

DEATHS IN THE ERIE FAMILY

Charles J. Schall

Charles J. Schall, who was appointed auditor of revenues of the Erie at Cleveland last April, died Dec. 18 in St. John's hospital, Cleveland, after a few days illness with meningitis. His age was 42. A native of Jersey City, Mr. Schall had been in Erie service since Feb., 1911, always in the accounting service. He is survived by his widow, Marie Roach Schall; a daughter, Mary Louise, a year old; his mother, Mrs. Louise Schall and two sisters, Mrs. Charles Burgeller of Union City and Mrs. Marie Pizzitolo of New York. The funeral was held from the family home, 15119 Lake Avenue, Lakewood and from St. Luke's Roman Catholic church on Dec. 21st.

John Haynes

John Haynes, retired engineer, died at his home 355 Bellefontaine avenue, Marion, O., Dec. 9th after a long illness. His age was 75. Mr. Haynes began as a fireman in 1885 and became an engineer in 1890. He was a member of Div. 16, B. of L.E., and Old-Timers club. Surviving are the widow, four daughters, Mrs. Harry Finch of Cleveland, Miss Elsie Haynes of Akron and Martha and Dorothy at home, and three sons, John, Robert and Theodore at home. The funeral service was conducted by the Rev. S. S. Hardy of St. Paul's Episcopal church and burial was in Fairview cemetery, Galion.

George W. Lake

George W. Lake, retired Erie conductor of 54 years service, died last November at his home, 1007 Hall avenue, Scranton. His age was 84. He is survived by his widow, two daughters, Mrs. William T. Jones and Mrs. Clarence Bond, and a son, Edward Jeffry.

Mrs. Lillian E. Griffith

Mrs. Lillian E. Griffith, 77, widow of the late Edward P. Griffith, former superintendent of telegraph of the Erie, died Dec. 10th at her home, 25 Waverly place Passaic, N. J. Surviving are a sister, Mrs. F. W. Davis, Liberty, N. Y.; a brother, Burton M. Batsford, Staten Island, and five children, Mrs. Button, Edward W. Griffith, Burton F. Griffith, Mrs. Raper and Frances Griffith; also six grandchildren and one great grandchild.

Charles J. Schall

William E. Huffman

William E. Huffman, former watchman at the North Main street crossing, Urbana, O., died at his home, 106 Orange street, late in November, after a long illness. His age was 83. He is survived by his wife, Mrs. Elva Janet Huffman; three sons, Warren, Dow and Howard, all at home. A daughter, Mrs. Lucy Kenfield, of Woodstock. A brother, Enoch Huffman of North Lewisburg, and a sister, Mrs. Lydia Swick of Springfield.

John Haynes

Albert McCray

Albert McCray, Erie engineer of 30 years service, died in hospital at Meadville Dec. 13th. He was 55 years old. He is survived by his widow and one son, Richard; his mother, Mrs. C. B. McCray, Corry; a sister, Mrs. Emily McElroy, Corry, and two brothers, Percy of Corry, and Dell of California.

Thomas R. Giblin

Thomas R. Giblin, 60, car inspector of 30 Munsell street, Binghamton, died in hospital Dec. 8th from injuries received in the local yard.

He is survived by a daughter, Mary; four sons, Raymond, Leo, Edward and Joseph, all of Binghamton; four sisters, Mrs. John Spring and Mrs. William H. Riley of Binghamton; Mrs. Elizabeth Cleveland of New Rochelle and Mrs. Bridget Maloney of Forest Hills, Mass., and a brother, John, of Binghamton.

Joseph L. Finch

Joseph L. Finch, 51 Susquehanna division engineer, died at his home in State street, Oakland, Dec. 11th after a long illness. Besides his wife, he is survived by two daughters, Mrs. Joseph Spoule of Corning, and Arlene, and a son, Howland, all at home.

Orien W. Richardson

Orien W. Richardson, boiler inspector at the Erie's Marion roundhouse, died of a heart attack late in November. He was 49 years old.

Surviving are five daughters, Mrs. Virgie Owens of Mary street, Mrs. Elsie Owens of Sheridan road, Mrs. Henry Fowler of Dayton, Mrs. Roger Minyoung of Mansfield and Miss Edna Richardson of Shelby, five grandchildren, four brothers, Edward of Fairview street, Ned of Woodrow av-

(Continued on page 33)

Erie Railroad Magazine

Deaths in the Erie Family

(Continued from page 14)

enne, and Ralph and Albert of Columbus and two sisters, Mrs. Cora Ault of Mound street and Mrs. Gertrude Ebert of Bellville, O.

W. S. Jackson

W. S. Jackson, former mechanical superintendent of the Erie at Hornell, died late in November at his home, 33 Sherwood road, Ridgewood, N. J. He was 59 years old. A native of Ashtabula, O., Mr. Jackson was a Shriner and an Elk. He is survived by his wife, Mrs. Julia Stubbs Jackson; two sons, Walter William Jackson and Robert Charles Jackson of Ridgewood; a daughter, Mrs. J. H. Rines of Rutherford, and two brothers, John Jackson and Charles Jackson, and a sister, Mrs. Isabel Morrow, all living in the West.

Homer E. Brotzman

Homer E. Brotzman, 39, former Erie ticket agent at Elmira, died in hospital Dec. 9th. He was an active Mason and member of the M. E. church.

Besides his wife, he is survived by a daughter, Jenn; a son, Linn, and two brothers, Eldon Brotzman of Hornell and Lloyd Brotzman of Woodhull.

Joseph Wallace Elliott

Joseph Wallace Elliott, 84, retired Greenwood Lake division conductor, died at his home, 582 Ringwood avenue, Midvale, N. J., Dec. 7th.

He leaves his wife, Luella; two sons, William, of Cincinnati, and Joseph, Jr., of Wanaque; a brother, James, of Jersey City and two sisters, Elizabeth and Louise, of Jersey City.

Joseph Wallace Elliott

William M. Reakes

William M. Reakes, who was for many years train dispatcher at the Literary Street yard office, Cleveland, after losing his arm in a train accident, died Nov. 16. His age was 66 and he was retired in 1932. He lived at 4073 East 126th street, Cleveland. He is survived by a son, Clayton. Burial was in Warren, O.

Henry J. Doyle

Henry J. Doyle, 47, shop foreman who lived at 180 Prospect street, Hornell, was killed by a yard engine last month. He was a member of the K. of C. and Erie Veterans. Surviving are his widow, Delia Fitzstephens Doyle, and four children, Mary Ann, Jean, Virginia and Thomasine Doyle, all at home, his mother, Mrs. Mary Doyle; and father, Patrick Doyle of Wellsboro, Pa.