

diately after the first stage of the disorder, which was of so putrid a nature, that the whole body of the deceased was covered with large purple blotches, and was exceedingly offensive even before dissolution.

The Dispatch hoop of war, which was sent home express by the Admiral at Antigua, with an account of the hurricane at the Leeward Islands, foundered at sea; the crew were taken up by the Panther man of war from Newfoundland, and landed last Wednesday at Portsmouth, as were the letters brought by the Dispatch.

A stone coffin of a vast size was lately dug up in a barn belonging to William Eickmout, at Beckenfield, in Kent, in which were several coins, impressed with the ancient British characters.—We shall endeavour to procure a more satisfactory account of this discovery.

The vintage has this year been so abundant in France, that great quantities of grapes have been left on the vines for want of casks to hold the wine.

Memorandum.—Dry salt applied to the wound is recommended as an immediate remedy for the bite of a mad dog. It should be kept on a considerable time, and renewed as often as it grows moist.

Extract of a private letter from Copenhagen, Nov. 20.

“The post which arrived here this day from Stockholm, brought advice that his Swedish Majesty had been set upon and shot at twice, but happily escaped unhurt.”

BIRTHS.

2. LADY of Henry Wm. Banbury, Esq.—a son.

MARRIAGES.

- JOHN Boddington, Esq.—to Miss Sarah Oare, daughter of the late Rev. Mr. Oare, of Maidstone.
- Oct. 28. George William Ruffel, Esq. of Clapham—to Miss Salway, of the same place.
- Frederic Dolge, Esq. of Prince's-square—to Miss Coleman, of Camberwell.
30. George Cowell, Esq. Mark-lane—to Miss Herner, Fenchurch-street.
- Dr. Pepys—to Lady Jane Evelyn, sister to the Earl of Rothes.
- Nov. 2. Peter Holloway, Esq. of Mary-bone-street—to Miss Ann Young, of Henrietta-street.
3. Geo. Wright, Esq. of Chinkford hatch—to Miss Peacock, of Hackney.
- James Cooks, Esq. banker—to Miss Watson, daughter of the late Admiral Watson.
- John Mitchell, Esq. of Carington-street—to Miss Eliz. Fanshaw, of Cliford-st.
4. Sir Thomas Gascoine, of Parlington, Bart.—to Miss Montgomery.
11. Abraham Cromick, Esq. of Charing-Cross—to Miss Smith, of Essex.

12. Mr. Martin, ironmonger, in Foster-lane—to Mrs. Vaughan, relict of the Rev. Mr. Vaughan, Rector of Appleby.

13. Daniel Guinfton, Esq. of St. James's street—to Miss Kembel, of Hill-st. Edward Edwards, Esq. of Queen street, Cheap-side—to Miss Elizabeth Ambler.
- William Garland, Esq. of Richmond—to Miss Gladman, of Hanover sq.
- Rev. Mr. Pitman, of Dunchidcock, near Exeter—to Miss Eliz. Salisbury Deane, sister to the present Sir Robert Deane.

15. Sir Fernando Poole, Bt.—to Miss White, of Horsham, Suffex.
16. Robert Collins, Esq. of King street, Bloomsbury—to Miss Susannah Baxter, of North Audley-street.
17. William Tash, Esq. of Shentley-hill, Herts—to Miss Mary Jackson, of Broomfield house, Southgate.
- Tho. Charles Rigge, Esq. of Benton-house, in Northumberland—to Miss Ord.
16. Sir Henry Moncrief Wellwood, Bart.—to Miss Robinson, of Edinburgh.
17. George Mackenzie Macaulay, Esq.—to Miss Theed, of Bedford.
- Thomas Dodd, Esq. of Hackney,—to Miss Colebrooke, of Clapton.
18. Capt. Ord, of Chelsea—to Miss Petter, of Mitcham.
19. Rev. Dr. Nichols, Rector of St. Lawrence, in Reading, Berks.—to Miss Raley, of Powick, Worcestershire.
22. Robert Wellings, Esq. of North-Audley-street,—to Miss Amelia Harbourn, of Leicester-fields.

DEATHS.

- CHRISTIAN Jacobfen Drackenburg, aged 146.
- John Hudson, Esq. of Bessingby, near Burlington, in Yorkshire.
- Rev. Mr. Haynes, R. of Stoke upon Fern.
- Lady Havertham, aunt to the present Lord Valentia.
- Capt. Rich. Scudamore, at Bath.
- Sir Charles Price, Barr. at Jamaica.
- Mr. Samuel Scott, at Bath, a celebrated painter of sea-pieces.
- Alderman Woodroffe, of Litchfield.
- Alderman Lamb, of Durham.
- Major John Ruddock, Commander of the North Battery, New England.
- Daniel Leggo, aged 103, at Leeds.
- Rev. Mr. Pudsey, R. of Kirby Underdale, Yorkshire.
- John Talbot, Esq. of Laycock, Wilts.
- Oct. 27. Sir Tho. Munday, Kt. at Oxf.
28. Thomas Fanshaw, Esq. Stanhope-st. May fair; formerly in the guards.
- Perival Hart, Esq. of Brentford.
- John Richardson, of Turro, aged 107.
- John Jones, of Horton lane, near Shrewsbury, aged 102; and
- Mary Butler, of Shrewsbury, aged 101.

29. Rich. Hopkins, Esq. at Kennington Gore.
- Mr. Edmunds, of Monmouth. He has bequeathed 10,000l. to bae Mills, a poor relation, whom he never would speak to while he lived.
- John Dive, Esq. Hertford-st. May-fair.
- Rev. Abraham Gregory, M. A. Precentor of Durham Cathedral.
30. Joseph Hornby, Esq. a Secondary in the Pipe-office.
- Wm. Round, Esq. at Birchall hall, Essex.
- Mr. Edward White, of Ryder-street, St. James's. He long endured the most excruciating pain in his side, without discovering the cause. On opening him, his liver was swelled to an enormous size.
- Nov. 1. Wm. Jones, Esq. at Vauxhall.
2. Capt. Haddenet, Quarter-master to the 2d. reg. of foot-guards.
- Henry Harpur, Esq. one of the oldest Benchers of Lincoln's-Inn.
- Joshua Tennet, Esq. at Brompton.
- Tho. Ridgerton, Esq. Portland-street.
3. John Ruffel, Esq. merchant, in Broad-st.
- John Cater, Esq. of Castle-hornton, in Kent, of an apoplectic fit.
- Rev. Mr. Bowler, R. of Colerne, Wilts.
- Ch. Bond, Esq. a West-India merchant.
- Lady of Richard Myddleton, Esq. of Chirk-Castle, Denbighshire.
- Capt. Henry Sampson, of the 31st reg. of foot, now at St. Vincent's.
- Mrs. Jane Knight, aged 28, who lately assumed the name and arms of that family.
- Dr. Thomas, of Lavenham, in Suffolk.
4. Philip Wade, Esq. at Hackney.
- Lady of the Rev. Dr. Wilson, Senior Prebend of St. Peter's, Westminster.
- James Pool, Esq. at Edmonton.
- Michael Byrne, Esq. Member for St. Maw's, in Cornwall.
5. Daniel Bradley, Esq. at Chelsea.
- Anthony Columbies, Esq. at Chigwell, in Essex, of an apoplexy.
- Francis Le Frere, Esq. a French merchant, in Pantan-street.
6. Thomas Holmes, Esq. at Chelsea.
- Ja. Warner, Esq. at East Hagborn, Berks.
- James Ramsey, Esq. late of the 30th reg. of foot.
8. Hugh Nicholson, Esq. in Grosvenor-street; lately arrived from the E. Ind.
9. James Whitaker, Esq. at Kennington.
- Sir Adam Inglis, Bt. of Cramond, Scotl.
10. John Dixon, Esq. at Lambeth.
- John Symonds, Esq. in Portman street.
- Capt. Waring, of Swinbrooke, Oxfordsh.
11. Wm. Shaiten, Esq. at Hackney.
12. Geo. Harrison, Esq. near Barnes, Sur.
- Robert Colbourn, Esq. near Croydon, Sur.
13. Onesimus Wortner, Esq. Granville-Row, Marybone.
14. Rev. Mr. John Fulham, at Chelsea, one of his Majesty's domestic Chaplains, and Rector of Cheddington, Surry.
- Edward Rumsey, Esq. Secretary to the Board of Excise at Dublin.
15. John Hopkins, Esq. of Britrens, Eff.
16. Nicholas Turte, Esq. Qu. Anne-st.
17. Capt. Carr, of his Majesty's navy.
- Sir Walter Batefent, private Secretary to her late Majesty Queen Caroline.
- Joseph Bowen, Esq. West-India merchant.
- Joshua Colwill, Esq. of an apoplexy, at Fevertham, in Kent.
18. Christopher Morlat, Esq. at Hackney.
- Richard Halden, Esq. of Gopfold-hall, near Ingatesstone, Essex.
- Wm. Monckton Arundel, Visc. Galway, and Baron Killard, of the Kingdom of Ireland, Member for Pontefract. He is succeeded by his eldest son, now Lord Visc. Galway, 22 years of age.
19. Rev. Dr. Wm. Deschamnes, late a Minor Canon of Windsor.
- Alderman Smith, of Reading, Berks.
20. Philip Morner, Esq. at Hackney.
21. Charles Bowthian, Esq. suddenly, a Richmond.
- Rev. Mr. Cox, at Farnbull, near Windsor.
- Dr. Lyoe, Physician, at Bristol.
22. Mr. Deputy Francis Ell's, Clerk to the Commissioners of Land Tax in Lond.
- Thomas Fry, D. D. at Bristol, President of St. John's College, Oxon.
- Hon. Edward Southwell, uncle to Lord Southwell.
25. Joseph Ellison, Esq. at Clapham.
- John Blackburn, Esq. in Henrietta-street, Cavendish-square.

CIVIL PROMOTIONS.

THE worshipful Charles Gold, Esq. to the Chancellor of the Diocese of Salisbury, to which he was presented by the Right Rev. the Bishop thereof.

William Courtenay, Esq. of Hartley-row, Hants, and John Benson, Esq. of Christ Church, Oxon, are appointed by his Majesty to the office of making, writing, and engrossing all writs of Subpœna issuing out of the high Court of Chancery.

Sir Henry Stafford Smythe is appointed by his Majesty Lord Chief Baron of his Majesty's Court of Exchequer, in the room of L. C. J. B. Sir Thomas Parker.

James Eyre, Esq. has received the honour of Knighthood, and has kissed hands on being appointed one of the Barons of Exchequer.

Re. Hon. Rt. Lord Olive is appointed his Majesty's Lieutenant of and in the county of Salop.

Richard Stonehewer, Esq. is promoted to the office of Auditor of the Revenue of Excise.

And William Lowndes, Esq. to be a Commissioner of Excise.

The Hon. Edward Hay, Esq. is appointed Governor of Barbadoes, in room of Governor Spry, &c. And Daniel Hoffmanden, Esq. Chief Justice of New York.

052 a1
G.M. 42
1772
Index
& Texts.