
Henry Haas

Henry Haas died at his home on South Main street Monday morning. The body was taken to the Oberlin funeral home where services were held Wednesday afternoon at 2:30 in charge of Rev. J. O. Rhodes. The interment was in Fountain Grove cemetery. Mr. Haas, a highly respected citizen, was born in Germany and came to this country 28 years ago. He had been in failing health for sometime, but was not regarded as being in a serious condition until a couple of days before the end. He leaves a widow.
