JOHN SANDERS

The Missionary Record of The Church Of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints (Mormon) states than an Elder Sanders had labored in Tishomingo County, Mississippi and baptized 7 converts in 1840. Missionaries for the church often went where they had previously lived or had relatives to convert, so it was natural to check out Tishomingo County. This proved to be a fruitful search. History of Tishomingo County, Mississippi page 92 (Film 895939) contained a paper submitted by Adelle Sanders Francis, which was written by Moses Marion Sanders.

"Corinth, Mississippi. July 6, 1880. It is to those in future generations that this biographical sketch is intended to enlighten upon the immediate history of our family. It is natural, it is right, it is simply a prompting of the soul that inspires in us a love to perpetuate the deeds of the honorable good, and noble. Such prompts me to enclose a link in the chain of chronology that will hand down the unstained name of our family to the unknown ages of the futures."

"Whilst my mind runs back along the family pathway through the lights and shades of several generations for nearly two hundred years I am delighted to find no dark lines recorded no traces that lead from the roll of honor no stains or disgrace to mar the bright heroism of the future generations of the family that will follow in our footprints."

"Our grandfather Moses Sanders was born in the early part of the 18th century. His life was spent in agriculture as a pursuit and theology as a profession being a Baptist preacher. Our grandfather John Robins was a merchant in Virginia."

"John Sanders our father was born in North Carolina March 2nd A.D. 1787. Our mother Aby Richardson Sanders daughter of John Robins was born in Virginia Aug 18th 1796. Father and mother were married in North Carolina in A.D. 18 (left blank but should read 1811 in Franklin County, Georgia). They lived together nearly long enough to celebrate their golden wedding - fifty years. Father lived the quiet life of an independent planter having owned slaves prior to the commencement of the late war. In the early days of his life he was a soldier being engaged in the Indian War of A. D. 1812."

"Alas time with his scythe has carried many of our family to the tomb. Father and mother like many of their children sleep in the quiet city of the dead. Father died 15 Nov A.D. 1858 Mother died 10 Apr 1866. Though they are gone yet they lived to see the greater number of their children married and settled down in reasonable prosperity."

"Our eldest sister Acenith married William Muckelroy. Sister Thursialou having married A. G. Pearson whose family is quite honorable. Our sister Jiney married Joseph Carter. Our sister Elizabeth married Henry Derryberry. Our eldest brother Lovel Dogaus never married. He was taken prisoner by the Federals in 1863 during the late war and never heard from. James Monroe gave most of his time to agriculture, and politics he was quite a prominent member of the general assembly of the State of Arkansas in 1860. He was a brave captain in the War Between the States. Josiah Hardin lived in Texas engaged in farming and stock raising was a brave soldier and lost his life in defense of his country 1863. Cardinal Walsey, lived in Tenn. Engaged in planting was also a brave and generous soldier and officer in the late war and lost his life in service 1864. Simeon Lafayette the youngest son was born in Miss. 31st May A.D. 1839. He is more inclined to a mercantile and political life excels many of his fellows in many good and chivalrous deeds one who wins at will and holds his friends with a strengthened chain. During the war he was engaged for four years coming out with honors and scars having never missed an engagement unless brought down by the casualties of war. He married Miss Mary Pinnay Young daughter of I.P. Young of this city in the year 1867. Is a prominent citizen of this city and has made well-merited reputation as a political officer and a commercial tourist. This family consists of four members self wife & two bright intelligent beautiful little girls Mattie & Mary. Now I have given a biographical sketch of each member of the family save one, the writer, Moses Marion Sanders."

"As a rule the family has an inclination to morality; and religion. The writer and next to the youngest and only son living except Fayette was born Jan A.D. 1838. During his early life he was engaged in agriculture and attending country schools in company with his brothers Walsey and Lafayette. He graduated in medicine in 1860 Joined the 1st Ark infantry in Feb 1861."

"Fayette and I soldiers together the entire war receiving three wounds each both alike held positions as officers in our command. The writer married Miss Cynthia C. Bruton daughter of Benjamine Bruton of this city Dec 19, 1865. We have a pleasant little family circle with only one we miss from home. Our first is in the grave. The oldest boy Simeon Alonzo a bright boy very sprightly and bids to be an elocutionist of note. 2nd boy Earl Bruton quick intelligent and much inclined to refinement 3rd boy Marcus Marion bright, joyous and happy more mischievous than ever was the 'father of his country..' 4th Edna our girl endowed with more spirit and will and equal mind to any of the boys. 5th Sweet Lena 'our first' is in the cold silent tomb."

As stated in the above paper, John Sanders was born 2 Mar 1887 in North Carolina. His father deeded land to him in 1811 but he was not to take possession until after his and his wife's death.
