YOUNG, GEORGE, Methodist minister and author; b. 31 Dec. 1821 near East Lake, Prince Edward County, Upper Canada, only son of George Young and Mary (Polly) Platt; m. 13 July 1848 Mary Alsy Holmes of Brantford, Upper Canada, and they had one son; d. 1 Aug. 1910 in Toronto.

George Young's ancestors, United Empire Loyalists, were the first white settlers in Prince Edward County, Upper Canada. Much of his early life was spent on his stepfather's farm, his father having died before his birth. He received little formal education, but his mother tutored him in the essentials of the Methodist faith. His own conversion occurred in October 1840 after the death of a close friend. ... see more
