

Remember when?

This trim, efficient-looking building was the Wells Fargo & Co. Express site in Daleville around 1912. The men in the photo are I.W. (Bill) York, left, and Bill Williams. York was the grandfather of Judy Faucett of Anderson, who loaned this photo to the Herald Bulletin. This building was not on the railroad line, it was on the Union Traction Co. of Indiana line – the interurban. Union Traction's headquarter was in Anderson. If you have any photos of Anderson or Madison County area people, places or events, bring them to the HB newsroom. They may be suitable for "Remember when?"

LASTING MEMORIES

PHOTOS COURTESY OF
MARTIN DAVIS

THE OLD OPERA HOUSE
ON THE CORNER OF (MAIN)
WALNUT & HAZEL STREET.
PHOTO SEEN IN CHICAGO
TRIBUNE. OCT. 6, 1901 .

THE TEARING DOWN OF
THE OLD OPERA HOUSE.

WOODWORKERS CUTTING
A WOOD CASKET OF OAK
FOR CARY FENWICK 1910
HE WAS BURIED IN
SAUNDERS CEMETERY.
EAST OF DALEVILLE.