

Preserving history

Scott Zimmerman, executive director of the Delaware County Historical Alliance, and Brad Foster dismantle the roof of White Oak School, 5301 S. Bell Creek Road, as Robert (Bob) Kellems, president of the alliance, watches. The school was donated to the alliance by Steve Newnam, who believes it dates back to about 1832. The interior wainscoting and other materials are being stored and will be reassembled at an appropriate site at a later date.

9/10/12

Star photo/KYLE EVENS