METROPOLITAN OCCURRENCES.

His Majesty's late grand banquet at Carlton-palace, in honour of the visit of the prince and princess of Denmark, is the first of a series, which in their result portend matter of high import. The honour of the garter has been conferred on the King of Denmark, and, in the best informed circles, it is confidently reported that the crown of England is to be shared with the illustrious daughter of the royal Dane.

Prince Christian of Denmark, who is now in London, is about 56 years of age, and has a son by a former consort; he has no issue by his present princess, who accompanies him, and whom he married about eight years ago. The prince assumes, while in England, the title of Count Alston, which title is on his visiting cards. His royal highness is considered to be here incognito.

Kew palace is intended for the occasional residence of our future queen.

Summer Assizes.—The following arrangements have been made by the judges: Home Circuit.—The Chief Baron and Sir T. Allan Park.

Northern Circuit.—Lord Chief Justice Abbott and Sir J. Bayley.

Midland Circuit.—Mr. Baron Graham and Sir G. S. Holroyd.

Western Circuit.—Sir J. Richardson and Sir J. Burroughs.

Norfolk Circuit.—Sir W. Dallas and Sir W. D. Best.

Oxford Circuit.—Mr. Baron Garrow—Mr. Serjeant Hullock, is spoken of in the room of Mr. Baron Wood.

It appears to be at length determined that London Bridge is to be taken down and a new one erected. The designs are, very properly, to be open to competition. It is proposed that the new bridge shall only consist of five arches.

Two estates at St. Kitt's, for which 45,000l. were refused five years ago, were knocked down at the Auction Mart on Tuesday, for 16,000l.

A corps of Yeomanry Cavalry is about to be raised in the county of Middlesex, under the immediate patronage of a noble duke and some of the principal men resident in the county, to consist of eight troops, as follows:—two at Brentford and Isleworth, one at Staines, one at Hounslow, one at Hampton, two at Uxbridge, and one at Stanmore.

TITHES IN IRELAND.—It appears from a return made to the House of Commons, that in the county of Tipperary there have been, in the last five years, 3037 tithe causes tried at the Quarter Sessions!—In one year, 1817, there were 1084. In Monaghan, in the last five years, there have been 2498 causes at the suit of clergymen and tithe-farmers. In Kilkenny the number has varied from 269 to 590 per year. In the county of Louth the average exceeds 200 per year.
