I have been short of breath but I caught that cold and I forgot to take my pills one night and my bowels didn't move, so that don't make it any better but I will come along all right
well I am getting so sleepy I just can't write so I will try and write tomorrow. I remain as ever your serving husband
