

Area deaths

Mrs. Irene Robbins, 61, dies today in Indianapolis hospital

Irene Robbins, 61, Route 2, Sheridan, died Monday morning at Methodist Hospital, Indianapolis, following an illness of five years.

Born January 18, 1915 in Hamilton County, the daughter of Isaac and Bessy Summitt Brown, she spent most of her life in Adams Township. She married Myron F. Robbins on August 24, 1935. He survives.

Other survivors include two sons, Myron Jr. of Marion and Rev. Dale Robbins, Sheridan; three daughters, Mrs. Helen Sanders, Lebanon, Mrs. Joan Heine, Carmel and Mrs. Barbara Hyatt, Baker's Corner; two brothers, William Brown, Cicero and John Brown, Noblesville; one sister, Mrs. Carol Opal Spear, Lebanon, and 10 grandchildren.

Mrs. Robbins attended the Lighthouse Tabernacle Assembly of God Church in Carmel and was a former member of the Travelaires Club in Sheridan. She also belonged to the Sheridan Extension Homemakers Club and was a charter member of the Sheridan Historical Society. She attended Sheridan and Westfield schools.

Services will be held Wednesday at 2 p.m. at the Lighthouse Tabernacle Assembly of God Church in Carmel, with the Rev. William Totman and Rev. Jesse Griffith officiating. Burial will be in Crown View Cemetery in Sheridan.

Friends may call at the Kercheval Funeral Home in Sheridan after 3 p.m. Tuesday. The body will lie in state for one hour prior to the service at Carmel.

ONE,
give a comp:
newsr

Source Citation:

Obituary: "Mrs Irene Robbins, 61, dies today in Indianapolis hospital", The Reporter, Lebanon, Indiana, Monday 10 Jan 1977, page 12. Acc000676\Ph8515.jpg