

Watch and Chain Missing.

Police today were looking for a man, the principal description of whom was that he had red hair, who is alleged to have stolen a watch and chain at the White Hotel here last night. He had been working in a local factory for several days. His lunch was packed as usual last night, and the fellow and the time piece disappeared.