Sept. 11.	Treasury warrant to the Customs Commissioners to employ Thomas Allexander (an extraordinary watchman, London port) as a watchman in fee ibid. loco John Francis, lately deceased.	Out Letters (Customs) XII , p. 186.
	Report [to the Treasury Lords from William Blathwaite] on the petition concerning Col. Stede's salary. By the instructions to the Governors of the several Plantations it is directed that upon the death or absence of the Chief Governor one moiety of his salary and perquisites should be paid to the Lieutenant Governor or Commander in Chief. In pursuance thereof 600 l. per an. has been assigned to Col. Stede as such moiety to him as Lieutenant Governor of Barbados from 1685, July 16, the time of the departure of Sir Richard Dutton, the late Governor in Chief thereof, to 1690, May 12, the time of the arrival of Col. Kendall, the present Governor, and a privy seal has been passed for same out of the Four and a Half per cent Duty in the Caribbee Islands. The Auditor of the Receipt certifies that no payment [in the English Exchequer] has been made to Col. Stede on this account since 1687-8, Jan. 17; so there remains due to him 13,389 l. 0 s. 7½ d. [sic for 1,389 l. 0 s. 7½ d. ] for two years and 115 days thereon. Col. Stede has been very diligent in the service of the Crown according to his trust and has not only shown great readiness in proclaiming and acknowledging their present Majesties within his Government, but has also sent charitable assistance and early succours to the neighbouring islands for the preserving them from the French and Irish in those parts. He is deserving of favour both in the payment of his arrears and otherwise.	Out Letters (Plantations Auditor) I , p. 326.

No interest is hereby to be made on said balance of 6,152 l. 8 s. 4½ d. , as same is intended to be paid to him [in cash] when and as the debentures are made forth in the Office of Ordnance for the goods which he is yet to serve in.	Money Book X , pp. 471-2.
