Notes for Jesse Snider:

[from Snider History, Margaret Smoots Cabaniss]

"Jesse Snider led a train of one hundred and forty covered wagons across the plains in 1865. They braved many Indian attacks. Five years later he returned to Corydon, Indiana where he was born [RLN: ?]. On his next trip west, 1890, his wife Ellen Mauck Snider accompanied him. They settled beside the Coeur d'Alene River at what became Medimont, Idaho. He founded Spokane, Washington." [RLN editorial comment: I have found no other evidence that supports this claim that Jesse founded Spokane.]

Obituary; Corydon Democrat, Corydon, Indiana, 5/11/1927

Jesse Snider died at his home near Kellogg, Idaho, April 18, while leaning over his yard gate talking to a friend. The following newspaper clipping from "the Spokane-Review" of Spokane, Washington, of April 20, sent us by Mrs F. M. Rothrock, of Spokane, Washington, Mr Snider's daughter, gives the account of Mr. Snider's death: "Death came to Jesse Snider, a covered wagon pioneer, at Medimont, near Kellogg, Idaho, Monday, on his 87th birth anniversary. A short time before, he had walked half a mile from a neighbor's with the mail. The mail brought him congratulations from relatives and friends on his attainment of another milestone in life. He was laughing over whimsical statements in some of the letters when the arrival was announced of a Mr Carsealla in a car. Mr Snider was leaning over the gate and chatting with the visitor when he expired. It is believed that death was due to heart failure and age. In appearance, Mr Snider was the picturesque type of plainsman. His beard and mustache were long and white, although scrupulously trimmed and his eyes glinted friendship. He crossed the western regions to California in 1865. He was a leader and secretary of a train of 140 wagons that braved Indian attack. Five years were passed on the Pacific coast before his return to Indiana. On his next journey westward, in 1890, he was accompanied by his wife, Frances Helen Mauck, whom he took in marriage 56 years ago. The region of their choice was an area of meadow, forest, and mountain beside the Coeur d'Alene river at what become Medimont. He did not carve out the forest to make a home, like many a pioneer, for he was so deeply attached to the great trees that he would permit few to be cut. Instead he selected a spot near which spring water trickled toward the river and there built a comfortable house, where he reared six children; Mrs H. C. Bickerton of Portland, Mrs Frank M Rothrock, Mrs H. S. Malone and Mrs Ada Armstrong of Spokane; Mrs H. L. Rees of Sprague, and Raymond Snider of Medimont. Born in Harrison County, Indiana, April 18, 1840, he became a school-teacher early and continued in the profession until 25, when the Horace Greeley advice was being taken by many young men. He took a keen interest in school work throughout his life and attended a board meeting last Saturday. On the day before his death, he was up in the timber and walked seven miles, an ordinary undertaking for him. Besides his widow at Medimont, and children, Mr Snider is survived by a sister, Mrs Mary Hottle of Arcadia, Mo., and a brother William in Santa Cruz, Cal. Burial will be at Coeur d'Alene, Idaho."

Jesse Snider and Frances Ellen Mauck had the following children:

13. i. MINNIE EUREKA<sup>4</sup> SNIDER<sup>89, 91</sup> was born on 01 Feb 1872 (on home place near White Cloud in Harrison county (later known as Smoots cave place)<sup>89, 91</sup>). She married Frank Miles Rothrock, son of Harrison Washington Rothrock and Alice Gertrude

Notes for Solomon Mauck:
Obituary; Corydon Democrat; 8/3/1921

Solomon Mauck, an old man nearly eighty-five years of age, was found dead in Indian Creek near his home in Scott township last Friday afternoon. He had gone out a couple of hours before to set a trot line in the creek and it happened that in wading out in the creek his feet became entangled in the trot line and he fell face downward in the water which was about three feet deep and not being able to arise, was drowned.
...survived by a widow and four children, two sons and two daughters, of this county as follows:
