The Louisiana State Capitol is the tallest building in the South, 34 floors, height to top of beacon light 450 feet. The Huey P. Long Bridge is 4.4 miles long including approaches, the finest span across the Mississippi, central pier, 409 feet high equal to a 36 story office building; 135 feet vertical clearance for steamers; 790 feet horizontal clearance; cost $13,000,000.
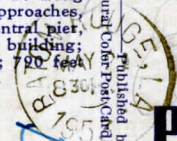

19655

LOUISIANA
150TH ANNI
1803

POST CARD

A NATURAL COLOR POST CARD

E C
K C9

Dear Phillip + I know you must be going on the farm. I am having a grand time with my grandsons
Mrs. Reynolds

LOUISIANA PURCHASE 150TH ANNIVERSARY 1953

Phillip Robbins
Muncie, Indiana
R. R. No. 1
C/o W.C. Robbins

BATON ROUGE MAY 31 1953

Acc000398

—179

STATE CAPITOL, BATON ROUGE

LOUISIANA'S TWO GREATEST MONUMENTS, CONCEIVED AND BUILT BY THE LATE U. S. SENATOR HUEY P. LONG.

NEW HUEY P. 'LONG BRIDGE, NEW ORLEANS
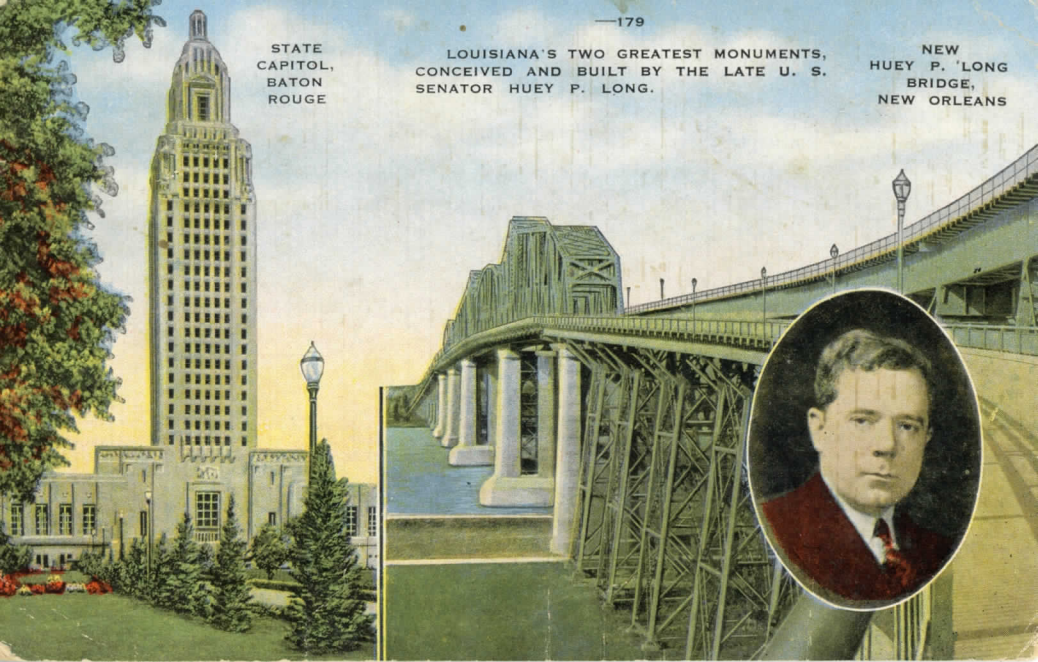

Phillip Robbins

Muncie, Indiana

R.R.No.1

C/o Walter Robbins

Dear Phillip:— Hope
Santa Claus found your house. Will see you
Monday.
        Mrs. Reynolds

BATON ROUGE, LA.
DEC 29
1 30 PM
19 3

Acc 000398

LOUISIANA
THE PELICAN STATE

STATE CAPITOL BLDG., BATON ROUGE, LA.