1689-90.	Prefixing : (a) order of the King in Council, dated Whitehall, Jan. 30 inst., that the ship Guinea Frigott , William Chantrell master, be permitted to proceed on her voyage, notwithstanding the [embargo] Order in Council of the 12th inst.
Jan. 31.	Treasury reference to the Customs Commissioners of the petition of John Batchelor and Arthur Plumer of Bristol, merchants, praying that the ship Morning Star of Bristol, freighted by them with provisions for Barbados and Nevis, which was cleared Jan. 10 inst., may proceed on her voyage, notwithstanding the embargo.	Reference Book VI , p. 124.
	Same to same of the petition of Thomas Starke, praying the like for the ship Blessing , now in the Thames; by reason that the Virginia , freighted with provisions etc., was staved in the late storm to above 3,000 l. loss, and above 50 families depend upon his sending them supplies, for whose relief he has laded more provisions in the said Blessing .	Ibid.
Feb. 1.	William Jephson to Sir Henry Goodricke. My Lords have read your report on Stephen Thompson's petition, praying reimbursement of his charges in raising a Foot Company to secure the Castle of Scarborough. Please signify how much money you have now in your hands, which you received in the North, out of which said charges may be paid.	Out Letters (General) XII , p. 177.
	Same to the Customs Commissioners. As my Lords do not sit this morning, I send you the enclosed Order of Council [missing] for permitting the hoy, whereof John Jenkins is master, to sail from Faversham up the Thames with ash [wood] for carriages for their Majesties' use. Give directions herein. If you return the order next Monday I will present it to my Lords to be signed by them.	Ibid.
	Same to the Bishop of Exeter. My Lords have received from Mr. Ford his letters patent of grant of all wrecks, within limits therein stated, belonging to the late King by right of the Crown or of the Admiralty or by the prerogative royal or any other right. They have also received the extract of your own commission as Vice Admiral. They have taken the Attorney General's opinion thereon, which I enclose [missing]. My Lords are of opinion that the silver and other things taken up ought of right to be delivered to Mr. Ford. Please give order accordingly, unless you can offer material objection. Mr. Ford or his agents have given security for answering their Majesties' part.	Ibid , p. 178.
