ACCIDENTAL DEATH.

Woman Killed By Small Revolver She Was Handling.

Seymour, Mar. 14. — Funeral services will be held at Versailles tomorrow of Mrs. Ann Rohm, 27, who died in the hospital here yesterday from a gun shot accidentally inflicted at a tourist camp where she and her husband were staying.

Hal Rohm, the husband who is employed at Carthage, Ind., told authorities that he and his wife were on their way here to attend the birddog field trials and had stopped at the camp south of Seymour.

He explained to Deputy Coroner S. F. Tower that the shooting occurred when his wife removed a .22 caliber automatic pistol from the bed as they were preparing to retire. The weapon was discharged twice while she was holding it. One of the shots went through the ceiling and the other striking her in the chest, he said.

BIRTHDAY DINNER.

Mrs. George Weber Guest of Honor at Surprise Event.

Sunday was the birthday of Mrs. George Weber of Mill street, and the event was celebrated with a surprise dinner at the noon hour. Mrs. Bert McNew baked the large birthday cake, which was the centerpiece of the big table which was spread with everything good to eat.

Guests included Mr. and Mrs. Henry Weber, Mr. and Mrs. Bert McNew, Richard McNew, Dora Daniels and son, Evans, and Dick Merrill, all of Tipton. Out of town guests were Vera Carter of Elwood and John Moody of Sheridan.

Mrs. Weber received several nice presents and was showered with good wishes.

GRAIN MARKET DOWN.

Heavy Selling Depressed Chicago Grain Exchange.

Chicago, March 14.—A downslide in foreign grain markets entangled wheat futures on the Chicago Board of Trade today and heavy selling depressed the September delivery to a new low for the year, pushing other contracts to bottom for the current movement.

At the close wheat was 2¼ to 2⅝ cents lower, corn was 1 to 1½ cents lower, and oats were ⅜ to ½ cent lower.

NEW GOVERNMENT.

Leon Blum Heads New Popular Front in France.

Paris, Mar. 14.—Premier Leon Blum today headed a new popular front government pledged to fulfill its "duties" in the European crisis "without delay" and "with quiet firmness."

The scholarly socialist took over the premier's office last night from Camille Chautemps, who resigned Thursday, leaving France for four days without a government in the midst of Europe's most serious crisis since the world war.

ARCADIA.

The Epworth League of the Methodist church will meet Wednesday night with Miss Marthella Hicks.

Mr. and Mrs. Lavern Unger of west of Arcadia moved Thursday into the John Berg property in Arcadia near the Lutheran church.

Rev. and Mrs. C. E. Taylor of Arcadia were in Stilesville Thursday to attend the funeral of the latter's aunt, Mrs. Iva Whicker.

The Thursday Afternoon Bridge club met with Mrs. V. V. Leaming for a St. Patrick's day party. Prizes were won by Mrs. Betty Hildebrand, Mrs. Betty Hartley and Mrs. Ruth Hill. A light lunch was served.

The O. E. S. chapter of Arcadia held its annual election of officers Thursday night. The elective officers chosen were: Mrs. E. Cunningham, worthy Matron; Harvey Hiatt, Worthy Patron; associate Matron, Audra Hodson; associate patron, Ray Hildebrand; secretary, Isabella Shorter; treasurer, Maude Coslow; conductress, Cad Gooley, and associate conductress, Betty McGill. The appointive officers will be named later. Arrangements were made for installation of officers which will be held March 28. Mrs. Wiberta Scudder, district deputy of Windfall will be the installing officer. Installation will be open to Masons and Eastern Star members of Arcadia and their immediate families.

The Ladies Aid of the Brethren church will hold an all day meeting Thursday March 17, at the home of Mrs. Katie Smeltzer. There will be a covered dish dinner at noon.

The Junior class of the Arcadia high school will sponsor a skating party at the Tipton Armory, Thursday evening March 17.

Mr. and Mrs. John Noble moved their household goods from Muncie to Arcadia Saturday and are located in the property of Mrs. Sara Flanagan.

The Ladies of the Methodist church of Arcadia will hold an all day quilting party Wednesday at the parsonage. A pitchin dinner will be served at noon.

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Hodson are the proud parents of a new son, born early Saturday morning. This is the third child in the family.

Mrs. V. V. Leaming and daughter Anna Marie and Mrs. Ruth Apple of Arcadia were Noblesville visitors Friday night. While there they called on Mrs. Glen Drumm at the hospital, to extend her birthday greetings. Mrs. Drumm was delighted over the letters, cards and gifts she had received from her many friends. Mrs. Drumm is recovering from an operation she underwent two weeks ago.

The Ladies Aid of the Lutheran church met Thursday afternoon at the parish hall. Devotions were in charge of Rev. Wunderlich who also gave the history of the song "There is a Fountain Filled With Blood." A short business session was held at which the ladies reported they made ninety dollars at the sale of Mrs. Louise Bardonner. A vote was taken to use a part of it to repair the kitchen at the parish hall. Blocks were arranged for a friendship quilt. The hostesses for the afternoon were Mrs. Charles Bardonner and Mrs. Harry Waltz. Light refreshments were served.

Mrs. Minnie Waltz returned to her home in Arcadia Saturday after spending several weeks in Muncie with her daughter, Mrs. Winifred Brammel, and son George Waltz.

The death of Mrs. Mary A. Nixon occurred Saturday at the Methodist home near Warren, Ind. Mrs. Nixon formerly of Westfield, was an aunt of Mrs. E. V. Shockney of Arcadia. Mr. and Mrs. Shockney went to Huntington, Sunday, where the body lay in state until the hour of the funeral.

Joe Ross of Indianapolis was in Arcadia Saturday to see his mother Mrs. Nell Ross, who recently returned from Los Angeles California.

The Missionary society of the Methodist church met Friday afternoon with Mrs. Nora Groves. Mrs. Ollie Sumner had charge of the devotions and also acted as program leader. Lesson discussed was "Journies Along Short Roads." Mrs. Sumner discussed Paul's short journey to Corinth and his discouragement in Christian service. She also held a Lenten offering service "A Day of Memories." Mrs. Nina Rodenbeck read a poem and also gave a story of "The Cross of Christ."

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Heisser of Urbana, Ill., have received word of the arrival of a new daughter, March 10 in the home of their daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Hamilton of Oklahoma City, Oklahoma. This is the second child in the family. The mother is a granddaughter of Mrs. Emma Trietch of Arcadia and has many other relatives in the surrounding community.

Class thirteen of the Christian church will hold a class party Tuesday evening in the church social rooms. There will be a pitchin lunch. A good program is being prepared. Mesdames, Juanita Overdorf, Betty Hildebrand and Emma Cunningham are on the committee for the evening's program.

GOLDSMITH.

The pich-in supper given Thursday night at the school building for the basketball boys was well attended. After a splendid program the boys were awarded their sweaters, which were black with old gold trimmings.

Mrs. Oren Foster, Mrs. Audley Maple, Mrs. Rolland Foster Howard Harper and son, Jonathan, and Carl Harper and son Thomas, attended the funeral of a cousin, Baker Huckstep, which was held Wednesday at New Salem, east of Lebanon.

The Married People's Sunday school class enjoyed a St. Patrick's party at the Goldsmith M. E. parsonage Friday evening with Rev. and Mrs. Land entertaining. Each lady brought her favorite salad and after various contests in keeping with St. Patrick's day they were invited to the dining room. The table was decorated with a St. Patrick's center piece and green candles on either side in potato candle holders. The napkins were also in green St. Patrick design. All departed at a late hour after a very pleasant evening.

Fred Queer and family moved Friday from the Ernest Rosenthal farm west of Tipton to the B. E. Mahaffey property in Goldsmith.
