General Notes:

Obituary; 3/29/1911; Corydon Democrat

Mrs Elizabeth Pitman [sic], died at Nehawka, Nebraska, March 12th. In the death of Mrs Andrew Pitman on Sunday afternoon, the community lost a good woman and the family a faithful wife and mother. Mrs Pitman had been sick for several weeks with an attack of lagrippe and other complications incident to her extreme age and for a week before she died it was seen there was no hope for her. The deceased, formerly Elizabeth Conrad, was born in Harrison county, Indiana, May 19th, 1831, and united in marriage to Andrew Pittman, Dec. 21, 1852. To this union six children were born - four sons and two daughters. Two of the boys, Thomas, of Avoca, and Charles of Vanango, Nebraska and one girl, Miss Hattie, together with the aged husband surviving her. Three of the children have preceded her to the Better Land. The family moved to Nebraska in 1876 and located on a farm near Mt. Pleasant, and shortly after the town of Nehawka was started they moved there where they have resided ever since being prominently identified with the upbuilding of the social and church life of their town. Mrs Pitman united with the United Brethren church over sixty-five years ago and lived a faithful and consistent christian life. Her only sister, Mrs B.F. McCowan, of St. Joe, Illinois the only surviving sister, and one brother Henry Conrad, living in Independence, Kansas, and her two sons and daughter were with her when she died. Her death came painlessly after several days of unconsciousness. It seemed as if she fell asleep. The funeral services were held in the U. B. church, Tuesday afternoon. Rev. Davis, of Elmwood, preached the sermon to a large number of the friends who gathered to pay their last respects as a tribute to a long life of usefulness of this christian woman. The burial was in the cemetery north of town where two of her children lie. The aged husband and sorrowing family have the sympathy of this community.
