

W. R. LIPPINCOTT, MANAGER

George Washington Hotel

Washington, Pennsylvania

Dear Mahel July 3, 1943

I had a letter from you this morning and one this afternoon.

John told me he would be here same time Sunday morning.

I bought a small bottle of medicine to use in my rubberizer it cost 150 it does a pretty good job.

The way I caught cold it was one of those hot nights all I had on was my pajama pants.

I got up same time in the night all hot

W. R. LIPPINCOTT, MANAGER

George Washington Hotel

Washington, Pennsylvania

I sit in a chair. and went to sleep. when I woke up the wind was blowing over me. so that the way I got it
 it got real cold here.
 it is getting warmer
 now. I hope it dont get too hot Wilma going to work in the office. or out in the factory.
 I suppose nicky would soon get used to staying out there.
 Wilma told me that they had enough garden for every one this winter if it done good

W. R. LIPPINCOTT, MANAGER

George Washington Hotel

Washington, Pennsylvania

you said you had a blackout the other night they had one here the one night last week it was just before daylight I guess it was state wide I cant think it even wake many people up
here in the hotel.
well I cant think of anything to write
so I will close for this time
with lots of love
from your loving husband
August