

Red Martz is a prisoner in the Blackford County jail, serving out a $42 board bill, which accumulated against him at the White Hotel. Martz is one of the city's most widely known "characters." He had been run from the hotel, but would come back each evening and take up his abode on the floor of a corridor.