

WORTHEN RITES ARE SET FOR THURSDAY

Funeral services for Will Alfred Worthen, 74, Hartford City painter and paper hanger who died Monday, were conducted from the Burk & Fennig chapel at 2 o'clock Wednesday afternoon, with Rev. Jesse W. Fox in charge. Burial was made in the I. O. O. F. cemetery. Pallbearers were Blair Claytor, Cy McCaffery, Frank Lamott, Herbert Lamott, Ed Reed and Lester Reed.

LONG ILLNESS ENDS FATALLY AT HOME HERE

WILL ALFRED WORTHEN, 74,
DIED MONDAY AFTERNOON
AT 4:30 O'CLOCK.

UTES SET THURSDAY

Funeral Will be Conducted From
Burk & Fennig Funeral
Home at 2 O'clock.

Will Alfred Worthen, 74, well known painter and paper hanger, died Monday afternoon at 4:30 o'clock at his home, 1217 north Monroe street, following an illness of pneumonia. Mr. Worthen had been in failing health for the past twelve years and had retired from active work at his trade. He suffered a light stroke about ten years ago. His recent illness, during which time he developed pneumonia, lasted a little over a week. The body was removed to the Burk & Fennig Funeral home to be prepared for burial and will remain there until the hour of the funeral. Services will be conducted from the chapel Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock in charge of the Rev. J. W. Fox, pastor of the Methodist church, followed with interment in the I. O. O. F. cemetery.

Will Worthen was born in Hartford City, September 12, 1866, and had spent his entire life here. He was a son of Perry and Elizabeth Worthen. On May 30, 1897, he was married to Mattie Clinger. They resided in east Water street after their marriage, later moving to the home in north Monroe street where Mr. Worthen died. They were the parents of four children, one son dying a number of years ago. The surviving children are Mabel, wife of August Haas, of Muncie; William Worthen, of Muncie, and Marguerite, wife of Harold Atha, 1217 north Monroe street, this city.

Mrs. Worthen died March 20, 1910. Mr. Worthen was married again, twenty-six years ago, to Della Edens, of this city, who survives.

Seven grandchildren survive, also a number of nieces and nephews, including Lucile Worthen-Denton, Hartford City; Phillip Worthen, Kansas City, Mo.; Harry Worthen, Highland; Fred Worthen, Wabash, and Ed Reed, Hartford City.