

Prosecutor Stafford, of Noblesville, states that the telegrams about the dying story of Tom Barker, relative to the killing of Mrs. Amasa Foulke by himself, are all bosh.

John S. Grieves has begun the publication of a paper at Tipton called the Republican. It is a nicely printed quarto with patent broadside, and promises to be true to its name.