: The young man Pitman whose death is mentioned above has many relatives in this county. His grandfather, David Pitman, was a brother of Harrison Pitman, of this place.

Notes for Jesse O. PITMAN:

[RLNielsen]

There is uncertainty with the ID of Jesse O Pitman as the father of Ralph L Pitman because of a duplication of graves. I first identified Jesse's grave at the Applegate-Pitman Cemetery south of Corydon with a birth date of 3/31/1886 inscribed on the stone, but no death date. Ralph's obituary identified a Jesse O Pitman as his father and Elsie M Watson Pitman as his mother. Furthermore, there is a grave adjacent to Ralph's in Cedar Hill Cemetery (Corydon) that identifies Jesse O (1886 - 1948) and Elsie M (1889 - 1967). Given the similarity in birth years, it could be that Jesse's parents inscribed a stone for him at the other cemetery prior to his death, but he subsequently was buried at Cedar Hill.

- 52 Pittman, Galen (gpittman@ku.edu, Personal Communication, 2011), "My mother Eunice (Esplund) Pittman wife of Cleo Pittman did a great deal of genealogy work with her family and my Dad's (Cleo Pittman) family. Eunice is now 93 and in a long-term care facility in Minneola, Ks where I grew up. She did all of her research without the use of a computer or the internet?!?! She managed to connect Cleo to Philip Pitman (aka. Johann Phillipp Bittman) but was unsure of the connection., and had no idea that he was a German immigrant. Her families are 100% Swedish and immigrated to America in the 1870s and 1880's. My father Cleo was the son of Ira Pittman, grandson of Harrison Pittman (born "Pitman" and changed his name to "Pittman" at the urging of his sister, who was a spinster school teacher. All three were born in Indiana but Cleo lived the vast majority of his life in Clark County, Kansas".
